ONLY FOURTEEN BELOW ZERO DURING NIGHT

The Weather is Moderating—Much Colder in Other Places on Wednesday.

The Weather Men is usually right. He promised us milder weather and sure enough the temperature on Wednesday night was only fourteen degrees below zero, instead of twenty degrees below as it had been the previous night. Anyone who is not satisfied must be hard to please. The highest temperature recorded at Queen's on Wednesday was four degrees above zero, and at eight o'clock in the evening it had slipped back to four degrees below. Thursday morning at eight o'clock the mercury was still eight notches below zero.

Compared with other places in Ontario and Quebec, Kingston has been very fortunate. Belleville got a twenty-nine-below punch, Peterboro has its coldest record for twenty-nine winters with a low mark of thirty-six. Three Rivers consigned at forty below and Lennoxville, Que. captured the refrigerating title with forty-eight below zero. Even in New York it was one degree below zero, which is the coldest January 25th ever registered there. The indignation of the New Yorkers can be imagined. Their river froze into a solid sheet as far down as Fourteenth street for the first time since 1833.

IN MEMORIAM.

The Late Daniel Loucks, Clarksville.
In the death of Daniel Loucks, which occurred at the residence of his son, Charles, late on Tuesday evening last, another old and very respected resident of Napanee passed to the great beyond. The deceased had not been in the best of health for a great number of years, having suffered a sun stroke about twenty-two years ago, which had impaired his health for these many years. During the winter months he and Mrs. Loucks had made their home with their son on Thomas street, and during the major portion of the winter he was confined to his bed. About a week before his death he suffered a very severe stroke from which he did not rally.

The late Mr. Loucks was born in North Fredericksburgh eighty-five years ago, but had resided in Clarksville, a suburb of Napanee, practically all his life. In early life he was united in marriage to Miss Chatterton, Napanee, and had issue of two sons, Arthur, who died about ten years ago, and Charles, who resides on Thomas street, Napanee. Besides his wife and son he also leaves to mourn his loss one brother, Jacob, of Stirling, and one sister, Mrs. Chapman, Carthage, N.Y. He was a member of Grace Methodist church, Napanee.

Home From Toronto.
"Jack" Elder has returned home from a trip to Toronto. While there he met many former Kingstontians. Mr. Elder said that the Kingston old boys in that city had made arrangements for a social gathering to be held there to-night at the Odd-fellows' Temple. It was expected that a thousand people would be in attendance. Mr. Elder also says that the former Kingstontians living in the Queen City are very enthusiastic over the Old Boys' reunion to be held here next summer.

Dr. Wallace To Resign.
Rev. H. T. Wallace, B.D., a former professor of Queen's University, and now pastor of the Globe Presbyterian church, Ottawa, will resign in view of the church declining to enter the United Church. Dr. Wallace said: "In face of the vote I will certainly resign. I have been a unionist for fifteen years and I must now hand in my resignation. The resignation will take effect immediately."

Hotel Dieu Euchre.
The ladies' auxiliary of the Hotel Dieu held a successful euchre party Wednesday evening. There were about fifteen tables in play. Mrs. Charles Murphy was the winner of the ladies' prize and Capt. Mahoney the gentlemen's. Mr. D. Winsten was the winner of the special door prize. After the euchre, dainty refreshments were served. The convenors were Mrs. M. Bohan and Miss M. Dorey.

A Popular Priest.
Canadian Freeman subscribers at Trenton, Ont., are high in their praise of their new pastor, the Very Rev. Dean McDonald, formerly at Portsmouth. The different Catholic societies and the congregation as a whole have already expressed messages of welcome and "Father Mac," as he is affectionately known, has won the esteem and confidence of the people of his charge in a very short time.

An Evidence of Loyalty.
Capt. Robert Crawford, in his coal advertisement, calls attention to quite a remarkable evidence of loyalty on the part of his employees, three of whom have been with him 23, 27 and 35 years respectively. This loyalty is only equalled by the aggressiveness and square dealing of the proprietor, a proverbially upright, generous citizen.

"Fresh Emulsion." Gibson's.
Prof. W. G. Wilgar has been elected a member of the council of the Engineering Institute of Canada, meeting now in Montreal. Brigadier Walton and Staff Capt. Owen, Salvation Army, are visiting in the city.

SPLENDID REPORTS AT BETHEL CHURCH

The Election of Officers at the Annual Meeting Held on Wednesday.

The annual meeting of Bethel Congregational church was held in the school room of that church on Wednesday, with a good attendance of the members. Robert H. Treener, president of the church, occupied the chair, and the pastor, Rev. J. A. Miller, conducted the devotional exercises.

Reports of the year's activities were given by the secretary, W. M. Veale, which showed that the church had been very active during the past year. The treasurer's report showed that a substantial balance was in the treasury after all accounts had been paid.

Reports were received also from the Ladies' Aid, Woman's Missionary society, Sunday school, Junior Christian Endeavor, Intermediate Christian Endeavor and Senior Christian Endeavor, showing that they all enjoyed a good year and were very active in Missionary and other enterprises of the church.

The Woman's Missionary society sent out three sales during the year, one to Africa, and two to Saller, Sask., which were appreciated and much needed.

