THE ALUMNI BANQUET

Held at Queen's—Address by Mr. Francis King, K.C.—Officers Elected.

Seventy Queen's alumni sat down in the Arts club room on Thursday evening to the most successful alumni banquet which has yet been held. At the conclusion of the dinner the vice-president, Professor S. J. Graham, in the absence of the President G. M. Campbell, spoke briefly of the history of the local branch of the Queen's Alumni Association and of its aims. They will help to arrange for year reunions such as the '18 taken which is planned for the coming fall. Another object is to secure the federation of alumni associations which exist in various centres, but are not yet in favor of such a step.
