Gift For Young Lady.
Miss Bessie Dorland's Sunday School class at Wellington, presented her on Sunday with a fountain pen as a token of appreciation for her faithful services.

Shipped Fruit Home.
Last week T. E. Armstrong sent to Carleton Place from California a large box of fruit including grape fruit, lemons, etc., picked from the grove of Wm. Nesbitt, formerly of Carleton Place.

A Successful Cheesemaker.
The patrons of Allisonville cheese factory held their annual meeting and every one was pleased with the year's work. Mr. Ferguson is congratulated as a cheesemaker. During the whole season he had but twenty-two cheeses that went as seconds. It was decided at the meeting that the cheese for 1925 be sold through the co-operative company.

Gifts To The Organist.
Mr. and Mrs. George Richmond, Selby, were taken by surprise when a number of the congregation of St. John's church gathered at their home to present Mrs. Richmond with a well filled purse as a recognition of her services as organist. Mrs. Richmond manifested a deep appreciation of their kindness and generosity in a few fitting remarks.

Presentation to Minister.
An interesting event took place at the close of the Young People's meeting in St. Andrew's church Carleton Place, when the dearly beloved minister, Rev. A. R. Gibson was presented by the Y.P.S. of his congregation with a beautiful Parker Dufoed pen in recognition of his many kindnesses to them during the year. Mr. Gibson has labored hard and earnestly in the interests of the young people.

Farm Changes Hands.
James Thomas, Ramsey, township, about two miles from Carleton Place, on the Innesville road, has disposed of his 200 acre farm to Robert Dowdall, High street. The latter gets possession in April. This is one of the most beautiful farms in Ramsey and has been the home of Mr. Thomas for over fifty years. The latter will retire next spring and will move to Carleton Place to make his future home.

Presented With a Purse.
Very Rev. Canon Thomas Patrick Fay, parish priest of St. Bridgid's church, Ottawa, a native of Almonte, and an old Almonte high school boy, celebrated on Dec. 23rd the silver jubilee of his ordination. His confreres of the archdiocese of Ottawa made up their minds that their distinguished and much respected co-worker would just have to bow to their wishes. Accordingly there was presented to him a handsome purse, and an address.

A Great Bargain in Men's Suits.
We have a limited quantity of men's suits which we are selling during this great clothing sale for $13.45, only a limited quantity. The Lion Clothing Co.

Another View Point.
The Kenfrew Mercury says: The Ottawa Journal condemns the singing of Christmas carols in the streets, while The Kingston Whig defends the same, the one having probably seen them in a poor light and the other in more favorable circumstances. Properly conducted there seems no reason why the singing of carols should offend any tastes. Certainly the popular conception of them is that they are all right in every way. Half-intoxicated persons could make a farce of carols.

IN THE MORNING HER TONGUE WAS COATED HAD BAD TASTE IN MOUTH

Miss Pearl L. Zinck, Barre, N.S., writes:—"I was awfully troubled with my liver, and used to get such dizzy spells I would have to sit down while I was doing my work."

In the morning, when I used to get up, my tongue was coated and I had a bad taste in my mouth and often times, throughout the day, I was troubled with pains in my stomach.

I suffered in this way until a friend of mine who had used your MILBURN'S Laxa-Liver Pills told me of having taken them, so I decided to try them, and I can truthfully say that they certainly did me a lot of good.

"I cannot recommend them too highly to all those who suffer as I did."
You can procure Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills at all druggists or dealers; put up, for the past 30 years, by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

ols, but youth and men in that state have little thought for the singing of carols.

A Golden Wedding Event.
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Terrill, Wooler, celebrated on Tuesday, the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. About twenty of the guests attended the silver wedding twenty-five years ago, while three of those present this week, also attended the ceremony on Dec. 30th, 1874. Mrs. Terrill was formerly Miss Ella J. Herrington. A feature of the special dinner served on the occasion was roast of venison, the result of Mr. Terrill's forty-sixth hunting trip into the north.

Early Assessments.
In early days and in the first two decades of the 19th century, some of the assessments recorded are certainly peculiar. A house of round logs was assessed for fifteen pounds. If built of square timbers, or hewed on two sides, one storey, and not more than two fireplaces, twenty pounds. Built of squared timbers and two stories, thirty pounds. Built of brick or stone, one storey, forty pounds. If only having two fireplaces. A closed carriage for pleasure with two wheels was assessed for one hundred pounds, this apparently being considered the height of luxury. An open carriage for pleasure was assessed for twenty-five pounds.

Portland Paragraphs.
Portland, Jan. 7.—Monday being election day everything passed off quietly. Everyone voted that had a vote.
The weather has been so fine, for the past week, the farmers are losing no time at their wood and getting out logs for the sawmill.
Mrs. Martha Lyons is visiting friends in Kingston. The dance held at E. Bell's on Dec. 30th was well attended; everyone was well pleased with the good time.
Mr. and Mrs. A. Gallagher spent New Year's with friends in Smith's Falls. The many friends of Mr. Stevens are pleased to see him able to be around again. Mrs. Payman has closed her home and gone to spend the winter in Smith's Falls with her son, Russell Rose.
Mr. Heath is improving; he is able to be up and around the house. C. Morris and family, Smith's Falls, spent Sunday with his parents here. C. Sij, who has been on the sick list for some time, is able to be out and around again.

SPORT DRESS

This dashing sport dress is made of bordered flannel in black and white with a convertible skirt and enormous pockets. The borders are arranged in the back and front so as to give the long lines that are so flattering to all figures except the very thin. The wide sleeves are very attractive.

CANDY LIGHT FOR DINING

Impromptu at a small party, candlelight is much more artistic and effective than the ordinary overhead centre light. The candles are placed around the table, toward the centre, so that they may not be in the way of the diners.

A Straight Business Proposition

We believe we have kept our promises every day of this sale. This event has attracted country-wide attention. It's success is further demonstrated by the crowds of people who throng the store daily, many drawn from a distance of one hundred miles by the incomparable values.

The many letters of praise we have received bear testimony of many satisfied customers, who bought by mail.

There's no type big enough, no words strong enough, and no description good enough to do justice to this big selling event.
