LETTERS To The Editor

A Reply to Mr. Ross.
Elginburg, Jan. 20.—(To the Editor): I was very much interested in that excellent address of Mr. Ross, of Montreal, at the Rotary banquet and his new scheme for the betterment of this old world called "The Equitist Plan." Allow me to say, Mr. Editor, that I am not writing in any spirit of criticism. We are thankful for any effort that is being put forth in this our day to make the world better while we are living in it, but I beg to call attention to the statement made by the speaker regarding human nature—that it is sound and true. Now, sir, that gentleman is no doubt well aware of the fact that real, stern facts are against that very rosy statement. We would only be delighted if we could believe that statement. In the first place in God's Holy Word, in the prophecy of Jeremiah XVII. 17:9, we read these words uttered by the Holy Spirit: "The heart is deceitful above all things and desperately wicked. Who can know it?" Only God knows the human heart. This statement is substantiated by tremendous facts. We have an object lesson in Portsmouth. What about the penitentiary? Dare we go and open wide the gates and say: "Come out, boys. You are all right, sound and true." What about the Russian saboteurs? Over three million of the best Russian people cruelly murdered, and over two thousand Russian priests slaughtered. What about the poor Armenians? Over two millions and a half slaughtered by the Turks whose nature is "sound and true," and they are going to slaughter the other two million and a half. What about the reparations? The Dawes expert committee stated that Germany was well able to pay. Why don't they pay up, and settle the controversy? Is it because Germany is sound and true that she won't pay? These are facts that we have to face. There is a remedy. There is a balm in Gilead. There has come to poor, diseased humanity a great Physician, who is healing. Why don't we honor and give Him the right of way, in all our gatherings. That day, Mr. Editor, must come when every knee will bow and every tongue will confess that He is the Christ to the glory of God, the Father. In that day human nature will be "sound and true." Until then, we need to keep to the inspired word and be vigilant until the old enemy, the great dragon, is taken by the mighty angel and thrust into his eternal prison house. When the Prince of Peace takes possession, then, and not till then, will there be peace.
—JOHN PUTTENHAM.

CUT DOWN THE EXPENSES.
Ald. Reid States Chamber Path Will Fill Bill in Victoria Park.
At the last meeting of the city council, a recommendation of the parks committee, to have a cement walk constructed in Victoria Park from the corner of Alfred and Brock streets to Princess and Brock streets, was adopted.
At the meeting of the Board of Works on Wednesday afternoon, Ald. Reid stated that he thought the city could do without the walk this summer, and thus cut down expenses. The chairman stated that the matter passed the council so hurriedly that he did not realize it and so had no chance to speak about it.
"I think a cinder walk would do for this park," added Ald. Reid, "and I think that the parks committee could arrange to put the cinders there for the walk. I think the money should be used to better advantage on something else."
The board will provide for a stretch of new walk on River street, and also make some needed repairs to the walk on Princess street, extending from the corner of Bagot and Princess streets to Tweedell's store.

Watering of Pavements.
The question of watering pavements put down within the last year or so, will be a matter for discussion at the next meeting of the board of works. Ald. Reid has raised the question as to whether it is just the best thing to water these pavements. He states that he has watched the matter very carefully, and he finds that the bulk of the water runs off into the sewers and the remainder dries off very quickly. He believes that with a proper system of cleaning the pavements there will be no need of using the water.
Engineer Dick has prepared a list of the pavements which have been watered and the matter will be discussed at the next meeting of the board.

An Offer for Stone.
Mr. Gable, who is engaged in pulling down an old stone house on Blincoe street, sends an offer to the city to supply a quantity of stone, which would be suitable for repairing the breakwater. The matter came before the members of the Board of Works at their meeting on Wednesday afternoon, but no action was taken, as it is not likely that any repair work on the breakwater will be undertaken.

Hotel Dieu Banquet.
The ladies' auxiliary of the Hotel Dieu held another successful supper party on Wednesday evening. There were about seventeen tables in play and the prize winners were Miss A. Sauer and Mr. D. Murphy. Mrs. Wright was the winner of the special door prize. After the supper, dainty refreshments were served. The convokers were Mrs. J. Martin and Mrs. E. Coultas.

MAKES FINAL APPEAL.

For the Rotary Club Shoe and Stocking Club.
The Kingston Club has issued the following letter to the people of Kingston:
"You will be glad to learn that some of the needy kiddies of Kingston have been made happier and more comfortable by means of contributions received for the Rotary Shoe and Stocking Fund. The Rotary Club is grateful for the response."
"However, there are still many who urgently require assistance, and we cannot feel entire satisfaction until the last genuine case of need has been helped."
"We are sure that every citizen of Kingston is proud of what is being done to meet the unemployment situation, and of the courageous attitude of the majority of the unemployed. Let us, then, carry this magnificent spirit further in helping those of the future citizens of Kingston who need us now."
"May we suggest that you personally assume the responsibility for acquainting each one of your friends, and all of your employees, with this deplorable condition and its obvious remedy. Would it be possible for you to circulate a subscription sheet amongst your employees? A contribution of a few cents from each employee of every firm in the city would surprisingly augment this very deserving fund."
"It will be necessary for Rotary to close this campaign at an early date; will you, therefore, please lend us your co-operation now?"
"Every day is a day of undiminished suffering for those children who are still in need, and lack of funds is our only excuse for having, as yet, failed to reach them. Yours for Kingston's kiddies,—Kingston Rotary Club."

PLAN ON FOOT TO EXTEND ALICE STREET
