JAILER'S WIFE STOPS PRISONER'S ESCAPE

Pelted Stones at Him as He Climbed Out of Window and He Resisted.

Edmonton, Kentucky, Dec. 18.—Mrs. C. T. Garrett, wife of the jailer of Metcalf County, blocked a jail delivery here yesterday after she discovered Edward Jennings, awaiting trial on a charge of highway robbery, half way out of a window, the bars of which he loosened.

Mrs. Garrett gathered an armful of stones and began to throw them at Jennings. They came so close to the prisoner that he crawled back out of range.

Jennings said later the first three stones were "three strikes," and as Mrs. Garrett's aim was improving he abandoned his attempt to escape.

A BURGLAR CAPTURED.

He Had Spent Time in The Portsmouth Penitentiary.

Watertown, N.Y., Standard.

Patrolman Daniel Wart about 2.30 a.m., Tuesday, captured Duane Wagar, alias Duane Vaucher, aged 33, of Enterprise, Ont., Watertown and Dexter, recharged in the act of stealing about $300 worth of articles at the G. C. Martin harness store, No. 119 Washington street.

The arrest of Wagar cleared up another burglary which had occurred about an hour previous. The man admitted Tuesday to the police that it was he who forced an entrance at Jerry's restaurant, No. 230 Court street, and stole cigars, cigars, a set of tools and $1.70 in change. Chief of Police E. J. Singleton questioned him concerning other burglaries in the city, but he stoutly denies any connection with others. Wagar, who claims his German name is Vaucher, admits to having served time in Portsmouth penitentiary for having broken jail. He was sent to jail for petty thieving.

TO HELP IN MAKING TUBERCULOSIS SURVEY

Among the Indians Throughout Canada—The Canadian Executive Takes Action.

Ottawa, Dec. 18.—At the meeting of the executive of the Canadian Tuberculosis Association held here yesterday, a start was made towards Canada's participation in the conference of the International Union Against Tuberculosis in the autumn of 1925.

A committee was appointed to cooperate with the deputy superintendent of Indian Affairs in making a survey of tuberculosis among Indians in the different parts of Canada. Twenty-four members of the executive, representing seven provinces, were in attendance.

KINGSTON ROTARY CLUB.

Riot of Fun and Frolic at Dinner
Thursday Noon.

The members of the Kingston Rotary Club held a dinner at the British-American hotel on Thursday, Rotarian "Mike" Bowen served a turkey dinner for the occasion, and it was much enjoyed.

There was no special speaker for the day, and the time was devoted to fun and frolic with a lively "sing-song." Jack Elder put over some original songs in great style, and Dr. Bruce Taylor and "Al" Davis gave some impressions of their trip to New York and delighted the members with their talks.

During the dinner "Doug" Graham, who will shortly enter the ranks of the benedicts, was "called" by E. G. Barrett and received the blessings of President Arthur Lyster and the best wishes of all the members of the club.

IMPRESSIVE FUNERAL SERVICES ARE HELD

Over the Body of the Late Samuel Gompers, American's "Labor King."

New York, Dec. 18.—Impressive funeral services were held today for Samuel Gompers at the Elks Club after which the body was taken by automobile to Tarrytown for interment in the historic Sleepy Hollow cemetery.

The great assembly hall, draped in purple, was crowded to capacity with co-workers and friends of the late president of the American Federation of Labor. Fifteen hundred persons, unable to gain admittance to the hall, assembled in the town hall across the street and heard the funeral service by radio. Other thousands stood reverently in near-by streets. The simple Jewish ritual for the dead was intoned by Rabbi Stephen S. Wien. Fifty mounted police had to be called to clear a way so the automobile cortege could start on the way to Tarrytown.

"THE RED LILY" BEST THRILLER OF LATE FILMS

The climax of Fred Niblo's "The Red Lily," which opens at the Capitol Theatre today, comes when the hero of the story, played by Ramon Novarro recognizes a woman who has brought him in from the street as his own lost sweetheart, Marise, whom he has sought for years. And what happens thereafter concludes one of the most deeply stirring tales ever told on the screen. The story is aid, for the most part, in the Parisian underworld. The boy's father, in a Brittany village, has disinherited his son on learning of the boy's love for Marise, the daughter of a humble shoemaker. The pair flee to Paris to marry, are separated by peculiar circumstances, and thrust alone upon the city. Marise becomes first a waitress, then a scrubwoman, and finally gives herself up in despair to the underworld. Meanwhile Jean for a time keeps his self-esteem, but eventually loses it also and turns thief. The two meet years later. The boy, who is sought for by the police, answers the furtive invitation of a woman standing in the doorway leading to her dark and dingy room. Then, in the grim and greasy gaslight of her chamber, recognition dawns. The boy's last illusion is shattered. She nurses him through a period of delirium and illness, and then, when they are just beginning to find themselves, he is taken away to prison. He serves two years. Mean-while, the girl is reclaimed by sisters of charity, and a new, different and joyous Marise awaits him outside the prison.

