Mrs. J. H. Eimsley gave an exceedingly pleasant young people's dance on Tuesday evening. The hostess received in the large drawing room wearing a smart gown of green crepe. Dancing went on during the evening and a merry time was spent by the guests, amongst whom were Miss Allison Macdonell, Miss Gwendolyn and Miss Doris Folger, Miss Virginia Fair, Miss Edith Caruthers, Miss Nora Macnee, Miss Doris McKay, Miss Elinor Mundell, Miss Elizabeth Lyster, Miss Catherine and Miss Isabel Minnes, Miss Grace Mooers, Miss Constance Webster, Miss Edith Rees, Miss Gwen Dawson, Miss Jessie Torrance, Miss Barbara Bidwell, Miss Flo Cunningham, Miss Louise Hill, Miss Betty Murray, Miss Helen Steacy, Miss Owen Car-Harris. Among the couples present were Cadets Howard Fair, Guy Simmons, W. Ogilvie, J. Thornton, Peter Fair, L. Mather, A. Paton, Sise, Hold, Macdougall, Graham Cassels, J. Acer, Strathy, J. Strathy, Oster, Smith, E. Smith.

Their Excellencies the Governor-General and the Lady Byng of Viny entertained at a charmingly arranged dance Monday evening at Government House. Their Excellencies received the guests at the entrance of the ballroom, with Mr. J. E. Chaplin in attendance. Many out of town people and seasonal visitors to Ottawa were present. Among the Kingstonians who attended were

Brig-General and Mrs. A. E. Ross and Miss Cecily Rutherford.

The euchre and five-hundred party given in the Tierney Hall on Tuesday evening by the members of the George T. Richardson Chapter of the I.O.D.E. was an entire success. Mrs. Leman A. Guild, the regent, was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Robert Reynolds and Mrs. Peter Devlin, the vice-regents. Twenty-six tables were in play and the prize winners were as follows: Five hundred, Mrs. W. H. Hughes and Mrs. E. Lawrence; euchre, Miss Knapp and Mr. J. McGill. Supper was served at the tables. At the door, the treasurer Mrs. George Scott and Mrs. Storer took the fees.

The marriage took place on Friday, Feb. 20th in Holyrood Church, New York, of Helen, daughter of Mrs. Parker Rew and Mr. Aaron Percival Blanck. The bride and groom went to Washington, D.C., on their wedding trip and after their return to New York will be at 137 Pinehurst avenue.

Miss Waldron and Miss Ethel Waldron, Miss Frances Sullivan and Miss Marion Redden, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bickford, Kingston, and Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Jellatt, Toronto, are in Rome and expect to have an audience with His Holiness, the Pope.

The last euchre party of the season was held by the Portsmouth C. W. L. in the hall on Tuesday evening. It was the most successful and pleasant one also, as many of the old members were present. Mrs. Frank Somerville and Mrs. T. F. Burke received the guests and Mrs. Michael Kennedy took the admission fee. Thirty tables were in play.

Miss Cartwright's rink was in charge of the tea at the Ladies' Curling club on Tuesday. Tea was poured at the table adorned with pink tulips and pink candles, those assisting being Mrs. W. R. Linton, Mrs. E. O. Sitter and Mrs. G. S. Otto. A few tables of bridge were in play, but the ice was not fit for the curlers.

Owing to the exigencies of the Royal Naval Service, Lieut. W. R. Slayter, D.S.O., R.N., has been transferred, consequently his marriage to Miss Helen Hale, daughter of Major and Mrs. Russell Hale, Ottawa, has been postponed to a future date.

A few friends of Miss Marjorie Henderson, Ottawa, who is visiting Miss Mowat, Johnson street, dropped in at the tea hour on Tuesday to welcome her back to Kingston even if only for a flying visit.

The students who took part in the College Frolic gave an informal dance in the City Hall after the performance. The number of young people in costume made the scene a pretty one indeed.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murphy, St. Louis, Mo., who arrived in Kingston, on Saturday and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Fallon, Raglan Road, left for New York to-day.

