KINGSTON AND DISTRICT

Seeking A Divorce.
 Mrs. Ethel May Sherik, Picton, has applied to the senate for a divorce from her husband, on the usual statutory grounds.

Ladies' Shooting Match.
 On Friday afternoon a ladies' shooting match took place at Tweed.
 Owing to the snowstorm and darkness, only one goose was shot off.
 Mrs. Harry Corbett had the honor of getting the geese.

Made Good Returns.
 Lindsay Campbell of Drummond knows how to raise poultry, says the Perth Courier. He handles the White Wyandotte breed and at the Perth poultry fair sold 55 pullets (alive) for $80 and 93 cockerels (dressed) for $171.75. He was paid thirty-one cents per pound.

Another Retiree Scholarship.
 Miss Martha Dick, who is attending Queen's, has been awarded the Dr. Keyes scholarship of $100 for highest marks obtained in extra mural work done by a graduate of the Ottawa Normal school. This is the first year that this scholarship has been open for competition.

A Veteran Lady Dies.
 An aged resident of Ameliasburg township in the person of Mrs. Abigail Eaton passed away on Christmas Day at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. F. Osborne, Massasasoga. Deceased was born in Prince Edward county in 1827 being thus eighty-seven years of age. She was a daughter of the late William Way.

A Summer Resident Dead.
 Mrs. T. W. Bakewell died in New York on Dec. 13th. She was a prominent summer resident at the Thousand Islands. Mrs. Bakewell spent her summers at Grenell and Grindstone islands, practically all her life, first coming to the river when a small girl. Her late summer home, the "Orchard," on Grindstone Island, is one of the best on the river.

A Shooting Competition.
 Despite the cold and unpleasant day there was a good attendance at the shooting competition on Thursday in Prince Edward county.
 Everything was done to help those taking part, and for their comfort a tent was erected and lunch served.
 Harvey Graham, Swamp College, won the big prize turkey of fifteen pounds, and Carl Bryant the big goose of similar weight, while others were quite satisfied with fowl of less proportions.

From Lanskok County.
 Thomas J. Campbell, noted as the manager of the greatest acreage of farm land in America, having 3,000 acres under cultivation in Montana, U.S., is being seriously considered by President Coolidge as secretary of agriculture. He is son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Perth, and brother of Mrs.
 Bain and of Miss Sadie Campbell, Toronto. He has wonderful executive abilities and is a most genial and approachable man.

Plaintiff Recovered.
 A case of more than local interest was brought by J. E. Cooney, who resides near Grafton, against the owner of a truck, which the owner loaned to a man named Hart to move some of his household effects from Havelock to Coburg. It is alleged that a bedstead was sticking out on the load, and in passing damaged the top of Mr. Cooney's automobile. The plaintiff sued for $50 and was allowed $32.70.

Great Advance In Price.
 A turkey having an approximate weight of thirty pounds sold in a Renfrew meatshop at approximately forty cents per pound. In that transaction the customer could not expect to have anything left from a ten-dollar bill. By the way, Harry Airth, Ben. Buffin, Joseph M.
 George and some others of the oldest inhabitants can remember the day when forty cents would purchase a whole turkey.

Election of Officers.
 At the regular meeting of L.O.L.
 No. 490, Croydon, the following were elected to office for the ensuing year: Wilfred Haggerty, worshipful master; George Barrager, conducted the election and the officers were installed by worshipful district master, Charles McConnell.

Watts-Carpenter Wedding.
 On Monday night, Ethel, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Carpenter, was united in marriage to Christopher, only son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Watts. The couple were married by Rev. Dr. R. H. Bell in Sydenham street Methodist parsonage. The bride wore a charming dress of brown satin and hat to match. After the ceremony the couple went to the home of the bride's parents, where a dainty and sumptuous supper was served. A toast was given to the bride and groom by Mr. Newton. Immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present. Music was played during the evening. The happy couple will reside in Kingston.

Same Initials and Name.
 A case which was tried by the Smith's Falls police court a few days ago turned out in a very unusual manner. A young man was brought before the magistrate charged with having obtained medical prescriptions by improper means and evidence was produced which apparently proved that he had obtained two in one day. Two prescriptions issued by different doctors on the same day for apparently the same man were produced in court but although they were signed with the same name and apparently with the same signature it was shown by the testimony of the doctors that they were issued for two different young men, cousins, whose signatures were the same. The case was dismissed after two hours of investigation.

Masonic Officers Chosen.
 At a regular meeting of Maple Leaf Lodge, A.F. & A.M., No. 119, G.R.C. at the lodge room, Bath, on Saturday, Dec. 27th, the following officers were installed: D. R. Sharpe, W.M.; G. W. Cuppage, I.P.M.; M.
 H. Mellon, S.W.; C. B. Colluppy, J.
 W.; Robt. Mott, chaplain; Max Robinson, treasurer; F. G. Young, secretary; Wm. Birrell, S.D.; J. S.
 Weese, J.D.; W. Thompson, D. of C.; M. Creighton, S.S.; D. F. Ayls-worth, J.S.; R. Sexsmith, I.G.; M.
 Thomson, Tyler.

Suit Over a Cow.
 At Division Court in Wellington Judge McLean heard the case of Philip A. Terry versus Bert Pear-sail. Pearsall, who is a drover, purchased a springer cow from Terry, the plaintiff, some time in October, agreeing to call for it in a few days.
 During that time while it was on the plaintiff's property, the cow freshened. Pearsall sold the cow to Mr. Partelle, Bloomfield, who, with his man, went to Mr. Terry's farm on Gilead road, and took it home. In a few days Partelle complained to Pearsall that the cow had only three quarters and refused to keep the cow. Pearsall told Partelle to deliver the cow back to Terry, which he did. Terry refusing delivery, claiming that the cow was all right when sold to Pearsall. The animal was left on the road, and finally placed in the pound of John Dick, Gilead. After remaining in pound for several days, the cow was advertised and finally sold at public auction, to pay poundage. Plaintiff Terry asked Pearsall payment of $50, for his cow, which was allowed by the judge, together with costs.

The big business we have enjoyed since this big Closing Out Sale started, has made it possible for us to give better bargains than ever during the remaining days. We are going to keep this stock well balanced, and clean out odd lots, as well as make a clean sweep of everything.

Hear the way the people are talking about this event! You can't help but to buy when you see the big values offered, and it wouldn't be human for you not to shout about such an opportunity to your friends and neighbors.
