AMUSEMENTS
 What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions
AT THE GRAND TONIGHT.
 Mae Edwards Players Will Be The Attraction All This Week.
 The offering at the Grand Opera House for this week, with a matinee Wednesday and Saturday, of the Mae Edwards Players, presenting a programme of comedy and dramatic repertoire.
 The opening bill, "Adam and Eva," which ran for a solid year at the Longacre Theatre, New York, will provide an entertainment for the patrons of the Grand that is well worth seeing. Pleading in appearance, magnetic in personality, and brilliant in dramatic powers, is Miss Mae Edwards, who takes the stellar roles in the various plays which go to make up the company's repertoire. There is no doubt in the world that Miss Edwards is one of the most talented and popular theatrical artists in Canada, and the warm-hearted welcome and vigorous demonstrations of approval accorded her recently at Brockville showed audience realization and appreciation. The Mae Edwards Novelty Orchestra is a special feature. This orchestra, individually and collectively, is one of the best novelty organizations that has been heard here. They play the latest dance selections in a thoroughly pleasing manner, and frequent scores are demanded. Seven vaudeville acts of high calibre, musical comedy numbers and cabaret novelties which are introduced nightly come in for their share of the applause tendered by the audience.

OBITUARY
 Late Mrs. Mary Clarke.
 The death occurred Monday morning of Mary Whitcomb, widow of the late William Clarke. Deceased was one of the best known residents of the city and the news of her death was received with sincere regret by her large circle of friends, who appreciated her kindly qualities.
 She was an Anglican in religion and a member of St. George's cathedral. The funeral will take place from her late residence, 149 Division street, on Wednesday afternoon, to St. George's cathedral, where service will be held, after which the remains will be placed in the vault at Cataract cemetery.

THREE WOMEN AT THE CAPITOL TO-DAY
 How many times have we voiced our disappointment in the lack of dramatic situations?
 Great dramatists have proved that there are thirty-six, but with a humble apology to these great men who have delved into the situation, we are about to reveal the presence of the thirty-seventh! If you visit the Capitol Theatre to-day, Tuesday or Wednesday, the mystery will be solved in the presentation of Ernest Lubitch's great production, "Three Women." "The Marriage Circle" revealed his philosophic understanding of human situations, but "Three Women" discloses his ability to construct new plots heretofore obscure.
 The story deals with the love affair of one man and three women, among them a mother and daughter, each of whom does not know of the other's intimacy with the man.
 May McAvoy, as the daughter, is charmingly captivating, while Pauline Frederick as the mother, and Marie Prevost as the sweetheart, give Mr. Lubitch perfect co-operation in the portrayal of their roles.
 The supporting cast in this Classic of the Screen includes Lew Cody, as the attractive villain, Pierre Gendron, Willard Louis and Mary Carr. It is truly a Classic of the Screen.

WHY FAIRBANKS PRODUCED "BAGDAD."
 There is a touch of the fantastic even in the reason I made "The Thief of Bagdad"—for it is a reason impelled by the unseen. It is a tribute to the fitness that I believe underlies the workaday philosophy of men; a recognition of the inner forces that belie the sordidness of life.
 There can be no doubt that the human soul's reaching for finer, higher, more ethereal things is intuitive and first manifests itself in a child's love of fairy tales and fantasies.
 The dreams, longings and rosette ambitions of childhood are relegated to the background of life by the struggle of existence, but stifling them doesn't kill them. They persist throughout the years. There are moments when we all "dream dreams."
 Imagery is inherent in the human breast. The brave deeds, the longing for better things, the striving for finer thoughts, the pictures of obstacles overcome and successes won are nearer to our real selves than our daily grind of earthly struggle.
 "The Thief of Bagdad" is the story of things we dream about; a tale of what happens when we go out from ourselves to conquer Worlds of Fancy. We set out to win our Heart's Desire; we confuse our enemies; we demean ourselves bravely; our success is complete; our reward is Happiness.
 I believe that this is the story of every man's inner self and that every man will see it.
 That's the reason I made "The Thief of Bagdad."
 —DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS.

