HAD BAD SPELLS WITH HER HEART

Mrs. C. Martin, R.R. No. 2, Orillia, Ont., writes:—"I have been troubled with my heart for a long time and very often had bad spells with it. I would take fainting spells, and my husband had to have somebody to stay with me all the time. He got me everything he could think of to see if they would do me any good, but nothing seemed to help me. One day a friend was in to see me and advised me to try

News From District Places

THE ATHENS ALUMNI Gave a Fine Entertainment—Late Francis Blancher—To Make Cheese.

Athens, Feb. 20.—A rich treat was furnished by the Athens High School Association on the evening of the 12th inst., when, under the auspices, three artists of rare talents appeared here, and, assisted by local talent, put on a most enjoyable entertainment. Cowan, a clever impersonator and entertainer, had visited us in June last, and on this occasion maintained the golden opinions won previously. This was the first appearance of Miss Smith, the pianist and accompanist, and she captivated all by her mastery of her unusual instrument, her costuming adding to the effect. Miss Beryl Davis, soloist, in First Presbyterian church, Brockville, but recently returned from Toronto Conservatory of Music, seems like one of our own, being a former high school student. Possessed of a sweet voice of wide range, she delighted all with her vocal numbers. The high school cadets and "acrobats" contributed their quota in making the evening a memorable one.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Scovill Robeson, held on Saturday afternoon last in the Methodist church, was very largely attended by relatives and friends. The pastor, Rev. H. E. Warren, M.A., B.D., took as text, 2 Samuel 20:19, "A mother in Israel," elaborating the idea of a mother in the home and a mother in the church, paying a glowing tribute to her consecration and fidelity. The pall-bearers were Messrs. H. H. Arnold, B. R. Brown, W. F. Earl, W. H. Jacob, D. L. Johnston, I. White.

Following nearly three weeks' illness, Francis Blancher, Isaac street, passed away on the 14th inst., in Brockville, whither he had been taken for medical treatment. Deceased had resided here for many years coming from Lombardy where he had been born nearly sixty-five years ago. His twin brother, Franklin, of Smith's Falls, brother Chassey, and sister, Mrs. Ransom Brown of this place survive, also his widow, formerly Miss Jessie Wright, one son, Kenneth, D.S., of Morrisburg, and one daughter, Mrs. Eva Earl, Temperance Lake. The late Mr. Blancher was a liberal in politics, and took a keen interest in the events of the day. For many years he received the appointment of village officer, discharging his duties in a conscientious manner. Funeral services were conducted in the Holness Movement church by the Rev. Mr. Pritchard, Lombardy, assisted by Miss Reynolds, local pastor, and the Rev. Mr. Bradley, Seely's Bay, Rev. Upham, pastor of the local Baptist church, and Rev. Mr. Warren, pastor of the local Methodist church. The text was chosen from Job 4:18-19, "Houses of Clay." The thought of the individual as a trinity was elaborated, body, mind and soul, the last named being of paramount importance, and whose welfare should be our chief concern. The pall bearers were S. A. Coon, A. M. Eaton, J. S. Eaton, W. H. Jacob, J. Mulvena, F. Scovill.

At a milk meeting held last Saturday evening by the proprietor and patrons of the local creamery, it was decided to manufacture cheese during the coming season. Mr. Churchley, Oshawa, Jeweller, has opened up business in the premises recently vacated by H. R. Knowlton and son.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Neff opened their commodious Victoria street residence to entertain the Young People's Society on Monday evening, the occasion being a "Valentine social." Partners were secured by matching "broken hearts," and contests, games and music constituted a very pleasant evening. Refreshments were served at the close. Next Monday evening the Y.P.S. is to be addressed by Rev. V. O. Boyle, M.A., B.D., the subject being, "The causes and cure of the present unrest."

The Athens high school Alumni Association has received from Dr. T. H. Crawford, Calgary, a cheque

THE TOWN OF PICTON Several Social Events—Rev. Dr. Dyde to Preach in St. Andrew's Sunday.

