RELIGION ON THE AIR

Howard S. Williams, evangelist, broadcasts his sermons through his own portable transmitting station. He's now in Cairo, Ill., and is preparing to go to Herrin, seat of much factional trouble, to evangelize that district. His station is WCBG, broadcasting almost nightly on 268 meters, on 10 watts power.

OPERA STAR IN GREATEST ROLE

Myrna Sharlow, prima donna soprano of the Chicago and Boston opera companies, is shown here in the leading role of the world's oldest opera, "Motherhood." She left the stage last season to await the arrival of the new songster and will return for the spring concert tour. In private life Myrna Sharlow is Mrs. E. B. Hitchcock of Decatur, Ill.

SILVER LACE IS USED HERE

Even a dog movie star must rehearse his part, as this photo of Peter the Great, the wonder police dog of the screen, shows. His trainer and owner, Edward Faust, is rehearsing his for a new part.

Silver lace is arranged over a foundation of beige crepe to make this very distinctive frock. A circular sounce gives the graceful flare at the feet and a large crimson poppy lends a brilliant dash of color. This is a typically Parisian frock. The sort one sees for dinner and the-atre wear.

Two Hotels Are Burned At Palm Beach, Florida

Palm Beach, Fla., March 19.—Following destruction of the Breakers Hotel here yesterday afternoon, the Palm Beach Hotel was also destroyed by the flames and the fire spread to nearby cottages. Damage was then estimated at $2,500,000, with possibility that the total might reach $5,000,000. No loss of life was reported.

NEW STYLE FOR UNBOBBED

ing new styles with the hair wound over the head in a very loose braid. And here's a tip. These braids are detachable and may be worn by the bobbed-haired miss herself when she wishes to have a certain pictorial quality that is impossible with short hair. It is particularly liked as a style for evening.

Preached in St. George's. Rev. C. E. F. Radcliffe, Deseronto, preached a practical Lenten sermon at the Wednesday evening service in St. George's Cathedral, last night, from the text "Come ye apart and rest awhile". Miss Frances Smart, Montreal, sang "O! Divine Redeemer" (Gounod) in the lovely rich contralto Kingstonsians have had the pleasure of hearing during her visit to her aunt, Mrs. Edwin Reynolds, Brockville, who is in the General Hospital.

There is a contest on for successor to the late President Ebert, but we do not see William Hohenzollern's name among the candidates.
