Modern Girl.

Rose: "So Beatrice is suing that wealthy clubman for breach of promise, eh?"

Marie: "Yes, she wants to convince him that she's not the kind of girl that will let the men forget."

"I live only for my art. Why I had rather be known as a third-rate artist than as a millionaire."

"Well, aren't you?"

No, Truly, giving the baby a pen-knife to play with will not help him to cut his teeth.

Doctor: "Now, if you will send your wife in I will tell her how to give you a cold bath."

Patient: "I'd rather you'd tell my janitor how to give me a hot one."

Success At Last.

Mrs. Hall: "John, I believe you are deceiving me."

Mr. Hall: "Well, I've been trying for 15 years."

The Answer.

Clinton: "My wife is going away for three months, but she promised to write often."

Nelson: "How much will you send her?"

Herops and—

Little Betty, seven years old, ran across the street to play with her little neighbor, Billy, also seven. They soon began discussing what to do.

"Let's play 'Movie Stars.'" "All right," agreed Billy. And so it happened that the hero Billy killed the Wildcat which, in their childish minds, was creeping up behind the beautiful Betty while they were gathering flowers in the woods.

Little Billy gathered Betty in his arms as she exclaimed: "My hero." Billy drew her closer to him and answered back: "My she-ro."

GANANOQUE

Dec. 31.—Much sympathy is expressed for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wylie, and family, in the untimely death of their son Patrick who passed away at his home yesterday morning after an illness extending over the past few months. Pat was a general favorite with everyone. He was educated in the Gananoque schools and learned the telegraph operating here, being employed in the Gananoque office and at different points for the Canadian National. He was a young man of exemplary habits and his cutting off in the prime of youth with a bright future ahead of him makes it all the sadder. The funeral will probably take place Thursday morning to St. John's church where a solemn Libera will be chanted.

Besides his parents he is survived by four brothers, Vincent, Charles, Hugo and Harold, Gananoque, and four sisters, Mrs. Casselman, Montreal, Mrs. Leo Convey, Arraprior, Miss Veda, nurse on the Hotel Dieu staff, Kingston, and Miss Margaret at home.

Gerald Keyes left yesterday to spend the remainder of the holidays with friends in Montreal and New York.

Kenneth Latimer, Detroit, Mich., is the guest of his sisters for the holiday season.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mudge were good enough to place their lovely home at the disposal of the Badminton Club on Monday evening for a bridge. There were eleven tables in play and the prizes were won as follows: Ladies' royal, Mrs. Harrington Baker; gentlemen's, Frank Henne; hidden, Miss Fausta Wolfe.

Bridge was played until midnight after which there was dancing for a couple of hours. Those from out of town but principally Gananoqueans home for the holiday season were: Miss Claire Mitchell, Montreal; Mrs. Watt, Ann Arbor; Kenneth Johnston, Chicago; Mr. Oliver, Toronto; Betty Sampson, Montreal.

There was a jolly time last evening at the parish house when there was a Sunday school festival for the Anglican children.

Keith Taylor is to be host at a large house party this evening.

The Misses Rees entertained at bridge last evening.

Gananoque merchants report record sales during the Christmas season, which is probably largely due to people waking up to the fact that shopping at home not only pays but our own stores afford as good opportunities as going or sending abroad.

Horse-back riding is becoming quite popular these days among the young people, as is also skating, both healthful and exhilarating exercises.

Dr. Doolittle the father of good roads and a very eloquent and entertaining lecturer has promised the mayor to honor Gananoque with a visit in the near future when he will address the Canadian Club.

Mrs. Leo Convey, Arraprior was called here Monday owing to the serious illness and subsequent death of her brother, Patrick Wylie.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brown, Brock street, have had their son, Sergeant Thomas Brown, Kingston, and their daughter Dorothy, Oronburg, N.Y., with them for the festive season. Miss Brown returned yesterday.

Where Silence Was Golden. London Daily Chronicle.

A curious story of a bar of gold and a woman's revenge was revealed recently before the tribunal in Geneva.

In December, 1917, Messrs. Gay & Co., a firm of jewellers, gave orders for the transport to their factory of several gold bars, which were placed on an ordinary handcart, covered with sacks, and drawn through the streets by two employees without a guard.

While going up a steep incline one of the bars fell unnoticed into the deep snow in the street, and it was found later by two workmen, who carried the precious metal home and hid it in a cellar.

According to a local law, if a lost article is not claimed within seven years it becomes the property of the finder, and therefore the two workmen would have been much richer this month, when the legal time limit expired if their wives, who knew of the treasure, had not quarrelled over a trifle.

One of the women, in revenge, entered the nearest police station and told the story after having kept the secret for seven years. Her two months' possession of the gold bar, did not wish to prosecute, the judge took a lenient view and bound the men over. They left the court vigorously abusing their wives.

Made an Investment. Considerable interest is maintained by Northern New York horsemen in two purchases made at the Old Glory sale in New York by Oliver Hawkins, Wolfe Island. Mr. Hawkins brought out the locally famous Amourdale which took to Canada the lion's share of purses in the up state circuit a few seasons ago and later was successfully campaigned under management of Claude B. Fletcher, race secretary of the state fair, through the Grand Circuit. Mr. Hawkins has promised that he will bring over another champion as result of his recent investments.

A Dance at Napanee. Napanee, Dec. 30.—One of the most enjoyable dances of the season was given last night in the Masonic rooms, Dundas street, by Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Boyes, John street. There was a large assemblage of guests, as over two hundred invitations had been issued. The tasteful decorations and excellent music together with the beautiful costumes of the ladies made a most charming ensemble. Delightful refreshments were served about midnight after which the programme was resumed.
