Light Hurts Some Eyes

Some eyes are extremely sensitive to light. For such patients we supply special lenses that prevent the harmful rays of light from entering the eyes.

If the movies, bright lights, travelling on the water or by auto bothers your eyes, let me fit you out with a pair of these lenses.

MAXSON FURNAL JAMES

Manslaughter.
"I would be pleased," said Jim McBride.
"To take you to a show."
His dear, old-fashioned niece replied,
"I shall be pleased to go."
Alas, to think that when he gave his invitation thus,
"I would put the fellow in his grave and raise an awful fuss!"

The fateful evening came at last and she, well-mannered, prim, but with her heart beating coming fast,
Received her fiance, Jim.
With blushes, flutter and tut tut Goodbyes at length were said; But hardly had the front door shut when Jim McBride fell dead!

The coroner sat on the case, And headlines far and wide, Told all the gaping populace Just what killed Jim McBride. He'd hailed a taxi passing by, When she said, "Jim, that's far too much to pay; their rates are high; Let's take a trolley car!"

One Guess is Good As Another.
"What does the editorial 'we' mean?"
"I suppose it means short paragraphs—they are we editorialists."
—Joan Benda.

Why He Became A Beggar.
"You used to get good pay in vaudeville imitating the whistling of birds; why are you broke now?"
"They told me to change my act or they couldn't pay me any longer. In other words, if I expected any more pay for whistling, I could whistle for my pay."
—Norman Lewis.

A man is indeed boss in his home when he has two drawers in the dresser for his very own!

Scandal And A Cup of Tea.
"Of course, I haven't told another soul, but they need to live in Shoreville."
"You say you've never seen her? Well, my dear, you don't know what a tainted face is."
"Don't say a thing about it, but it was only last Friday that I heard her tell him to get out and stay out."
"Thirty-five! Why she's 40 if she's a day."
"Why of course I was invited. But I naturally didn't go."
"Well they say—now I don't know how true it is—that her mother drank like a fish."
"The Warrens! Why I wouldn't dream of going near their house after what they said about Lucy. And, you know, they had to mention my name, too!"

The Tricky Triplet Counter.
Long, Long Ago,
I fondled her hair,
The dear hair of my Mabel;
I thought it so fair,
That I fondled her hair,
Yet she seemed not to care,
Though it sounds like a fable,
I fondled her hair—
'Twas her switch on the table.

He Knew How to Use It.
Teacher: "Aaron, use the word 'cynic' in a sentence."
Aaron: "Last summer we went to Coney Island and had a ride on der cynic railway."
—Milton Nichols.

Pleased All Around.
Gramercy: "How can you encourage your wife to waste her time on a cross word puzzle?"
Park: "It's the best thing ever gotten up. Now I have the rest of the paper all to myself."
—Orville Lieber.

What-Price Glory!
A teacher had told the pupils that she would not allow them to chew gum during school hours.
Upon seeing little Louise disobeying one day, she said: "Louise, throw your chewing gum in the basket at once."
Louise began to cry and said: "It's my sister's."
—Florence Bennett.

GANANOQUE

Jan. 5.—The death occurred Friday night last of Mrs. Helena Pelow, at the age of eighty years. Her husband, Peter Pelow, predeceased his wife last May. Surviving are ten children, John, Grocer, Alexander, Christopher, Joseph (Kingston), Henry, Denis, Mrs. John Cousineau, Ploton; Mrs. Alfred Baker, Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. John O'Brien, Alexandria Bay. The funeral took place this morning to St. John's church where a high requiem mass was chanted for the repose of her soul.

Miss Kathleen O'Brien and her little niece, Anna Gray, spent the week-end with friends in Kingston. Death came suddenly to John Crowley yesterday morning at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Philip Conlin. Mr. Crowley, though a resident of Kingston for a great many years, came with his wife to spend his latter days with his daughter. Mrs. Crowley predeceased him a couple of years ago. Mr. Crowley made a great many friends here during his residence as he was of that kindly gentlemanly nature and his familiar figure will be greatly missed in the town of his adoption. The funeral took place this morning to St. John's church at ten o'clock where a high requiem mass was sung for the repose of his soul, after which the remains were placed in the vault for interment at Kingston in the spring. Surviving are his daughter, Mrs. Conlin, and two sons, Joseph, Buffalo, and William, St. Louis, Mo.

Miss Doris Butler returned to resume her studies at Ottawa Normal after spending the holidays here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Stunden, Hamilton, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Stunden.

Misses Ina Kidd and Mary LaQue left yesterday for Brockville where they will enter Brockville Business College for a commercial course.

Bruce Hall, Ottawa, has been spending the past week here with friends.

W. Wickin, Kingston, has been spending the past few days with his son, William Wickin.

Miss Katherine Brennan spent the week-end with Kingston friends. Bueth Bradley, Prescott, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Sanford Delaney.

Miss Emma Anderson was the lucky winner of the goose given away by Alex Gordon for guessing the correct weight.

Mrs. Nellie Bryan, Brock street, was taken to the General Hospital, Kingston, a few days ago for treatment.

Miss Anna Tapping has returned to Ottawa after spending the holidays here with her parents.

PICTON SKATING ARENA.

Has Been Leased—Some Elections By Acclamation.

Picton, Jan. 3.—I. F. Fraser was elected again as utilities commissioner by acclamation. The school trustees for the different wards were also all elected by acclamation.

Miss Vera Vandusen, student at Osgoode Hall, spent the holiday with her parents here.

Misses Gertrude and Violet Cooke, New York City, are with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Cook, Mary street east.

Miss Margaret Leggett, of Rochester, N.Y., is holidaying with Mr. and Mrs. W. Patterson, Washburn street.

Miss Pearl Watson came down from Toronto and spent over Christmas with her mother, Mrs. G. Watson.

Miss Vera Leavitt, of Bloomfield, has secured her Model School certificate after taking the prescribed course.

Arthur Ellison, of Toronto, came down to spend holidays with his wife and daughter here.

Richard Jenkins is leaving the Port Millford Capping Co. for which he has been manager for several years, and has accepted a position with a new company which is building a new factory at Bloomfield.

Leon Spencer and J. H. Carter, of Napanee, have leased the Picton skating arena from J. H. Fitzpatrick for the remainder of the winter. The ice is in good shape and a schedule of games is being prepared. The band has been engaged for two nights each week and a good time is promised to the patrons of this excellent sport.

The members of the I.O.D.E. with their friends, gave a most successful dance and bridge in the Oddfellows' hall on New Year's Eve. There was a very large attendance. The proceeds go to Prince Edward County hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stanton, of Detroit, Mich., are visiting at Mrs. Stanton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Heffernan, Bridge street.
