The Editor Hears

That a surprisingly large number of people, and perhaps especially women, are made miserable by the haunting thought of what their neighbors and friends may say about their perfectly harmless actions...

That France has awarded its highest decoration, the Legion of Honor to about 550 women since it was founded in 1802, and five of them have been British—Edith Cavell, Miss Fraser (for dispatch riding), Miss Edith Pye (for Quaker relief work), Lady Bathurst and Miss Maud McCarthy (nurse-in-chief to the army in the war).

That in the bad condition of the streets on Monday, people had a chance to observe the truth of our advice given a week ago on the subject of keeping a trench at the edge of the walk to carry off the water. In some places where this was done the walks were completely clear early in the day.

That the eyes of the continent are on the cave in the mountains of Kentucky where Floyd Collins is tenaciously holding on to life while his parents and his brother wait to

A CONTINENTAL DAREDEVIL: Wilhelmine Banky is but nineteen years old, but already has become one of the favorites of the European movie public, for her daredevil stunts in the air. She is an all-around athlete, besides being an expert aviator.

"CROSS WORDS"

Games were played, progressive euchre for a time, at which Mr. Crossfield and Miss Scott were the lucky prizewinners, while Mr. Colin Rogers and Mrs. Kilpatrick received the consolations.

MILK BOTTLE THIEVES ARE AGAIN AT WORK

Residents of Albert and Victoria Streets Complain Money is Taken.

You had better watch your milk bottles as there are thieves operating in the upper part of the city. On Tuesday morning, an Albert street resident informed the Whig that her milk bottle, which contained some money, had been stolen.

A Victoria street resident, when speaking to the Whig on Tuesday morning, said he was awakened from his slumbers one morning last week by some person prowling on the front verandah. When he looked out of the bedroom window, he saw a fellow about seventeen years of age taking the snow shovels which had been left on the verandah, also the milk bottle.
