ARRANGE TO HOLD
POULTRY FAIR HERE

Next November or December—
Representative Committee
Has Matter in Hand.

At a meeting of the Council of the Board of Trade, held on Feb. 5th, it was decided that the Board of Trade should make some move with regard to making arrangements for the holding of a poultry fair in Kingston during the coming fall and the matter was referred to the agricultural and retail committees, with the result that a meeting of the agricultural committee, retail committee and retail merchants of the city was held Thursday night in the Board of Trade rooms, with Mr. James W. Bell in the chair and the following present: Messrs. Borland, Bruce, Bunt, Coyle, Rowland, O'Neill, Stacey, Mills, Weller, Mercer, D'Este, Merton, S. Crawford, Wilnot, Rogers, S. Warton, A. W. Street of the department of agriculture, Mr. Montgomery of the department of poultry of the federal government, and H. D. Wightman, secretary.

Mr. James Bell opened the discussion of the question of holding a poultry fair, by reading from the Dry Good Review, a write-up of the Napanee fair. He then called on Mr. Street, who gave some statistics in regard to the poultry raised in Frontenac, Lenox and Addington, and Leeds counties, and showed that in 1923 there was plenty of poultry raised to warrant the establishment of a poultry fair in Kingston. Mr. Street emphasized the need of making the quality of the produce a very essential point in regard to the fair and suggested that prizes for quality and display of poultry be offered. He also suggested that culling, killing and plucking demonstrations of poultry be given at the fair. Mr. Street promised to do his utmost to assist in getting a large quantity from the producer and to endeavor to keep the quality as high as possible.

Mr. Montgomery was called on next and gave some details in regard to the Napanee fair and gave reasons why the amount sold in Napanee in 1924 fell off so in comparison to 1923. He suggested that meetings be held throughout counties interested to find the feeling of the producer and to encourage them to produce more and instruct the producer in the proper feeding for market. Mr. Montgomery reported that it would be a difficult matter to interest American buyers to a poultry fair here, as the American duty on live stock is three cents a pound and six cents a pound undressed.

Mr. Stacey, president of the Board of Trade, said he was very much encouraged at the size of the meeting and felt sure the retail merchants and the Board of Trade would stand behind the proposed fair and give all the assistance possible.

Mr. W. Y. Mills, president of the Retail Merchants' Association, was very much encouraged with the prospect of the fair and asked several questions which were answered by Mr. Street and Mr. Montgomery.

Mr. S. Werton gave a great deal of details as to how the Napanee fair was conducted. Mr. Rowland stressed that the quality of poultry offered to be the very highest, and suggested that an inspector might be appointed and the producer who did not have his poultry up to standard should be refused permission and use of the fair.

It was moved by Mr. Stacey, seconded by Mr. Mercer, that this meeting decide to have a poultry fair in Kingston in November or December, the date to be left with the committee appointed for the purpose of managing the fair.

It was decided that the following should be the committee in regard to the fair: Mayor Angrove, Ald. Letourneau, Ald. Price, Warden Archie Gray, J. S. Sibbit, A. W. Street, A. E. Montgomery, the agricultural committee of the Board of Trade, the retail committee and the bankers' committee. It was decided that a meeting be called on Thursday, Feb. 20th, at 8 p.m. to discuss further plans in connection with the fair.

Mrs. Gwendolyn Rothwell, D.D.G.M., then presented Mrs. Wood with a beautiful linen luncheon set on behalf of the officers and members of Frontenac Chapter. A luncheon was served by ostentatious Hambrook and Arnie at quarteiro tables. Toasts, speeches and community singing were indulged in. M. J. Johnson, worthy patron, acted as toast master. LATE MRS. JOHN MULLEN.

Funeral Took Place Wednesday—
Spiritual and Floral Offerings.
After a lingering and painful illness borne with saintly resignation, a life full of promise and interest came to a close on Monday morning when the spirit of Catherine F. Mullen passed to its eternal reward. In a magnificent casket surrounded by flowers, tributes of love from many friends in Kingston and other places, the body reposed. From early Monday morning until 9 o'clock Wednesday, the hour of the funeral, there was a continual stream of sympathizing visitors to the family residence on Colborne street. All classes of citizens and all ages were represented, and every heart was sorrowful. The channels through which flowed her charity, gentleness and kindness were innumerable.

James acting as deacon, and Rev. Fr. Leauge as sub-deacon. His Grace the Most Reverend Archbishop Spratt was present in the sanctuary.

During the Offertory Prof. Nourry played the Dead March from Saul, and at the conclusion of the Libera Mr. James Kane sang "Lead Kindly Light." The pallbearers were: A. W. MacDonnell, J. Mullen, R. Millard, G. Cooper, W. Maiden, K. Millan.
