Emma had been an ideal "help" in all respects, in short, too good to be true, so that her mistress was not surprised when she announced their impending marriage. "I'm sorry to tell you, mum, that I'll be leaving you next week. I'm going to get married." "That so, Emma? Who is the lucky man?" "He's a policeman, mum. On this boat, too." "That's fine. I wish you joy. And what is his name?" "I don't know yet, mum. But his number is 518."

A FIREPLACE TABLE. Beside the fireplace, a good group for that place would be either bookshelves and lamp with chair, or the kind of set-up shown here. The small desk and lamp, with its accompanying pictures, books and chair, make a homey combination.

"In His Quiet Moments"

A True Story Always 'the life of the party' everybody admires Ted Carruthers for his breezy good nature and winning personality. He is a real man through and through. But in his quiet moments— Poor Ted has his personal problem from which he cannot shake himself free when alone. A recent illness, the price of overwork, left his health impaired. The doctor says it is only a matter of time. He now has only a few short years in which to provide for Mary and the children. What is he to do? He is not able to get life insurance and cannot save much more than $300.00 a year. In five years this will be but $1,500.00—not nearly enough! 'Tis now he realizes just what it would have meant if he had insured when able, to provide for his wife an income of at least $100.00 a month ($1,200.00 a year) as long as she lived. At his age (35) $6.40 a week with the London Life would have guaranteed it, and worry would not now be further sapping his strength, killing any chance he may have had, of recovery. The future may easily be made safe for loved ones by insurance, and worry removed from those who have dependents. One of our trained representatives will be glad to advise.

MORE HUMORS OF HISTORY

From 941 to 978 there were six Kings of England; they are known as "The Boy Kings." They came and went with tragic rapidity. The fifth, Edward the Martyr, was stabbed by order of Elfrida, whose son, Ethelred succeeded him. Dunstan, now Archbishop of Canterbury, cursed him as he crowned him.