Picton, Feb. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Clark were surprised by a number of their neighbors and friends on Monday evening, the occasion being the birthday of the hostess, Mrs. W. Crawford provided a beautiful birthday cake and a most delightful time was spent.
Many friends will regret to learn of the illness at her home on Maple avenue of Miss Elizabeth Dunkley, principal of Picton public school.
The W. C. T. U. will hold a sale of home cooking and afternoon tea at the library on Saturday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock.
Miss Ella Welsh is visiting friends at Stirling.
Rev. Dr. Dyde will occupy the pulpit of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church on Sunday next.
William Clark has returned from Lowell, Mass., where he went to attend the funeral of his brother, Lowell Clark, who passed away in hospital in that city after undergoing an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Clark leaves besides his brother, his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. James Clark, Ontario street, Picton, and a wife and family of three children in Lowell, Mass.

Mrs. Theda Robyn Matheson, an old Picton girl, will be the equestrianist at an entertainment in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church on the 23rd.
Mrs. (Dr.) Gerald Allison entertained at bridge on Thursday afternoon. Favors were won by Mrs. D. J. Shannon, Mrs. (Dr.) Philip and Mrs. Charles Hart. The hostess was assisted at the tea hour by Mrs. J. W. Allison, Miss Nell Miller, and Miss Hilda Rolston.
Miss Bernice Woods has gone to Detroit, Mich., for a few weeks' visit with friends.
Miss Marion Grimmon was in Kingston for the Arts and Science dance at Queen's University and was the guest of Miss Grace Woods.
Mrs. H. S. Collier entertained at a dinner party on Thursday last in honor of her mother, Mrs. R. R. Garrison.

Ernest Wright has received the appointment of assistant at the customs office, as successor to Captain O'Brien who has been superannuated.
Miss Charlotte Smith is holidaying in Toronto, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fargy.

A VALENTINE SOCIAL
Was a Happy Event at Chaffey's Locks School.
Chaffey's Locks, Feb. 20.—A Valentine Social was held in the school house last Friday which was well attended and enjoyed. Much credit is due to both teacher and pupils in preparing the programme which was well rendered. After the entertainment sandwiches, cake and hot cocoa were served. All the pupils were presented with valentines.
The last few days of cold weather have improved the sleighing and ice which enables the farmers to haul their logs to the mill to be sawed, also to finish the harvesting of ice. A number from here attended the Valentine party held at Elgin. Mrs. A. W. Droyer entertained a number of her neighbors, on Friday last, at progressive euchre.

Miss M. Droyer and H. L. Regan were the lucky ones to score the greatest number of points. Dairy sandwiches and cakes were served, with hot tea and coffee, after which dancing was enjoyed for a couple of hours. The evening was thoroughly enjoyed. Miss M. Hughson, Kingston, is spending a few days with friends here. Dr. T. F. Chamberlain returned from Toronto. E. Babcock, Trenton is a guest of G. Franklin.
Mrs. R. Bulger, Kingston, is the guest of W. H. Fleming. Symphyta is extended to Mr. and Mrs. George Franklin in the death of the former's mother, Mrs. Franklin, Bath. Mrs. W. H. Fleming is on an extended visit to Cleveland and Detroit. T. Davis is spending a few days at Kingston.

ICE RACES AT STELLA.
Took Place On Wednesday—Dance in Victoria Hall.
Stella, Feb. 20.—Excellent weather and ice favored the annual trials of speed arranged by the Stella Driving Club which took place on a half mile track on the bay in front of the village on Wednesday afternoon.