Not So Acute.
 Some time ago, when there was talk of much distress and suffering among the children of Kingston, the ladies in charge of the Orphans' Home offered to receive any such cases which were found by the Poor Relief workers of the city. Not a single case has been reported as yet, which suggests that conditions are not so acute as had been suggested.

Charged With Murder.
 Toronto, Feb. 15.—Ernest Charles Owens, aged forty-four, of 395 Westmoreland avenue, is dead, and Frank Stagg, aged forty-two, of 397 Westmoreland avenue, is locked up in Osgoode street police station on a charge of murder, as the result of a fight between the two men in the backyard of Stagg's home yesterday afternoon.

"Cigarette" Brown Has Been Paroled
 Arthur Brown, better known as "Cigarette Brown," serving a twenty-eight year term in Portsmouth penitentiary, has been paroled and left the institution. Reference was made in the Whig a few days ago to the fact that he was likely to be paroled. Brown is the son of the Stoney Mountain gang to leave the big prison at Portsmouth. With the Mecom brothers and a man named Bonnar, Brown took part in one of the most sensational escapes ever made from the Portsmouth prison in the spring of 1912.

VARSITY DEFEAT MCGILL.
 Blue and White Capture Intercollegiate Championship Saturday Night.
 In Varsity's last appearance in the intercollegiate in Montreal, on Saturday night they defeated McGill University by the score of 3-0 and won the intercollegiate championship. One goal was scored in the first period and one in the third. Varsity failed to show their regular form and played more or less defensively throughout the game. The teams were:
 Varsity—Goal, Sullivan; defence, Taylor, Porter; centre, Plaxton; wings, Hudson, Kirkpatrick; sub., Richards, Devins.
 McGill—Goal, Cameron; defence, Hayes, McMahon; centre, Mielkes; wings, Abbott, O'Donnell; subs., R. A. Bell, R. B. Bell.
 Referee—Russell Road, Montreal.
 Stewart Again Hurt.
 Referring to the Boston-Canadiens game in Montreal on Saturday night, the Montreal Gazette says:
 "Stewart in the Boston goal had a rough evening. Besides being the centre of the Mitchell-Joffat affair, he was also clipped over the face by Mantha as the latter hurled past him at the Boston goal mouth, a back-handed swing of the stick catching Stewart in the face. No penalty was awarded, though play was stopped to allow Stewart time to gather himself together."

N.H.L. Standing.
 Following Saturday's games, the N.H.L. standing is as follows:

Team	Won	Lost	Pts.
Hamilton	16	6	33
Canadiens	13	8	28
St. Patricks	14	9	28
Ottawa	12	10	25
Montreal	5	13	15
Boston	3	20	6

Standard Team Denton.
 The Standard team was given a real trimming on Saturday by the C. L. C. team at the College Inn Bowling Academy, the C. L. C. winning all three games and piling up an aggregate score of 2557 to 2181. The scores were made up as follows:
 C.L.C.—Singleton, 514; Daley, 503; Crowley, 459; Downey, 517; Barry, 473. Total, 2557.
 Standard—Pollitt, 444; Laturney, 466; Reynolds, 425; McIntyre, 441; Besudary, 405. Total, 2181.

Well Known Horse Dead.
 Billy Murphy, well known track horse, died on Saturday night after being sick about two weeks. Billy Murphy was owned by W. J. Nesbitt, well known grocer here—but before he got him, he was brought here and trained by Bert Stansbury. This horse was one of the favorites on the track and was a 2.24 1-4 horse and was eligible for the 2.25 class.
 Billy Murphy was well known on the tracks around this section of the country and he was raced on nearly 15-8, 15-10. In the men's doubles, McTaggart-Cowan, coupled with Underhill, also of Vancouver, won the championship by downing Snell and Stewart, the Ottawa team, 15-4, 15-13.

