AT THE GRAND.
 Winter Garden Vanities Will Provide A Splendid Programme.
 The Grand is offering its patrons a diversified and entertaining programme Wednesday, March 18th in the appearance here of the Winter Garden Vanities, a revue comedy headed by a pair of very amusing comedians in Mac Parker and Jimmy Taylor, assisted by a caste of capable principals and a lively chorus. The Vanities production is for fun purposes only. There are no problems to worry over—just one hundred and fifty minutes of comedy, music, dancing and vaudeville. Referring to the production The Peterboro Examiner says:
 "Messrs. Parker and Taylor proved themselves to be a pair of hard-working comedians with a good line of chatter that draws many a laugh from the audience. In fact the "customers," as Raymond Hitchcock used to delight to call them, has a field night. The plot of course, was attenuated, but it served its purpose of providing plenty of opportunity for comedy, while musical numbers and specialties were lavishly introduced. Bob Cook, the juvenile, sang well and was a big help to the comedians."
 "Miss Flo Marsh did nicely in the soubrette part and Miss Hamilton also scored. Clever acrobatic and contortionist specialties were introduced by P. Huff, while another big feature was the great trunk mystery, in which a young lady tied in a sack with her hands tied behind her back, placed in a trunk that is securely fastened and in a few seconds re-appears before the audience, while the trunk is found to contain the magician himself. The transformation was accomplished at mystifying speed.
 "There was a wealth of musical numbers, the most popular being "The Pal That I Loved" and the inevitable "I Wonder What Has Become of Sally."
 "The chorus, eight in number, did some sprightly dancing and their singing was above the average."
 "All in all the Winter Garden Vanities offer a lively and entertaining programme and should attract big crowds to the Grand."

ELAINE HAMMERSTEIN.
 In Best Role of Career, "The Midnight Express."
 "When Nellie the Beautiful Clock Model" was made into a moving picture and released under its own title there were many people who said that it would not take with the public because it was such an old story and because everyone had seen it at some time or other. Yet it was a great success.
 "The Midnight Express" was in its day just as much a standby for the stock companies and barnstormers as "Nellie." In its original version it was full of the old time stage technique. In the film version with its wider scope of action possibilities, this trashy stage business has been eliminated. In its present state it is a story full of action and thrills of railroad life and with the old love story just as strong and greatly enhanced by its modern setting.
 The outdoor parts also give much that the stage production could not even make an attempt to present.
 Miss Hammerstein in the lead role brings with her the result of her intensive training on the stage as well as the accumulated experience of many screen successes. Those people who form her personal following will be glad to see this popular actress again and will without exception acclaim her work in this picture and again live up to her well earned reputation of being the little star that never disappoints.
 The rest of the cast forms a strong bulwark to Miss Hammerstein. Among these with important roles are, William Haines, Phyllis Haver, Roscoe Karnes and many others.
 "The Midnight Express" will open a three days engagement at the Capitol Monday. There will be the usual short and amusing subjects together with the Capitol orchestra.

 Giant trees in a storm that brings destruction in its force, a flooded river that piles huge logs into a tangled, splintered jam, and the heroism of a man who risks his life to save others from this turmoil of nature go to make "The Tornado," now playing in the Strand Theatre, one of the most spectacular pictures ever made. House Peters is the star and is assisted in telling a dramatic love story by Ruth Clifford, Richard Tucker, Edith Edwards and Katie Price.

The outstanding church leader, Rev. Dr. Pidgeon, Toronto, preaches anniversary services in Sydenham Street Methodist Church on Sunday.

Kingston Executive Met.
 A meeting of the executive of the Kingston Hockey Club was held on Friday afternoon in the Board of Trade rooms for the purpose of closing some of the business of the Club and making arrangements for closing up the remainder. Another meeting will be held shortly.

Did His Share.
 In connection with the Sunbury hockey club, which won the Frontenac County championship, it is noted that Mr. Bert Greenless, former manager of the team, has attended nearly every game that the team has played. It is unfortunate that he, after all his time and work in previous years in rounding out a hockey team, could not have shared in the team's well-earned honors, but it is agreed that his work was not in vain. His own duties forced him to retire from the office of manager last year, much to the disappointment of players and fans in the County League.

Coming To Kingston.
 Five strong badminton teams have been drawn together in the Ottawa Garrison Badminton League to decide which team shall come to Kingston in April to play off for the championship of M.D. No. 3.

 Canadiens defeated St. Patricks in Toronto on Friday night in the second game of the semi-finals between these two teams, by the score of 2-0, winning the round by 5-2, as a result of their 3-2 win in Montreal. The victory was a big surprise to Toronto hockey fans, who expected their team to pull down the lead and win the round. The winners were slated to play Hamilton Tigers, or, in the event of the latter refusing to play, Ottawa Senators for the N.H.L. championship.

