MASON FURNAL JAMES

Sorry—Misprint.

Friend: "Why are you so angry at the Editor?"

Poet: "Well, I sent him a poem of mine about my lady love. It contained the line, 'When she smiles I see her dimples.'"

Friend: "Yes?"

Poet: "And that infernal Editor printed it 'tonails'."

Too Willing.

Mary: "What Lenten sacrifice are you making this year?"

Florence: "It all depends on Mammy. If she agrees I'll give up my chaperon."

—Michael McCoon.

Explained.

McCarthy: "Why do so many Irishmen's names have an O before them?"

O'Shea: "An' sure! 'Tis an exclamation."

—Frank M. Dugan.

The Parting of the Way.

Frank: "Late hours often lead to the penitentiary."

Roy: "Or to matrimony."

—Roberta Norton.

A Compromise.

Johnny had little Billy on the head with a piece of brick and Billy, naturally, went around howling with pain.

"Johnny, what do you mean?" sternly demanded his father when he saw Billy. "Why did you hit Billy on the head with that brick? Tell me that!"

"Well, Daddy, I couldn't find a rock," answered Johnny.

—Mrs. Will D. Miller.

A Complication.

Patient: "Doctor, before you put me under the anesthetic I have a favor to ask."

Doctor: "Quick! Out with it! We are about to operate."

Patient: "Well, when I am unconscious I want you to remove the piece of adhesive plaster that's been on my back for the last two months."

—Joan Benda.

Check Your Nose Cold

Relief in 5 Minutes

The quickest remedy for a cold is CATARRHOZONE. You get instant relief from Catarrhosone because you breathe it. Every breath you draw through the little inhaler carries a healing antiseptic vapor that can't fall to clear the nose, throat and breathing organs.

By using Catarrhosone several times each day you ward off Tonsillitis, Catarrh, Influenza—you keep clear of Sore Throat, Hoarseness and other winter ills.

No medicine to take—just a soothing vapor to breathe. You can use Catarrhosone at night in bed, use it in church, in the office, on the street—use it with the first sneeze or shiver. Complete outfit $1.00; small size 50 cents, at all dealers in medicine, or The Dr. Hamilton Pill Co., 311 Notre Dame St., West, Montreal.

Reported as Northbrook—C. C. Thompson Sees New Tenement House.

Northbrook, March 15.—Spring changes are evident this week. Hugh Saul has purchased the newly erected double tenement house from C. C. Thompson and will put in a full line of new and second hand furniture. One of the present tenants, Benson Scott and family, will soon move to a house being erected by James Vogan. J. H. McDonald is moving his building and business on Front street near the garage. Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bishop of Cloys are moving on the Ore Chimney farm recently tenanted by William Kehoe.

C. C. Thompson purchased a roadster car from William Atkins last week. Steven Sedore had to shoot a horse which became cast in the stable. Mrs. Milburn of Toronto is visiting her daughter, Miss Jean Milburn, at W. Cassada's. A number of children are suffering with the grippe. Miss Lulu and Miss Elsie Lloyd are visiting at Stanley Wheeler's. Cloys. Mrs. Oral Miller of Harlowe was a Saturday evening caller.

WAR GLORIFIED.

In Memorial Chapel Windows, the Queen's Journal Thinks.

The Queen's Journal says editorially: "After looking at the sketches for the Memorial chapel windows, which are now on exhibition in the library, one cannot help but ask if it has not been the intention of the artists who executed them to glorify war rather than to commemorate the Queen's men whom war killed. Undoubtedly, the designs are further examples of war's age-old ability to steal the cloak of glory from those whom she has slain so that she might wrap therein her own hideous limbs.

"For motifs, two artists of the three have gone to the ages of chivalry, a tacit if quixotic admission that they are able to receive little inspiration from a warfare of machine gun, shell, and gas. Such designs would be more appropriate to commemorate trivial football and hockey casualties than to be memorials to the Queen's dead; for the football field, the rink, the gym, and the tennis court are the present day heirs of all that was worthy in chivalry. The unworthy has been inherited by modern war. The third design pictures and enumerates what Queen's did in a materialistic way in the war, completely ignoring, as do also the other sketches, any effort to imprison in glass at least something that will tell future generations that the men whose names are engraved on the bronze tablet did not die for mere display but rather for a supreme and ineffable love. None could wish to detract from the war record of the university. However, the memorial is not to flatter our (in this case) justifiable pride, but to honor the dead.

"It would be extremely regrettable if a false expression of the University's regard for her dead were allowed to receive permanency in the Memorial chapel."

AN OLD KINGSTON BOY.

W. E. Sherlock a Prominent Mason at Canton, Ohio.

The Masonic Bulletin of Canton, Ohio, has the following about a former Kingstonian:

"Bro. William E. Sherlock came to Canton in 1879 and was married the same year. In 1884 he engaged in the foundry business, which by strict attention to all the details grew until he employed as high as 350 workmen, when he retired a couple of years ago. He was interested not only in the material welfare of his life's work but gained the love and respect of all associated with him. Passing through his foundry he could call his help by name and was acquainted in a large measure with their personal affairs. His love for his work and his employees was so strong that he never sought public office. There was never a strike in his factory, men in his employ raised families and their sons carried on the work.

"Bro. Sherlock was made a Mason in old Eagle lodge, now William McKinley lodge, October 29th, 1889 and is one of the pioneer members of that lodge. Charitable without ostentation, public spirited and of sound judgment, he is held in high regard by the entire community in which he has lived and wrought for two score years."

TWINS AT TICHBORNE.

Two Sons Born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Steele.

Ticborne, March 14.—George Thompson has completed his sowing for this year. A few of the farmers are getting ready for tapping.

The many friends of Mrs. John Steele, Sr., are glad to know she is much improved in health; also Miss Ethel Steele, who was taken back to hospital for treatment. Mrs. William Kennedy, who has been on sick list, is improving.

Mrs. Annie Kennedy received word on Monday last that her sister, Mrs. E. Bertram, who has been with her daughter, Mrs. T. S. Genge, at Verona, had to have a slight operation. Mrs. William Hayes' little baby is gaining strength slowly. The stork passed through here on Friday and left twin boys at Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Steele's.

Visitors: Mr. W. J. Kennedy, is spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. Dermott, in Belleville; Mrs. Alton at F. Wagon's, Parham; Mr. and Mrs. W. Steele at George Cronk's; Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton at William Anderson's, Crow Lake; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harris and family at William Swerbrick's.