The election of officers for the year resulted as follows: Deacons, Robert H. Treener and F. A. Haffner, for 3-year term, and Mr. Fraser Smith, for 1-year term; President, Mrs. John Veale; treasurer, F. A. Haffner; secretary, W. McVeale; chief usher, Fred Buck; collectors, R. Metcalfe; Alfred Porter and Norman Smith; superintendent, Sunday school, William Bruce, Jr.; assistant superintendent, Sunday school, James Lomax; the board of management is composed of the Board of Deacons, William Bruce, Sr., Herbert Porter, Fraser Smith, Dawson McClellan, Aubrey Williams, Stanley Williams; auditors, W. McVeale and Stanley Wilson.

The ladies of the church served refreshments after the business was concluded and a social half hour was held.

FRONTENAC'S NEW WARDEN.

Owens Three Farms in Oso And One in Lanark.

The selection of Mr. Archie Gray, reeve of the township of Oso, as warden of the county of Frontenac, was a very popular move on the part of the county councillors. Warden Gray is one of the oldest members of the Frontenac council having first been elected in 1918 and has been a member of that body ever since. Mr. Gray first entered the Oso township council as councillor in 1914 and was re-elected councillor the three following years.

Warden Gray has been a farmer all his life, and at the present time he is the owner of three farms in the township of Oso and one farm in the township of Sherbrooke in Lanark county. He has four sons and four daughters. Three of his daughters are married and one daughter and four sons reside on the old homestead. Warden Gray and his four sons are members of Frontenac Masonic lodge at Sharbot Lake. The warden and his sons all belong to the Oso Orange Lodge. Mr. Gray is a Methodist in religion.

"Frost Bite Cure." Gibson's.
Mr. Arthur Stevens, Cochrane, spent Wednesday in Kingston, and went on with the Bonne Entente party to Quebec. He is on the executive council of the Associated Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce of Ontario. Mr. Stevens formerly lived in Kingston and Gananoque.

OBITUARY

Late Henry Craven.
The death occurred at the Hotel Dieu Hospital Wednesday night of Henry Craven, son of James Craven of Guelph, after a rather brief illness. Deceased young man was a student of Queen's University and was in his last year in arts. He was operated upon some time ago and since that time his strength gradually gave out. He was twenty-eight years of age.

The late Mr. Craven was one of the most popular students in the university and the announcement of his death caused deep regret among staff and students, with whom he had become very popular. Mr. Craven was a Roman Catholic in religion. He is survived by his father, James Craven of Guelph, and two brothers, William and James, both of whom were with their brother when the end came. The remains were sent to Guelph Thursday morning by M. P. Keyes, undertaker, and the funeral will take place on Saturday morning.

Late Mrs. M. J. Armstrong.
The funeral of the late Mrs. M. J. Armstrong, who died at the Hotel Dieu on Jan. 25th, was held on Tuesday afternoon from her late residence, 417 Johnson street. The service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Raney of Queen street Methodist church.

Mrs. Armstrong was born at Denbigh. She came to Kingston fourteen years ago, where she resided till her death. She was much respected by her many relatives and friends, who showed their esteem by the many floral tributes. Deceased is survived by her husband, four daughters, Dorothy, Helen, Alma and Margaret, and one son, John; two step-daughters, Mrs. P. H. Hanley of Millbrook, Mrs. P. Baldwin of New York, and one step-son, Herbert of Kingston; also her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Max Mieske of Denbigh, three sisters, Mrs. T. L. Armstrong and Frieda Mieske, of Kingston; Annie, of Denbigh and five brothers, Eugene, Max, Richard and Harry of Denbigh, and Leopold, of Hyndford.

Late Miss Martha Aubin.
The funeral of the late Miss Martha Aubin was held at three o'clock yesterday afternoon from the home of Rev. James Cumberland on Johnson street. The service was conducted by her minister, Rev. Canon Fitzgerald, who paid a sincere tribute to her Christian life and example. The bearers were Messrs. W. Clyde, G. A. Payne, A. Anderson and W. Teutrale.

Miss Aubin—"Mossie," as she was familiarly known—was born in Kingston and lived in this city during her entire lifetime. The news of her death on Tuesday morning after a brief illness, was a great shock to her many friends. She was a woman of strong character and decided views, kind hearted and generous ever willing to give a helping hand where it was needed. She had, in the highest degree, the gift of knowing how to bring sunshine and cheer to the bedside of the sick. But her sympathy for the afflicted could not have been so fine had it not grown through many years of patient care given first to members of her own family and later to those who were so fortunate as to benefit by her aid. Faithful to the end, she was with one whom she helped to attend only a few hours before she herself passed suddenly, yet peacefully away.

She is survived by one brother, George, of Flint, Mich.; his two daughters, and one other niece, Mrs. Kingswell of Silverthorn, Ontario.

St. George's Woman's Auxiliary.
The following officers were elected at the annual meeting of St. George's cathedral branch of the Woman's Auxiliary: President (re-elected) Mrs. R. J. Gardiner; vice-president, Mrs. H. P. Lows and Mrs. Edward Ross; secretary, Mrs. C. S. Kirkpatrick; treasurer, Miss Elizabeth Sutherland; Dorcas secretary, Mrs. R. E. Burns; Living Message secretary, Miss Ferris; thank offering secretary, Mrs. W. A. Sawyer, superintendent of the Junior Branch, Miss Edith Ritchie.

Mrs. Charles Abbott, first vice-president of the diocesan board, spoke on the Forward Movement of the W.A., and Miss Ritchie read the report of the Little Helpers' branch. Miss Annie Hallam read an interesting report from the Cathedral Juniors. Miss Sutherland was appointed delegate to the annual meeting to be held in Belleville in May, and Mrs. Sawyer as her substitute.
