OBITUARY

Death of Sister Mary Helena.

The bell at the House of Providence had scarcely ceased tolling the requiem for the funeral of the late Mr. Joyce, when the Stern Reaper claimed another member of the family, who passed peacefully and calmly to rest on the morning of March 22nd, fortified by the sacraments of the dying, assisted by the prayers of the sisters who knelt at her bedside. Her brave Christian mother and devoted sister, Rev. Sr. Cecilia, were with her till her eyes sweetly closed in death.

The deceased sister was born forty-four years ago at Railton, and entered the Providence in 1900. She was an unusually bright sunny disposition and was much beloved by the children in the different schools of the order, where her services were appreciated by both pupils and parents.

The late Sister Helena was rarely gifted in the fine arts, especially in painting and music, to which she devoted much of her time, in the art studio at the Providence, where her beautifully painted cards were in great demand.

To her bereaved mother and sister the hearts of all go out in sympathy. The funeral will be held on Monday at the Church of Our Mother of Sorrows at 8 a.m.

Late Mrs. W. J. Jacobs.

The death occurred in Brockville on Friday of Hattie Bearance, wife of W. J. Jacobs, former well known bandmaster here, after a lengthy illness. Deceased was fifty-four years of age and was widely known in Kingston where she had formerly resided. The news of her death was received with deep regret by her many friends here. She was an Anglican in religion.

Deceased is survived by her parents Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bearance of Elginburg; two brothers, Sherman and Fred of Kingston and one daughter, Mrs. W. Ball, Brockville; also by two sisters, Mrs. Stover of Elginburg and Mrs. Davey of Kingston. The remains will arrive on the 3.30 train on Monday afternoon from Brockville and the funeral will take place to Cataract cemetery. Rev. Hilyard Smith will conduct the funeral service.

Late Edward Thompson, Minneapolis

Edward Thompson died in Minneapolis, Minn., March 21st, after a short illness. He was born in Kingston sixty-nine years ago. The funeral took place Tuesday, March 24th, from the Davies undertaking parlors. The services were conducted by Rev. Don. Frank Fern of the Gethseme Episcopal church.

Deceased was a member of the Typographical Union for forty years and also belonged to the Order of Modern Woodmen of America. He leaves a wife, formerly Susie Davis of Kingston; one daughter, Mrs. E. H. Hughes; one son, Edward D. Thompson of the Metropolitan Bank of Minneapolis, and one sister, Mrs. Jennie Crawford, Kingston.

KIWANIS ACTIVITIES.

The Kiwanis Club will meet on Monday evening next, instead of at noon, and this meeting will take the form of a social event. It will be ladies' night and a special programme has been arranged, which promises to be very entertaining and interesting. The meeting will be followed by a dance in the Frontenac Hotel.

It is announced that Stewart Robertson, a former Kiwanian, has been reinstated as a member of the Kiwanis Club, under his old classification.

This old world is full of quitters before they commence.

SPIRIT OF ROTARY ALL OVER THE WORLD

President A. N. Lyster Speaks on District Convention Held in Quebec City.

That the spirit of Rotary has invaded practically all the countries of the world, is the cheery message that President A. N. Lyster, of the Kingston Rotary Club, had to report following his trip to Quebec City, where he attended the Rotary convention for the 23rd district, of which the local club is identified.

President Lyster was the speaker at Friday's luncheon of the club, and he gave a splendid account of the "doings" at this big gathering. He spoke of the topics under discussion, the entertainment provided for the delegates and all the arrangements made for the convention. He stated it was a wonderful gathering, and told of the problems presented, and the manner in which they were dealt. The exchange of views provided a most inspiring programme, and every member came away from the convention with much food for thought.

One of the chief points stressed at the convention was the question of attendance at Rotary meetings. If a member does not attend the meetings he cannot keep up with what is going on, and thus his usefulness as a member ceases.

Many addresses of a most inspiring and helpful nature were given at the convention.

President Lyster also gave some sidelights on his trip that were most interesting and his report was listened to with keen interest. Rotarians "Jack" Derry and "Eddie" Mullin voiced the thanks of the members of the club with neat addresses.

It so happened that President Lyster and the newly-elected president, R. H. Ward, who takes over the reins of office in another month, celebrated their birthday on Friday, and this event was marked by a special celebration, in which all the members joined with great enthusiasm. Rotarian Claude Gordon, the newly elected vice-president, presided, and he proposed a toast to the health of the two members which was heartily responded to. The "Toasted" members responded with happy speeches.

Rotarian Milton Harlow advised the members of the club that a convention for high school boys was being held at Hamilton shortly, and as it was a most important gathering for the welfare of the boys, he proposed that the club pay the expenses of one delegate to this gathering.

