St. George's and Chalmers people appear to be very closely allied.

Some years ago the former Chalmers minister preached at the Armistice service in St. George's, and now Chalmers choir goes down to Dean Starr's big cathedral and joins with "Bob" Harvey's surprised choristers in putting on a Passion week recital.

Then the Kingston Choral Society has been very active and in a few years should reach a very high standard.

ard of excellence. For a time there appeared to be a dearth of musical artists in Kingston, but now the ranks are being filled again, Kingston should be a musical centre.

More landmarks are disappearing. The burning of St. John's church, Bath, was followed by the destruction of the old Country clubhouse at Barriefield, and then Bath Road a few miles out had to have a fire, and True-dell's hall went up in smoke.

Kingston old boys in the U.S.A. will look forward to coming home for the August 1st to 8th celebration. Some have written that they wish to see how the O.T.A. is getting along here and to get a good taste of the Ferguson Government's new beer.

Some one announces that in a few years the French will dominate Canada. Well they will not if Dr. Edwards can help it. The doctor is going to keep the French in their place, according to his platform pronouncements, and Premier Ferguson will have his nose pulled if he doesn't mind the doctor.