Miss Katie and Miss Nora Birmingham, "Ottoburna," entertained at dinner on Tuesday evening, some of the party going on to Mrs. Eimsley's dance.

Mrs. S. Roughton, King street, entertained at bridge on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Alice Macnee, Barrie street, was a smash jong club hostess on Tuesday evening.

Col. and Mrs. Norman Leslie, Emily street, spent a few days in Toronto this week.

Dr. Gagnon, Barrie street, is in Toronto.

Miss Louise Lewis, University avenue, has gone to Montreal for a visit.

Ex-cadet W. Dunbar, Toronto, who spent the week-end in town went on to Ottawa on Monday.

Mr. R. A. McLennan, Earl street, has just arrived in England from Canada.

Mrs. R. G. Meredith, Quebec, who is in Montreal with her daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Molson, will later come to Kingston to visit her daughter, Mrs. Ronald Fort and Capt. Fort, Royal Military College. Miss Luella McDougall, Messrs. Allan Knapp, Ray Bisell, Reg Blakely (Belleville), Clarence Nutt, Robert Rourke and Campbell Plevins, Queen's University who spent the mid-term vacation, in Brockville have returned to Kingston.

Mrs. T. B. Caldwell, Ottawa, is visiting Mrs. Archibald Strachan, King street.

Mrs. Wood, Montreal, who has been visiting Miss W. Gordon, University avenue, will return to Montreal this week.

Ex-Cadet Gratz Joseph, Montreal, spent the week-end in town.

Major W. Dickson, Kelowna, B.C., is in town with his sister, Mrs. Hugh Nickle and his mother, Mrs. C. T. Dickson.

THE COLLEGE FROLICS

Drew Packed House at Grand Tuesday Evening—An Excellent Performance.

The College Frolics of 1923 were quite as frolicsome as those of preceding years. Needless to say there was a packed house at the Grand Tuesday evening.

The bill opened with some smart pyramid building by a squad of athletes under the direction of Mr. James Bews. Then came a chorus of the "Powder Puffs" and the gods roared with delight. For charm, not only of face and figure but of personality as well, the college girls can more than hold their own against the members of any professional troupe going.

The Science act was an evening in the Delta Puka Kards fraternity, and consisted of musical turns by various capable members. The pretty cousin from Napanee carried off her responsibilities extremely well. Messrs. D. O. Robinson, A. P. Hopkins, J. H. King, LaFlair, Evans, Higgins, Haslam, McKerry, Henderson and Gardiner were the gentlemen in this act.

The Commerce act followed and was extraordinarily good. It is doubtful if anything as swift moving and continually amusing has ever been done at a Frolic. An imposing gentleman came forward and commenced, amid groans, to recite that threadbare classic, "The Shooting of Dan McGrew." And then the curtain rose revealing the scene of his narration, a northern saloon with Lou and all the other favorites at their characteristic occupations.

The burlesque that followed was carried off with a spirit and ingenuity that left the audience little time for breath. The parts were carried off by Messrs. D. Stratford, R. Young, F. Baldwin, B. Thomas, G. E. Voss, H. B. Bleeker, G. McKelvey, Snag Skelton and P. Chantler.

After that came another beauty show—what a lot of good looking girls from the Avonmore. It was called the Fashion Show and the chorus consisted of the Misses A. Robertson, E. Ferguson, J. Ferguson, K. Farlingher, B. McCulloch, E. Beat, T. Rose, M. Norris, M. Whittaker, F. Hope, E. Cropp and D. Shannon.

The Medicine act represented the Greenwich Village Cabaret and the ultimate downfall of the boy from the old homestead. The beauty chorus consisting of Messrs. Doc, Graham, H. Brown, B. Bartels, F. Jeffries, B. Starrs, T. Rutherford, Ryan and Spears displayed something more than mere agility especially in their last number.

The gentlemen of this palace of pleasure were S. H. Dennison, G. K. McCracken, R. Stringer, C. McNeil, S. McAvoy, "T. Mullinger," "Parsons and Parsons" and J. R. H. Graham, together with the Misses Partell, Speddings, Mills, Brown, Smith, Bonnell and Messrs. Rowson, Brockenridge, Quinn, Minnes and Lewis.

