THIRD TERM FOR HILLIS IN THE PENITENTIARY

Grey Haired Man Has Already Served Twelve Years in Portsmouth Prison.

In the assize court at the Toronto city hall last Monday stood grey-haired William Hillis, safe cracker and burglar, who was sentenced to three years in Portsmouth penitentiary for attempted shopbreaking.

And with this sentence it makes the third time that Hillis, at the age of fifty-four came back to Portsmouth in twenty-two years. Hillis has served twelve years in penitentiary and now goes back to do a three-year stretch, making fifteen years he will have spent behind the towering walls at Portsmouth.

For twenty-two years, since 1903, when Hillis was thirty-two years old, he has been passing in and out of the hands of the police of Canada in Toronto and Ontario cities and western cities. He has been finger printed, faced the police camera in many places for burglary, safe blowing, shopbreaking, theft and vagrancy and yet he is not cured. Only last year he was released from Portsmouth prison where he served four years for blowing a safe in the general store and post office at Bala, but he went back to his life of crime.

Hillis first crossed the path of the police in Hamilton in 1903 when he was sent to Penitentiary for eight years for burglary and bringing stolen goods into Canada.

The criminal record of William Hillis is as follows:

1903—Dec. 3, at Hamilton, theft, not prosecuted, carrying firearms, fined $25 or one month in jail.

1907—Dec. 11, at Hamilton, burglary eight years in penitentiary, bringing stolen goods into Canada eight years in penitentiary. Having explosives in his possession, not prosecuted.

1913, March 29, at Regina, Sask., safe blowing, dismissed.

1913, May 7, at Calgary, Alta., burglary, dismissed.

1913, Dec. 13, at Sudbury, vagrancy, six months.

1914, Nov. 24, at Bracebridge, Ont., shopbreaking and theft, twelve months in Ontario reformatory.

1914, Oct. 27, at Fort William, Ont., vagrancy, four months in jail.

1915, Sept. 2, at Toronto, receiving, remanded for sentence.

1920, Nov. 9, at Bracebridge, for safe blowing at Bala, four years in penitentiary.

1925, Jan. 19, at Toronto, attempted shopbreaking, three years in penitentiary.

HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT.

A Very Satisfactory Event in Sydenham on 16th.

Sydenham, Jan. 20.—The high school held its commencement on Friday evening, January 16th, in Wesley hall. The hall was packed and some were not able to get in. The programme was exceptionally good and was presented by talent from the school. Some of the students from Queen's College came out to help with the music. Professor McClement presented the diploma to the successful candidates and judging by the number presented the school had a very satisfactory year.

A unique feature of the evening was the presentation of a prize, by Miss McNamee, for the best poem written by one of the pupils. The prize was awarded to Harold Campbell. The title of his poem was "Oh To Be a Boy Again." Miss Jean Guess had taken as the subject of her poem, "The High School Elm," and the composition showed marked poetical talent.

The body of the late Dr. L. Lloyd Buck was brought here for burial last Wednesday. A Medicine Concert Company gave concerts and advertised their medicine in the township hall all last week.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church held their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Jackson Dowsley on Wednesday afternoon. E. B. Sills has been confined to the house through illness for a couple of weeks. The condempnary paid off the patrons at $1.75 per hundred-weight for 3.3 milk.

The committee on fire protection and those who voted on the by-law had a meeting in the township hall, on Monday evening to discuss more definitely the sort of protection to be purchased.

A great deal of wood has been brought into the village lately.

"Oily New Face Powder." Gibson's.

In roasting, a piece of meat should never rest on the bottom of the roaster, a steel or wire rack should be placed inside for the meat to lie on.

"Buy Listerine." Gibson's.

Black satin turbans closely wound and draped very low over each side are much liked in Paris.

"The good face powders" are sold in Kingston at Gibson's.

There is loud clamor in the United States for a higher tariff against Canada.

"Buy Listerine" at Gibson's.

KNIGHT'S PHARMACY

Gives Splendid Values and Courteous Service.

When a new store enters an already crowded field and yet forges to the front in the course of a few months, the only explanation can be that it is giving better values and more satisfactory and courteous service than are its competitors. The brief but highly successful history of Knight's Pharmacy at 280 Princess street, below Clergy, can be explained in no other way than the above. It was opened for business only last June, but by service and advertising has established itself with hundreds of customers as "their" drug store. No finer compliment could be paid to Mr. Knight, his staff and his goods.

In an effort still further to extend his trade among those who have not yet discovered his store, Mr. Knight will, to-morrow, give away a tin of Vivaudan talcum powder with each purchase of that household necessity, rubber gloves, themselves marked down to only 43 cents. Mr. Knight believes that by giving away something of real value a feeling of friendliness is created between the store and the new customer which will prove profitable to both parties through long years of dealings.

WEDDINGS.

Martin-Standish.

The Toronto Telegram of Thursday says:

A quiet wedding took place Wednesday evening when Mrs. Ira Standish was married to Prof. Iva E. Martin, of Picton, and formerly of the R.M.C., Kingston. Rev. John MacNeill conducted the ceremony. The bride wore a charming wedding gown of pale grey and silver, with silver slippers. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses, lily of the valley and orchids. A reception was afterwards given in her house on Russell Hill road. Afterward Prof. and Mrs. Martin left for a trip to the West Indies, where they will remain until April. On their return they will live in Picton during the summer and Toronto in the winter time.

London Life Insurance Company. The London Life Insurance Company is celebrating the results of its jubilee year and in every department these give cause for the greatest satisfaction. The new business reached the splendid total of $53,500,000. The net amount of business in force was over $178,000,000 and the surplus earnings were the highest in the company's history.

On investments totalling $27,000,000, the very excellent rate of 6.96% was earned. The company's record for careful investment has been splendidly maintained. In spite of the large investment in new business, the company's surplus earnings are reported as much the best in its history, which means that the very liberal scale of profits to policyholders will be maintained and the various additional funds for protection of policyholders are materially strengthened.

The whole report is a most gratifying one to all interested in the company's progress and makes a fitting climax to the company's half century of public service.

Special Sale of Stationery. We are placing three specials in stationery on sale for Saturday morning:

100 boxes good Linen Paper, 25c. per box. 1,000 packages Envelopes, Sale price 5c. 500 packages Envelopes, Sale price 10c.

The Jackson Press, 173 and 177 Wellington street.

How To View Eclipse.

Major Sanders, an Englishman visiting in Syracuse, N.Y., advises that a card be punctured with a pin or needle and this card be held above a piece of white paper, so the image of the sun Saturday morning will be thrown through the miniature hole in the card and show upon the piece of paper. In this way the progress of the eclipse may be watched easily, saving the strain on eyes and neck until near the time of totality, when it is desirable to look at the sun.

On Board of Education.

Mr. Jack Hickey of the law firm of Rigney & Hickey has been appointed to the Board of Education as the representative of the Roman Catholic separate school board for this year and he will act in that capacity. Mr. Hickey is a well known young lawyer and should make a valuable addition to the already splendid board. The post of separate school board representative on the Board of Education last year was held by Mr. Ambrose Shea, who is this year a member of the city council.
