"TONGUES OF FLAME" BIG MEIGHAN-PARAMOUNT FILM

"Tongues of Flame," adapted from the novel of that name by Peter Clark Macfarlane, brings Thomas Meighan to the screen at the Capitol Theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday in the kind of a role in which the public likes him best. In the Paramount picture, directed by Joseph Henabery, the man who made "A Sainted Devil," Tom plays "Hell Fire" Harrington, recently returned World War veteran who takes up the practice of law in a one-horse town. And it is only half-heartedly that Harrington enters upon this profession. He has been "over there," seen all there is to life, as he thinks. Anything that happens now is of little consequence.

It is not long before Harrington discovers that he has missed the most wonderful thing in life—romance. And it's a down-barreled romance, at that! Harrington's position in the firm of John Boland, the town capitalist, brings on a delightful affair with the millionaire's beautiful daughter, Billie. The other girl in the case is a little Indian school teacher who worships Harrington in silence.

Boland's business tactics are not as straightforward as they might be and Lahleet, the little Indian girl, tells Meighan how her people were once swindled out of their land and she fears the same thing is to happen again. Harrington promises to protect them. And it is this promise that starts all the trouble.

Boland tries to "frame" Harrington and from this point on "Tongues of Flame" builds to one of the most gripping "smash"—climaxes ever seen in pictures.

Bessie Love plays the role of the half-breed girl, Lahleet. Eileen Percy is cast as Billie Boland and Burton Churchill is her father, Cyril Ring. Nick Thompson and others complete the strong supporting cast.

"BROKEN WING" CLOSING TONIGHT

"One of the most entertaining pictures seen at the Strand in a long time" was the verdict of the capacity audience house which greeted "The Broken Wing" featuring Kenneth Harlam and Miriam Cooper at the Strand theatre, last evening. A delightful comedy-romance with hurricane action thousands of feet above the earth makes "The Broken Wing" the novel photoplay of the season.

Warm cornmeal or fuller's earth is excellent for cleaning tapestries or hangings but every particle must be brushed off when finished.

OBITUARY

Late Henry J. Harpell.

There passed to rest on Friday at the residence of his son, on Colborne street, Henry J. Harpell, aged eighty-seven years. The late Mr. Harpell was a widower. He is survived by two sons, Harry, Kingston, and Archie, Oshawa, and four daughters, Misses Maude and Myrtle, Toronto; Mrs. Williams, Oshawa, and Miss Dorothy, in the United States.

WEEK OF PRAYER.

The Services Arranged by the Ministerial Association.

At the meeting of the Ministerial Association of Kingston held in the Y.M.C.A. on Friday, the programme of the week of prayer services were drawn up. The first service will be in charge of the young people. It will be held in Chalmers' church on Monday, January 5th, and Prof. G. Humphrey will speak on "Christ's Claim on Childhood and Youth." Tuesday, the service will be taken in Queen Street church by Rev. G. A. Brown, on the subject: "The Church and the Community." Wednesday, there will be two services, that in Cooke's conducted by the Rev. W. H. Roney, and that in Princess Street Methodist by the Rev. E. H. Burgess. "Social and National Righteousness" will be the topic at both services. Thursday's topic is "Missions at Home and Abroad" and will be taken by Mr. M. W. Harlow in St. James' church. Friday's meeting in the First Baptist church will be conducted by Prof. J. F. McFayden on the subject of "Relationships and World Peace."

The Ministerial Association also arranged the year's schedule of services at Rockwood hospital. Every minister and a number of laymen conduct two nine o'clock services at that institution during the year.

One gentleman who was addressing the patients on the inhuman custom of Indian mothers who throw their babies to the crocodiles noticed one of his audience very deeply concerned and spoke to him afterwards.

"Ay," said the patient, "I was just thinkin' what a peety it was yer mither didn't do the same by ye."

SPORT

HOCKEY GAME PUTS FOUR IN HOSPITAL

Donald Grimeson's Arm Broken and Patterson Emerges With a Broken Rib.

The largest crowd of fans so far this season saw two city league hockey matches last night which kept them on their toes from start to finish. In the first match, R.C.A. met Granites, Granites, of course, were favorites and it seemed that they would be more so when R.C.A. had to take the ice minus Lieut. Patnet and one or two other players. But that fine sportsman, Col. Constantine, who has been playing in the nets for them, laid aside the pads to a new man who had never played before and went to his old position on the defence. The crowd rallied to his support.

Granites scored four and in the second period ran it to six. Then, in the final period, Col. Constantine followed up quickly on a shot and scored the first counter for his team amid deafening applause. The whole crowd began to cheer R.C.A. "Conny" added another goal and a few minutes later one of his men made it three. The cheers became deafening. "Conny" went for a rest and while he was off Granites ran in two more counters to make it 8-3—but it was a great final period.

R.C.A.—Goal, Mallett; defence, Constantine and Mellon; centre, Daybell; wings, R. Pugh and Lesage; subs., Leeman.

Granites—Goal, Holman; defence, Purdy and Dunlop; centre, Dougall; wings, Driscoll and Compeau; subs., Montgomery and Brousse.

Referee—H. Nicholson.

HOSPITAL LIST.

Here was the hospital list last night—Donald Grimeson, Circle-Six, broken arm; Patterson, Circle-Six, broken rib; Meltz, Circle-Six, knocked cold at the Irish goal with a dangerous long gash over his eye; Devlin, Circle-Six, shoulder muscles torn and wrenched enough to keep him in bed for some time; and a bunch of minor injuries which needed a steady procession of first aid.

Circle-Six carried by far the balance of the play but the wily Terry Millan, after getting his lead, made his forward shoot the rubber far up the ice and forced Circle-Six to carry it back, thus wearing them down to a frazzle. Tobin's work in goal did the rest while young "Wes" Powell had a streak of hard luck and four long shots, one from past centre mark, slipped by him.

Irish men—Goal, Tobin; defence, Laflamme, Nickle; centre, Lanor; wings, Millan and Joyce; subs., Spoor and A. Angrove.

Circle-Six—Goal, Powell; defence, Devlin and Meltz; centre, Kirby; wings, Hartley and Patterson; subs., Gibson and Grimeson.

Referee—H. Nicholson.

Must Stop This

Last night's City League hockey match proved conclusively that the City League must take drastic action to get rid of the "rough stuff" which is constantly growing worse.

The teams were just about equally to blame, although the Irishmen came out with fewer casualties. Circle-Six were for the most part inoffensive, but a couple of men on their forward line started the business about the same time that the Irish forwards got cocky and there was a steady parade to the penalty bench from then on. How some of the players escaped with their lives is a marvel, but it is sufficiently bad with a broken arm, a broken rib, a wrecked shoulder and a serious gash over the eye, besides several souvenirs carried by the Irishmen.

It must stop—that's all there is to it. City League referees must be empowered to give five, ten and Forty-Three Popular Words.

Victoria Colonist.

There are 43 words which constitute about half the English vocabulary of the average person. They are—and, be, have, it, of, the, to, will, you, about, all, as, at, but, can, come, day, dear, for, got, go, hear, if, in, me, much, not, on, say, she, so, that, these, they, this, though, time, we, with, write, your, her, one.

If you doubt this read the speeches made by the average politician. It will prove more interesting than a cross-word puzzle to make comparisons of the command of English that is enjoyed by various speakers.