The final act was put on by Arts and Lovans, and pretty girls and good acting was the order. "In Hot Tamale Land" showed the successful attempt of a young man in a South American country to win the hand of his lady by first earning ten thousand dollars. This he did after a brief but intensive extramural study of the art of treading.

The alarm of the terrible bull at sight of the young graduate was pathetic in the extreme. Between the two scenes of this act Messrs. Hughes and Carsons, the Poison Ivy Twins, did a most effective black-face turn that deserved the uproarious applause it received. The entire Arts number sparkled with local hits that never failed to get across.

The South Americans with their visitors from Canada comprised the Messrs. K. Elliott, and L. Osborne together with Messrs. J. Stark, F. S. Wylie, F. Spears, W. Spolomon, T. Taylor and J. Creagan.

whom great credit is due for maintaining the freshness and dash of this yearly event consisted of Messrs. A. E. Thomas, convenor; J. C. MacGillivray, business manager; C. Dew, publicity agent; H. Hannon, properties; R. Irwin, production; and J. Campbell, stage manager.

PHILLIPS-GAYLORD NUPTIALS

The Marriage Took Place at Dead Creek On Feb. 15th.

A very quiet and informal wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Clancy, Dead Creek, Kennebec township, on Sunday afternoon, Feb. 15th when Annie Pearl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Johnston Gaylord, became the bride of Frederick Hiram, son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Phillips, Watertown, N.Y.

The bride was attended by Miss Velma M. Rowe, while Andrew Clancy supported the groom. The bride was becomingly attired in blue silk canton crepe. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Harold E. Frair, Arden, in the presence of relatives.

FOR SUMMER DAYS.

This summer frock illustrates the possibilities of printed and bordered silk. Such a dress requires very little sewing and is quite finished when it has an organdy collar and a sash. The color scheme here is unusual. The material is black and white and the sash is a lovely sapphire blue.

LIFE.

Life's all getting and giving. I've only myself to give. What shall I do for a living? I've only one life to live. End it. I'll not find another. Spend it. But how shall I best? Sure the wise plan is to live like a man.

Date Pudding.

Ingredients: 1 1/4 cups of chopped dates, 2 cups of bread crumbs (crumbs with the fingers), 2 teaspoons of baking powder, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 3 eggs, 3-4 cup walnuts. Mix the bread crumbs and baking powder. Beat the whites of the eggs very stiff and add the salt and sugar, fold into the bread crumbs and add the fruit, favoring and nuts, lastly the well-beaten yolks of the eggs. Spread on a large buttered pie plate and bake in a fairly hot oven for 30 minutes. This will serve from six to eight persons, and is nice plain, or with whipped cream.

They do not need parking restrictions on the road to ruin.

That the veil worn by "Florence Nightingale" in the "Pageant of Famous Women" put on so successfully on Friday and Saturday at the Y.M.C.A., is the property of an overseas nurse, now on the staff of the Kingston General Hospital, and was worn when she was presented to His Majesty, King George. Samantha Allen's bonnet was worn a century ago by an ancestor of Miss Kate Asselstine. Miss Asselstine wore the bonnet herself when she appeared to represent her great, great-grandmother in the U. E. L. scene in the Kingston Historical Pageant.

That every member of St. George's cathedral and all friends of the old church, which has stood in the heart of the city for nearly a century and a half, have been asked to send in the addresses of former parishioners who may be interested in the centenary celebration in connection with the hundredth anniversary of the laying of the corner stone of the present building in 1825.

That speaking to a Toronto chapter of the I.O.D.E. Premier Ferguson said recently: "We are not trying to produce and manufacture for our own needs, but are sending money year by year to other countries to maintain families elsewhere while our own are in want and go without employment. We are dumping cheaply-made German goods into this country instead of providing payrolls for our own people."

That Mary Bierman, though blind since childhood, will take the part of "Phar," the dancing girl in a pantomime to be given for the benefit of the building fund for the New York Association of the Blind. She is a sophomore at Columbia University, and in her spare time teaches a group of sightless girls, aesthetic dancing.