SPORT
COLLEGE RUGBY UNION HELD ANNUAL MEETING
 General Macdonell of R.M.O. Elected Honorary President—Bobby Bell New President.
 Montreal, Feb. 16.—R. B. "Bobby" Bell, manager of the McGill Intercollegiate Rugby Football Club, was elected president of the Canadian Intercollegiate Rugby Football Union at the annual meeting held in the McGill Union Saturday afternoon. The complete list of officers chosen: Honorary president, Gen. Sir A. C. Macdonell; president, R. B. Bell, McGill; vice-presidents, E. A. "Bud" Thomas, Queen's, and C. R. "Sandy" Somerville, University of Toronto; secretary-treasurer, A. R. Saunders, Royal Military College.
 Intermediate and junior rugby difficulties occupied the greater attention of the delegates. The eastern and western sections, which have had trouble in completing their series and declaring a winner in the time limit, were granted one week longer, till November 14th, to declare their winners. That games must be played on the dates scheduled was a point stressed and to assure this a clause was included in the by-laws which will lead to forfeiture of the game by the team or teams agreeing to any switch in dates not sanctioned by the Union.
 It is likely that the same two officials will handle the senior intercollegiate games next season, Bob Isbister, of Hamilton, and Joe O'Brien, of Montreal, who were the officials last season. The rotary schedule will still be in force with "Varsity" opening the senior season at Queen's. The latter team, three-times champions, will play in the first four games next fall, meeting McGill here in the second, playing back in Kingston in the third game and then meeting "Varsity" at Toronto in the fourth.
 A motion introduced by McGill to the effect that all 20 players, which each team is allowed to carry, be allowed to participate in the game instead of 18 as under the present ruling, was defeated.
 No action was taken on a suggestion that the Western Ontario Secondary Schools Association be affiliated with the Intercollegiate Union and the executive felt that the praise-worthy work effected by this Union should in no way be opposed.
 McGill was represented at the meeting by Major Stuart Forbes, Athletic Director of the University, Campbell Cole, retiring manager and R. B. Bell, Toronto sent as representative R. Pequegnat, last year's football captain, Danny Somerville, Coach Bill Hughes, and "Pep" Leadley represented Queen's, C. Volke and J. P. Donnelly, Royal Military College and Paul Levesque and W. G. Laurencell, the University of Montreal.

THE BANK OF BRITISH COLUMBIA
 A Chapter in the Story of a Canadian Banking Family
 Head Office of the Bank of British Columbia London, England, 1896-1900 occupied by The Canadian Bank of Commerce 1901-1907
 Fraser Valley and on the Pacific Coast, including agencies at San Francisco (1864) and Portland, Ore. (1865).
 At first the Bank's business consisted chiefly in purchasing gold dust, but a strong commercial connection was soon built up, and as the various industries of the Pacific slope developed—salmon fishing and canning, coal and metal mining, wool-growing, lumbering and agriculture—the Bank's business expanded in character and volume. In 1870 it financed the first shipment of Pacific wheat to Liverpool. Its period of greatest growth, however, occurred during the railway construction of the '80's, the Vancouver branch being opened in 1886.
 In 1898 the Canadian Bank of Commerce entered the Pacific Coast field, and by 1900 had established branches at Vancouver, Seattle, Dawson City, White Horse and elsewhere. As this Bank was sole agent in Eastern Canada of the Bank of British Columbia, a proposal was made to unite the two interests. The amalgamation of the Bank of British Columbia with the Canadian Bank of Commerce in 1901 gave the latter a London, England, office, and laid the foundation of the business now being conducted at over 60 branches on the Pacific Coast.

Queen's Second Won.
 In an intermediate O.B.A. basketball game at the Queen's gymnasium on Saturday night, Belleville lost to Queen's second team by a score of 25-24. There was only a handful of basketball fans in attendance at the game.
Varsity Won.
 Varsity defeated Queen's in the senior intercollegiate basketball series, at Toronto Saturday night by a score of 40-21. Queen's had the advantage in the first period but Varsity came back strong in the last.