On motion of Rotarians Harry Breathwaite and Charlie Anglin, the club decided to send the delegate to the meeting.

JOHN DUXBURY IN RECITALS.

In Sydenham Street Methodist Church April 7th, 8th and 9th.

Arrangements have been completed for the appearance of John Duxbury in Sydenham street Methodist church on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, April 7th, 8th and 9th. Mr. Duxbury visited Kingston three years ago in connection with the Chautauqua which was put on under the auspices of the Kingston Rotary Club. On Tuesday evening, Mr. Duxbury will give "Silas Marner," Wednesday "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," and Thursday "A Christmas Carol."

John Duxbury needs no introduction to a Kingston audience as during his last visit here he delighted his hearers with his reciting of Dickens.

WINTER GARDEN VANITIES AT GRAND OPERA HOUSE

Company Will Close Engagement To-night With 'Charley's Aunt.'

The Winter Garden Vanities will close their engagement at the Grand Opera House to-night. On Friday night the company presented that ever popular farce comedy, "Charley's Aunt," and the audience was delighted with it.

In addition to the play, the company put on a very fine programme of vaudeville, while the singing of the chorus was exceptionally good. One of the members of the company gave a splendid dancing specialty.

Moe Parker, in the role of "Charley's Aunt," kept the audience in roars of laughter, while James Taylor, as Sir Francis, shared honors with him. Bob Cook ably portrayed the role of Charles Wyckham, while Blanche Cook, as Dona Lucia and Flo Marsh as Amy Spetigue, filled their parts in a most pleasing manner.

ON CANADIAN POETS.

Prof. Sandwell Spoke Over the Radio on Thursday Night.

Prof. Sandwell, of Queen's University, spoke on "Canadian Poets," over the radio on Thursday night, and his programme was much enjoyed by Kingstonians. Prof. Sandwell gave a short poem from each of the authors. He spoke over the radio from Queen's University.

MELODY SHOPPE

Has Accepted Agency for New Mason and Risch Pianos.

Mr. J. L. Jerome, sole proprietor of the Melody Shoppe, Princess street, opposite the Grand Opera House, who recently took over the agency for the Mason and Risch pianos, has been wonderfully successful in the sale of the well-known piano since the new duo art reproducing action as used in the Steinway piano has been placed in it. There is a distinct advantage to the Mason and Risch piano and its introduction here marks an epoch in musical life.

The Mason and Risch piano, known the world over for its quality of tone and action, has found great favor in Kingston. Mr. R. L. Pratt, the district manager, representing the firm which turns out these pianos, has been in the city for the past few days and is greatly pleased with the results thus far obtained. He is delighted to have secured the Melody Shoppe to handle the exclusive agency of the Mason and Risch piano and feels that with such a live agency here, the business of the company will be well handled.

TALKED ON CHEVROLET.

Mr. G. McIntyre of General Motors, Oshawa, in City on Friday.

Mr. G. McIntyre of the General Motors Company of Oshawa was in the city on Friday, and in the evening he delivered a short instructional talk to owners and prospective owners of Chevrolet motor cars in the Central garage at the corner of Montreal and Brock streets. Mr. McIntyre went thoroughly into the Chevrolet car, explaining the different improvements that had been made and giving reasons why the Chevrolet could be turned out at such high quality for such a low figure. He explained fully the new crank shaft improvement, the water systems and other parts of the mechanisms of the car, and though dealing with mechanical parts, made his talk very plain so that those not familiar with mechanical terms, could easily understand his address. Mr. McIntyre illustrated his talk with various parts from the Chevrolet car and showed the improvements of the Chevrolet over some other makes.

An Indoor Picnic.

The Christian Endeavor Society of Bethel church held an indoor picnic on Friday evening to which they invited their friends and members of the congregation. There were about ninety present and it was a jolly affair. Mr. W. M. Veale, chairman of the social committee, handled the programme, which consisted of novelty races and contests, and he and his committee are to be congratulated on their achievements. Refreshments were served at the close in real old picnic style and all went home satisfied that it was one of the best social events ever put on by this society.

Held Social Evening.

On Tuesday evening, March 24th, Cooke's Young People's Society held a very enjoyable social evening. Gordon Cummings, president, occupied the chair for the business part of the programme. Afterwards an enjoyable piano duet was given by Miss Irwin and Mrs. Smith. A programme was then presented, in which Mrs. Irwin, Miss Spence and Mr. Cummings filled the acting parts, while Mrs. Smith sang to Miss Irwin's accompaniment at the piano. Later a pleasant time was spent in playing games. Refreshments were served and the meeting came to a close with the singing of some old-fashioned songs.
