Marriage Made In Heaven?
"Not Always," Says Divine

Dr. John Thompson and His "Skyscraper" Church in Chicago's Business District.

Chicago, Feb. 20.—Not all marriages are made in heaven. The church has failed to do its part in preparing young persons for matrimony.

Dr. John Thompson, pastor of Chicago's "skyscraper" church in the heart of the "loop," startled his congregation by making the above statements.

But he left some of the members of the First Methodist Episcopal church aghast when he added that divorce is justifiable in some cases, "where couples are not joined by God."

Bible students have placed incorrect interpretations on Jesus' ideas of marriage and divorce, Dr. Thomson believes.

Why Not?

"The fact that two people are joined in marriage by a minister, priest, rabbi or judge is not proof that the marriage has the sanction of God."

"In the mind of Jesus, when there is true marriage there is no divorce. If it is found the marriage is not a true one, that the couple was not joined by God, why should not the tie be broken by lawful divorce?" he asks.

"The church has not correctly interpreted the words 'What God has joined together, let no man put asunder.'

"If the marriage is a Godless one, though performed in the name of the church, why not divorce?"

Society has made great strides in its efforts to correct the divorce evil, Dr. Thompson says.

"In Jesus' day, a Roman could send his wife away in the same way that he would dismiss a servant."

Need Help.

"To-day a divorce is effected only after the case is tried, evidence given and judgment rendered by a court. There is an entire moral continent of difference between the two methods."

"Jesus was progressive; always upsetting traditions. Human welfare and not preservation of institutions, was the keynote of His teaching."

"The legislation of the church is defective at the point. The church legislates against remarriage. She has put her angel with the flaming sword at the exit of marriage."

"But the church has no angel of instruction or guidance for young people to the marriage Eden. I do not know of any church in the land that gives organized instruction to young persons concerning the most vital step in human life."

Uniform Laws.

"We legislate against the possibility of young correcting a mistake and readjusting their lives. But we take no steps to protect them from that mistake."

The only remedy for the so-called divorce evil, he believes, is a uniform divorce law for every state.

Such a law would abolish free and easy methods of obtaining divorces in some states.

"Something must be done or our home life will break down. If the home breaks down, the nation breaks down, also, for all the blood in the nation comes from the home," he adds.

THE COBRA OUT

When Rudolph Valentino appeared with his sideburns cut in the above manner, friends too polite to suggest that he shaved himself dubbed it "the cobra cut."

The Presbyterian Church Association claims that of the votes cast up to Friday by congregations on church union showed a majority of 12,000 against.

Large black cravats give chic to the white crepe de chine blouses that are worn with the tailored suit.

Large collars of Persian lamb are used on traveling capes of jersey or ratine.

FIRST PHOTO OF RUSS-JAPAN TREATY AGREEMENT

This photograph of the signing of the treaty renewing diplomatic relations between Russia and Japan was taken at 2 a.m. in the private bedroom of Minister Yoshizawa of Japan at Peking, China. Ambassador Karakhan of Russia (right) was in formal dress, but Minister Yoshizawa wore a kimono and was supported by pillows, due to a painful accident he suffered a short time before while skating.
