AMUSEMENTS

What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

'THE GONDOLIERS' ALWAYS A GREAT SUCCESS Why are we all going to hear 'The Gondoliers?' because it has something for every man and woman. It will appeal to the business man, who has a laugh in his heart and is old fashioned enough to love real melodies and who wants to see a play with action. The Gondoliers will make him laugh and next day the music he heard will linger in his mind. Some men will come back

MRS. ANNE POLLARD A 'leading lady' in 'The Gondoliers' at the Grand Opera House Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. The second night and still again the third. Lawyers will come and doctors will find time to be there because the music of the opera will make them feel young. The story sparkles with humor and mirth. It has a lift in its harmonies which makes one forget everything in the world but the actors and the music which rises and falls at the movement of the director. We are all alike. We all love to hear bird-like soprano trills which quiver with human feelings. We like sweet contrast to airs and every man or woman finds joy in the fundamental qualities of satisfying tenors and baritone.

In short we are all going to like 'The Gondoliers' because it is an opera created by composers known wherever the world language of music is understood. It has music at its heart and the human interest of dramatic movement. For a background; Old Venice in her golden days.

The Kiwanis Club since its organization has endeavored, in every way,

MR. CHARLES GATES Stage director of 'The Gondoliers' at the Grand Opera House, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

To give Kingston people the opportunity of hearing good music. First the Mendelssohn Choir, then the Welsh male choir, 'The Mikado,' and now it presents 'The Gondoliers' under the direction of Capt. Light, R.M.S.M., a conductor nationally known and honored and Mr. Charles Gates, a dramatic teacher whose brilliant work is known to all Kingston people.

Proceeds as usual will go to the Kiwanis charity fund. Seats $1, 75c and 50c. Plan of seats is now open at the Grand Opera House. Don't forget the dates; Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week. Tickets available from all members of the cast and every Kiwanian.

YOU'LL LAUGH OUT LOUD AT 'LORD CHUMLEY' 'Lord Chumley,' by David Belasco and Henry C. DeMille, is the feature at the Capitol Theatre to-day and Wednesday.

Viola Dana, Theodore Roberts and Raymond Griffith are featured in the principle roles of the production.

The story is a melodramatic comedy and has to do with the Hon. Lord Algernon Cholmondeley—Chumley for short—who, in one of the funniest pictures you've seen in years, succeeds in solving a mystery, saving a family name and winning the girl he loves.

Theodore Roberts, cigar and all.

is back as big as life in this one. He is cast as a retired admiral. An international crook steals some valuable fortification plans from his son, a naval lieutenant. It means prison for the young fellow and disgrace to the Butterworth family name if the papers are not recovered within forty-eight hours.

Chumley, in love with Eleanor Butterworth (Viola Dana), sets about the solution of the mystery and his 'detecting' lands him in many an uncomfortable position from which he manages to extricate himself in a most amusing manner.

You'll get a big laugh out of the scenes where the horse he is riding sits down on the edge of a fountain and sends Chumley sliding into a fountain. You'll laugh still harder at Chumley's antics with a clever little dog in the production which is forever revealing his hiding place to his pursuers. And you'll laugh your head off at the final scenes which find Chumley and Eleanor 'safe' on a navy target, far out in the ocean being fired upon by the guns of the Pacific fleet at target practice.

Here's another great comedy hit by the screen's sole directorial 'team'—Irie and Urson, who made 'Changing Husbands.'

You'll like 'Lord Chumley.'

LAST TIME TO-DAY. It will be no surprise to the many admirers of Hobart Bosworth to find that sterling actor in a familiar type of role in 'If I Marry Again,' feature at the Strand Theatre for the last time to-day. Bosworth has come to be renowned for his characterization of the stern father, and in the picture he has a dramatic role of a father who practically condemns his own son to death in the tropics rather than admit to his ancient and esteemed family the daughter of a notorious woman.

His fellow members of the cast in this picture include such famous personalities as Doris Kenyon, Lloyd Hughes, Frank Mayo, Anna Q. Nilsson, Hobart Bosworth and Myrtle Stedman.

AUTO STAGE TURNS OVER

When Forced Off Road—Douglas Anglin Is Injured.

Douglas Anglin, son of John Anglin of Batterssea, received a severe shaking-up as well as a cut on his head when the Batterssea stage, which was bringing fifteen young men from Batterssea on Monday evening for the purpose of attending the Verona-Sunbury game, turned on its side.

It is said that the driver of the stage when reaching a point about two miles from the city was forced to take to the side of the road on account of two rigs which would not give him room to pass. When the driver inclined to the side of the road the ice gave way and the auto turned on its side. The doors and windows in the stage were broken.