for two hundred and fifty dollars. "From the Crawfords," as he termed it. For many years, the Crawford family owned the farms now in the possession of Mr. Shaw. The children attended the local public school, high school, and the erstwhile model school, so it is gratifying to know that they are expressing their appreciation in so tangible a manner. The handsome donation will materially assist in the equipment of the science room.
An inter-collegiate debate is being arranged between Athens and Smith's Falls, the subject being, "Resolved that organized labor is a greater detriment to the state than is organized capital." Sam Hollingsworth, Jr., and Robert Rahmer are expected to represent the local high school, but whether on the affirmative or negative side has as yet not been definitely decided.
Dr. Fraser has returned from Brockville, where he has been residing for a time, to take up his duties as janitor of the high school. He is domiciled, temporarily in the Henderson house, Mill street, until the tenant, W. G. Shackles, vacates Mr. Fraser's Wellington street property.
The heating apparatus at the public school went on strike last Tuesday morning and, while alterations are being made, the pupils are enjoying a few days' holidays. A number of Athenians took in the dance at Ernest Seymour's, Glen Elbe, Tuesday evening.
A Frances Willard Memorial programme was presented at the W. C. T. U. meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. W. Beach. The roll call was answered by quotations from Miss Willard. Miss Dora Kleyne read an excellent paper on the life of this talented temperance worker, and Mrs. J. J. Hone sang one of her favorite hymns. In addition, Mrs. B. H. Brown gave some echoes from the recent Dominion W. C. T. U. convention in Toronto. She noted the spirit of friendliness that prevailed, and the business-like manner in which the sessions were conducted. She emphasized the need of leaders getting to work educating the children and young people along temperance lines. Mrs. (Rev.) C. J. Curtis had charge of the Scripture lesson. Miss Eleanor Young contributed an appropriate solo, "Hark! the temple bells are ringing," and the Misses Beatrice Peterson and Olive King contributed a pleasing piano duet. The hostess served fruit at the close.
Athens hockey team went down to defeat at Newboro yesterday afternoon, losing by a score of 4-1. The return match is scheduled for to-morrow on Memorial Park rink.
Mrs. C. L. Lamb has been on a visit to Lyndhurst relatives. Miss Hazel Burns was a recent guest at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Burns, Lecky's Corners, and enjoyed the birthday party in honor of her sister, Miss Letitia. Mrs. Horton, New Dublin, is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Sydney Ducommun, who is indisposed.

Miss Grace Rannell has gone to Brockville for diagnosis, as she appears to be suffering from appendicitis. Mrs. M. Foxton is returning to the Brockville hospital for treatment, following a few days at her Isaac street residence. Mrs. James Gordon has been on the sick list for a few days.
Members of the Women's Auxiliary of the Anglican church are preparing a bale of clothing which they purpose packing at their March meeting in the basement of Christ Church.
The executive of the local Baptist church here to announce that services will be resumed next Sunday. The pastor, Rev. George G. Upham, who had to undergo an operation for appendicitis on Christmas Sunday, has now completely recovered, and the church is looking forward to a year of activity and blessedness. The subject for next Sunday is to be, "Entrances, exits, and the Good Shepherd."
Rev. D. D. Elliott, Addison, is announced to occupy the Methodist pulpit Sabbath morning next, speaking on "Social Service."

Wagarrville Items.
Wagarrville, Feb. 17.—Snyder's sawing outfit is busily engaged sawing wood in this vicinity. The recent cold weather, together with the last snow storm have greatly improved the roads.
Mrs. George Howes, who has been suffering from pleuro-pneumonia, is gradually improving. R. W. Jackson spent the week-end in Kingston. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Simpkins have returned home after spending a very enjoyable week visiting relatives in Plevna.
Mr. and Mrs. George Goodberry, visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Sanford Keech, Monow, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kirsham and family, at S. Clark's; Carl Wagar at G. Howes'; Mr. and Mrs. Philip Wagar and family at Allen Wagar's, Echo Lake. Mrs. V. Kirkham and Mrs. Wesley Wagar, visiting Mrs. M. Kirkham on Wednesday last.

Miss Silver Operated On.
Elginburg, Feb. 19.—Monday afternoon Miss Marjorie Silver was taken to the General Hospital and had an operation for appendicitis. Mrs. M. Gordonier, suffering from blood poison, is improving. Mrs. A. L. Stover is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jacobs, Brockville. Mrs. M. Silver, Sanbury, is at John Silver's, Mr. Letourneau is here from Ireland and is staying at John Noble's.
