AMUSEMENTS What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

The Gondoliers. Those who love a mixture of song and comedy will find real pleasure in the "Gondoliers".

Another very valuable member of the cast is Mrs. Hubert Horton who takes the part of "Inez" the gypsy foster mother of the real king of Barataria.

"THE GREAT DIVIDE"

With Alice Terry and Conway Tearle at the Capital. There have been few pictures which have brought so great a message as that which is presented on the screen at the Capitol Theatre where the production "The Great Divide" is to be shown.

How three men gamble for a girl, with one ultimately coming out victorious, how she is then bought for a string of gold nuggets and how she struggles to regain her freedom by getting possession of the nuggets is told in a forceful way.

The cast is full of interesting names and the performances are all excellent, though perhaps the two which stand out the most are those of Alice Terry, who plays Ruth Jordan, and Conway Tearle, cast as Stephen Gant.

Wallace Beery as Dutch and George Cooper as Shorty are likable heavies, and ZaSu Pitts as Polly brings out a pessimistic part prominently forward, which adds much comedy.

Reginald Barker directed the production with a fine hand, and as his aid chose Percy Hilburn to photograph it. Mr. Hilburn did a great job. There has never been a screen offering before with more beautiful photography or more effective lighting than in "The Great Divide."

THE "NARROW STREET"

Motion picture audiences are in for a treat! "The Narrow Street," which opens at the Strand theatre, today, is a delightful change from the usual en-entertainment offered movie patrons. Matt Moore gives a splendid performance in the role of Simon Haldane, the eccentric bachelor, presenting a humorous appearance in glasses and moustache.

As a charming contrast, Dorothy Deore imbues her characterization of the mysterious woman, with winsome mischievousness that is very appealing. The supporting cast, includes David Butler, Russell Simpson and others.

SPORT

BOWLING

Kiwans Defeat Rotary. The Kiwanis Club came through and defeated the Rotary Club in the bowling for the Cusick Shield at the College Inn Bowling Academy on Tuesday night and as a result the two clubs are tied up with three wins apiece.

The race for the Cusick Shield has been a mighty close one all the way through and for a time it looked as though the Rotary Club would walk away with the honors but the Kiwanis Club came right back and tied matters up. There was some great bowling done last night as can be seen from the scores, which were as follows:

Kiwans aggregate—7301; Rotary aggregate, 7217; Kiwanis majority, 84. Bowling in the City League last night at the Frontenac Bowling and Recreation Academy alleys resulted as follows:

Princess Streets—Spencer, 556; McLeay, 626; Ewart, 633; Amodeo, 493; Donoghue, 414. Total, 2722. St. Lawrence—Boyer, 386; Coyne, 604; Lawrence, 464; Hyland, 583; McDonald, 495. Total, 2632.

Starr's—Kennedy, 461; Gallagher, 435; Thompson, 419; Dolan, 455; Millan, 522. Total, 2293. Alerts—Soles, 479; Wilkinson, 453; Forman, 594; Flannigan, 512; Egan, 462. Total, 2600.

Rough Riders—C. Amodeo, 362; Reid, 365; Knight, 568; Doyle, 578; McCraith, 443. Total, 2318. Industrials—Fayter, 343; Hall, 524; Angrove, 489; Barry, 400; Thompson, 431. Total, 2188.

Bowled High Score. The second highest count for a girl was made at the Frontenac Bowling Academy last evening when Miss Mildred Fawcett bowled a score of 298 so it can be seen that Miss Fawcett's bowling was certainly very good.

TAKING A VOTE.

As to Whether Amherst Island Presbyterians Will Enter Union. The Presbyterian members of St. Paul's church, Amherst Island, are taking a vote on the question of whether or not the church will enter the United Church of Canada.

It has been the custom for the past few years for the services in the morning to be held in the Presbyterian church, which is located a short distance out of Stella, while the evening services take place in the Methodist church in Stella. For over forty years Rev. James Cumberland, now superannuated, was the Presbyterian minister.

The voting started on Monday March 9th and will continue for two weeks. Samuel Fleming is returning officer. The hours of polling are from one to two o'clock each Wednesday afternoon and seven to nine o'clock Saturday evening.

The Methodist members of the congregation are not taking any part in the voting. AT MOWAT HOSPITAL.

"Euchre" Held Under Auspices of Louise Rebekah Lodge No. 10. The "euchre" held at the Mowat hospital on Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Louise Rebekah Lodge No. 10 was a decided success.

The first prizes were won by Miss Meers and Mr. R. Lee and the consolation by Mr. Barker. Refreshments were served by the ladies. Mrs. F. Hall was the convener of the committee and was assisted by Mrs. James McGill, Mrs. H. Holder and Past Noble Grand Reynolds. Shea's Blue and White orchestra provided a splendid programme for a short dance.

It was decided to grant leave of absence to two of the sisters of St. Vincent's Academy, in order that they may attend the examinations at the Ottawa Normal school to obtain their first class certificates of education.

It was also decided to send a representative to the Ontario Educational Association which convention is held in Toronto during Easter week.

On account of the necessary absence of the delegates, the next regular meeting of the board was deferred until Tuesday, April 21st. The reverend chairman informed the board that he had appointed William Gibson as the representative of the separate schools on the Kingston library board.

Thomas Tomkins, aged seventy-three years, a building contractor in Brockville, died at Aylmer, Que., on Sunday. The death occurred on Monday at Elgin of Mrs. H. F. Davison. The funeral took place on Wednesday.

THE CIVIC TAX RATE TO BE A MILL LESS. It is understood that the Board of Education's estimates for 1925 will be about the same as last year, and, as a result, the civic tax rate will be one mill less than in 1924. Board carried forward $1,200 on last year's transactions.

A Sallow Skin Shows You Need BEECHAM'S PILLS. A sign that your liver is out of order, a condition that should receive immediate attention, as it quickly affects the general health and throws the stomach and bowels into disorder. When a sallow skin tells you that your liver is inactive, it Shows You Need Beecham's Pills to regulate the bile and clear the system of impurities. A few doses will cause the appetite to improve, the bowels to act naturally, the eyes to lose their dullness, and the skin to resume a healthy hue. As a corrective for the liver, and a general regulator of bodily condition, there is no remedy like Beecham's Pills. Sold Everywhere in Canada.
