WADS OF BOGUS BILLS SEIZED IN MONTREAL

Newly Printed "Currency" to Extent of $150,000 Drying When Officers Made Raid.

Montreal, April 3.—Swooping in from front and back doors under cover of darkness, a large squad of men of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police seized $150,000 worth of counterfeit $10 bills, at least 500,000 cut papers of the same size, ready to be printed, a foot and power-driven printing press of the most up-to-date design, plates and other paraphernalia, and arrested seven men in a farm house some three miles beyond L'Assomption, in Girard Parish.

The raid was the biggest by far ever undertaken against counterfeiters in Canada.

The men under arrest are Joseph Beaudoin, farmer, aged sixty, and his five sons, Pierre Paul, Joseph Raphael Maximilien, Alfred, Joseph Isidore Mederic, and Gustave, owners of the farm, and Denis Viger, of Montreal.

The bills, which were laid out to dry on the floors, tables, chairs and beds of two large rooms, and which clung to the muddy boots of the mounties when they rushed into the dark farmhouse, were all imitations of $10 bills of La Banque Canadienne Nationale.

CHEAPER IN THE END

How often is a contractor told his price is HIGH? But if all facts were taken into consideration, the contractor with the high price is the CHEAPER IN THE END, for the man with the cheap price has to skimp the work or leave something out. It has to be put in and you have an extra on the job whereas the high contractor had included it in his price. It pays to look into what you are going to GET.