Don't forget to send the children to our annual Santa Claus matinee on Saturday. Santa himself will be there with a present for every child. Admission, 11c.

GREAT COMEDY AT STRAND

If you ever laughed at a married life farce in your life, you're going to laugh at Agnes Ayres' latest production for Paramount, "Worldly Goods," for the last time today, for it's a genuine comedy in every sense of the word, with just enough drama and loads of heart-appeal.

It first ran serially in the Ladies' Home Journal and was later produced in novel form. To say that the book was successful is putting it mildly, and to say that the picture is the book brought to life just about describes the screen version of the story to a 'To' Pat O'Malley plays opposite the star, and Victor Varconi and Eddythe Chapman are others prominent in support.

PAIR OF TWINS WANDERED FROM HOME ON DUMHAM STREET.

"We're lost and don't care who knows it," was the sum total of the doleful cries sent forth by two little boys, twin brothers, found wandering around in the vicinity of Brook and Nelson streets this morning.

All enquiries from passersby brought only the information that they lived with grandmother and auntie and had a baby sister named "Lillian." They were taken to a nearby grocery store and the proprietors found out from them that they lived near the fair grounds. He took them in his car and drove all round the streets in the vicinity of the grounds and then went out the York road without succeeding in getting signs of recognition from his charges. Finally, on his return he happened to turn down Durham street and with joyful whoops the youngsters pointed out their home and all was well again.

LETTERS To The Editor

Not Official Yet.

Kingston Township, Dec. 18.—(To the Editor): It seems to me most remarkable and unfortunate that a statement has been handed to the public of an alleged further shortage in the township of Kingston before a statement has been received by the council. I think it would interest the ratepayers to know that no statement whatever has been placed before the council yet. I will be glad if you will give the ratepayers this information.

QUEEN'S BASKETBALLERS TO LEAVE ON FORTNIGHT TOUR

The Queen's University senior basketball team, senior champions of the Canadian intercollegiate series in 1924, will leave Kingston on Dec. 20th, on a two weeks' tour of the United States. The following players will make the trip: Jones, Haslam, Henderson, Mainburg, Thomas, Dunlop and Hannon (captain).

The itinerary includes the following places in the order named: Newark, N.J.; Philadelphia, Pa.; Brooklyn, N.Y.; Newark, N.J. (second game); Buffalo, N.Y. (two games); Niagara Falls, N.Y.; Potsdam, N.Y. The players will return in plenty of time for a rest before their intercollegiate schedule opens. The United States tour each year is looked upon as a big help to the squad. They meet the very best teams at the cage game and are prepared to give strenuous opposition to McGill, Varsity and Western on their return.

BREAD COSTS LESS IN GREAT BRITAIN

Than It Does in Toronto—Encouragement of High Grain Prices Cause.

London, Dec. 18.—Sir Herbert Thomas Robson, chairman and president of the Wheat Export Company, Incorporated, New York, official agency to the allied governments, in giving evidence yesterday before the royal commission inquiring into food prices, dealt with the movements of the wheat crops in Canada and the United States.

Sir Herbert said the profits of the middlemen in the United States and Canada were very small. It was safe to say that very large quantities of wheat were moved from the farms to the ocean ships on a basis of two cents or less per bushel profit to the middlemen. That was to say, the profit was about 1-1/2 per cent. at the present prices of wheat.

Dealing with the price of bread Sir Herbert Robson said the result of the commission's inquiries undoubtedly would result in the discovery that the price of bread in New York, Montreal, Toronto or Chicago was higher than the price of bread in Great Britain.

The governments of the United States and Canada, Sir Herbert continued, in recent years had done everything in their power to encourage higher prices of grain, especially wheat, as it was evident that there were long periods when wheat would be sold a good deal below the cost of production.
