Athens, Dec. 23 .- The closing meeting of the high school Literary Society for this year was held on the evening of the 18th inst., and was most enjoyable, and was attended by many citizens as well as students. The drama "The Wayward Son," in four acts, was well staged and carried a helpful lesson. The school paper contained many jokes and witticisms and was, as usual, provocative of merriment. The popularity of the staff was attested by the fact that each teacher received a suitable Christmas gift, presented by the pupils. The fall term came to a close on Friday night. A. D.

The public school closing exercises ook place on Friday afternoon, 19th inst, when the pupils had a happy me, receiving gifts and presenting each of the teachers with a Christmas membrance of the staff.