KINGSTON RACE WARE SOLD TO MONTREAL MAN

Sister Sue, Owned by Don Ourlis, Goes to St. Lawrence Circuit.

A very important transaction in racing circles took place here Tuesday morning when Don Curtis, of Kingston, owner of the well-known mare, Sister Sue, sold her to a group of Montreal men for the sum of $1,500. The news of the sale caused a stir in local racing circles where the horse is well known.

Sister Sue has been in Toronto since Thanksgiving Day and has done considerable winter racing in Toronto. She also took part in the recent Joe races at Cape Vincent, N. Y., being one of the most prominent horses in the meet.

The sale came about as a result of concerted action on the part of some Montreal men to put the St. Lawrence circuit in Montreal on a higher basis than ever before and they regarded Mr. Curtis' horse, Sister Sue, as one of the best that could be secured in this section of the country. The horse is eligible for the 20 pace.

The mare, Myrtle R., owned by Mr. Hank Cochrane, has been sold in Watertown also.

A LANDLORD SUES TENANT FOR DAMAGE

Done to House by Pipes Freezing—The Tenant Had Vacated the Place.

At the sitting of the Division court held on Tuesday morning with Judge Madden presiding, the case of John H. Nolan, landlord, vs. Henry Milligan tenant, required about one hour and a half to take the evidence. Mr. Nolan asked for damages amounting to $80.44 which he claimed he was entitled to on account of neglect on the part of the defendant.

According to the evidence of Mr. Nolan and his witnesses, who included his wife and a couple of expert plumbers, Mr. Milligan vacated his house and did not see that the water was turned off and the pipes froze cold weather caused a freeze up of the pipes and the water flooded the house from top to bottom. Mr. Nolan testified that the pipes in the bath room on the second floor, broke and the water poured through the ceiling and there was ice all over the floors on the first flat of the home.

It was claimed by the plaintiff that the defendant had bored seven or eight holes in the floor to allow the water to drain into the cellar.

Mr. Nolan stated that he had been notified by Mr. Milligan that he was going to vacate the home on January 2nd but he had told defendant that he could not give up the home without paying the rent for the month of February as he had not given one month's notice.

The plumbers who gave evidence on behalf of the plaintiff told of the dreadful condition of the plumbing on account of the water not being turned off and the pipes freezing.

Mr. Milligan and his wife testified they had given Mr. Nolan notice on January 2nd and had paid their rent up until February 1st. They claimed that they were forced to leave the house on account of dampness caused by the cellar Mr. Milligan stated that he had turned the water off in the cellar on January 2nd, the night on which he vacated the home. After he turned the water off the plaintiff came to his home and asked him to turn it on again on account of the one pipe furnishing water for the rest of the neighbors. By turning off the water there was no supply for use in their homes. He claimed that he had responded to the request of Mr. Nolan. He denied cutting the holes in the floor but said that the man who moved him had cut the holes on January 11th when he revisited his former home for the purpose of taking out the coal which he left the night he moved.

A. B. Cunningham, K.C., acting for the defendant, realized that his client was responsible for the rent for February as he had not given proper notice, but he had turned off the water as requested by Mr. Nolan and there was no carelessness shown.

W. M. Nickle, who acted for Mr. Nolan, stated that when Mr. Milligan returned to the house on January 11th and saw the condition of the home due to water pipes being frozen, it was his duty to inform the landlord and not leave him to find the dreadful condition of the home when he turned over the key on January 21st. Judge Madden reserved his decision.

J. R. Dargavel Wins Action. Judge Madden awarded damages in full amounting to $120, in the case of J. R. Dargavel, ex-M.P.P. of Elgin, vs. Wilson Franklin of Joyceville. The plaintiff asked for compensation for damage to his automobile which he claimed was caused by negligence on the part of the defendant in allowing a cow to wander on the provincial highway.

The defendant entered a counter claim for damages to the cow which he was caused by Dr. Dargavel running over the animal. The judge, after hearing the evidence in the counter claim, dismissed the action. According to the evidence of the plaintiff, the cow was wandering on the highway and as such as he tried to escape the animal, the auto and the car collided.

The defendant contended that there was no negligence on his part, as the cow had been placed in his own field and the field was in good condition. He claimed that the cow got on the provincial highway by getting over his neighbor's fence. J. M. Hickey, of the firm of Rigney & Hickey, acted for the plaintiff, and W. M. Nickle appeared on behalf of Wilson Franklin. A large number of Joyceville people were on hand for the case.