Declares Canadiens Champions.
 Hamilton, March 14.—The members of the Hamilton team having refused to play the finals unless given a bonus of $200 each. PROUD OF THE TEAMS.
 Sunbury Hockeyists Carried Off The Trophies.
 Sunbury, March 13.—The first sign of spring is here as the robins have made their appearance. All honor to Sunbury hockey teams, both Senior and Junior teams, in having won the silver trophies. It is understood the cups are to be displayed in the new township hall. Miss Dorothy and Dennis Dixon opened their home to a farewell party for Orville Haffner who with his parents is moving to Glenburnie. About forty young people attended and all report a jolly time. Thomas Campbell has purchased a car. Almost every resident of Sunbury and vicinity attended the two hockey games this week. William Cooper and family, Lansdowne, having sold their farm and stock are making their home at present with their son, in Sunbury. A Sharpe met with a sad misfortune on Wednesday. While in the set of cranking his truck he broke his arm just above the wrist. All hope for a speedy recovery. The Murvale Dramatic Club presented their play "Sunshine" on Tuesday evening to a full house. The play was much enjoyed by every one present.
 The Ladies' Aid met at Cornelius Smith's on Wednesday afternoon. Wilfred Cooper has been engaged to purchase and put on the blinds for the hall. Mrs. Clark still continues very low. Mrs. James Clark is in Detroit, her daughter having undergone a very serious operation.

SENTENCED TO JAIL FOR STEALING LEAD

The Second-Hand Dealer Who Bought the Stolen Lead Was Fined $25.
 Pleading guilty in the police court on Saturday morning, to a charge of stealing three "pigs" of lead from Isaac Cohen, Thomas Cooling and Stuart Holland, young men, were each sentenced to two months in jail by Magistrate Farrell.
 Benjamin Burdoff, a second-hand dealer, pleaded guilty to a charge of buying the lead knowing it to have been stolen. He was fined $25 or one month, must return the stolen property, and Magistrate Farrell also informed the accused that he would make a recommendation to the board of police commissioners to have his license as a second-hand dealer, cancelled.
 The theft was committed on Feb. 25th. The young men entered Cohen's premises and made off with three "pigs" of lead, amounting to 270 pounds, and they afterwards disposed of it to Burdoff at five cents per pound.
 Magistrate Farrell gave Burdoff severe reprimand for having purchased the lead, stating that many of these cases of theft would not take place if the second hand men refused to purchase goods when it was known that the goods had been stolen.
 The case was brought before the court as a result of good work on the part of Detective Thomas Mullinger, who was given the matter to investigate. Detective Mullinger placed the young men under arrest on Friday afternoon and was instrumental in having Burdoff summoned to the court.

The Family Market Basket
 Maple syrup made its first appearance on the market on Saturday, and was eagerly bought at 75c a quart. Flowers bloomed, in spite of the cold wet rain, and on one florist's wagon were some pots of real Irish shamrock, proving the story that "The Dear Little Shamrock of Ireland" will not grow elsewhere than on "The Old Sod" a fallacy. The dainty little plants were snapped up at once by Irish people who know the plant, famous in song and story when they see it. The ice is so unsafe that only a few islanders were on the market and their place was taken by people from the countryside who were glad of the shelter from the rain. Eggs were selling at 35c and butter at 30c. A few chickens were displayed, selling for 75c and $1 apiece. Lettuce, radishes, rhubarb and green parsley gave a hint of spring, but the market was not large and the buyers comparatively few.

CLOSED SEASON FOR BEAVER.
 Each day, March 14th.
 The extinction of the Algoma beaver is practically an accomplished fact. The writer, during a two weeks' stay in the woods, heard everywhere of trappers making plans to abandon their usual beats. The indiscriminate slaughter of the beaver of late years and the massacre that has followed the recent regulations of the Fish & Game Department have at length practically wiped out the animal in Algoma. The business which has given a good living to hundreds of men till recently has been practically wiped out.
 Last year Algoma sent a big deputation to Toronto and the facts before Premier Drury so startled him that he promised on the instant to have a royal commission investigate the situation. Algoma respected with its past knowledge of the Fish & Game Department that the commission would be side tracked, and the expectation was fulfilled. So many mysterious things happen when you deal with the Fish & Game Department that nothing could surprise Algoma.
 There is a widespread belief among the trappers in the district that the department is out of date and not what it should be. We refer to the permanent officials. To anybody who takes any interest in New Ontario the wanton destruction of the valuable beaver business comes as a most depressing event. Apparently, there is but one thing to do and that is that there should be at once a closed season for beaver if the last remnants of these are to be protected. The matter is not a trifling one. The Dominion Bureau of Statistics says that in the season of 1922-23 there were 77,473 pelts taken in Ontario valued at $1,133,390. It will thus be seen that while the question is mainly one which affects Algoma and the Hudson Bay territory, the province cannot afford to ignore a business which even in a bad year produced $1,000,000 in wealth.

We are firmly convinced that the immediate protection of the beaver by a five year closed season is a matter of pressing moment. The Fish & Game Department by its new wide open regulations now allows a free traffic in beaver killings. The department must reverse its procedure at once.
