EVENTS AT ATHENS INCLUDED A WEDDING

Miss Pearl Burnham to Become a Nurse—Telephone Motion Picture.

Athens, April 16.—A pretty house wedding took place at the Church street residence of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Wiltsie, when their youngest daughter, Miss Gwendol-yne, became the bride of Lorne Derbyshire, Toronto, a native of this place, only about a score of in-imate friends and relatives witnessing the ceremony which was performed by Rev. H. E. Warren, M.A., B.D., at 9 a.m. on the 16th inst.
The wedding march was played by Miss Hazel Burns, accompanied by Frederick Blackwell, Lindsay, violinist, nephew of the bride. Following the wedding breakfast, served by three girl friends, the Misses Mary and Grace Conlon, and Martha Karl, the happy couple motored to Brookville, taking the train for Toronto, where they will reside. The bride will be greatly missed here in musical circles.

A few Athenians were at Glen Elba on Friday afternoon, attending the W.M.S. thank offering service at Mrs. Wallace C. Brown's.

As Miss Lovella Conboy, who has spent some time here with Mrs. H.
H. Arnold was leaving on Saturday afternoon for her home at Sharbot Lake, members of her Sunday school class assembled at the railway station to say farewell and present her with a change purse and vanity-case.

Miss Pearl Burnham, having been accepted as nurse-in-training at the General Hospital, Brookville, was with a piece of French ivory.

A very instructive motion picture entertainment was put on by the Messrs. Earl and Moray, Brookville, by courtesy of the Bell Telephone Company, the Young People's Society being the beneficiaries. They visualized the evolution in transmitting messages from the time of the foot-footed couriers, the Indian beacon fires, the pony express with frequent relays, the stage-coach, the sailing vessel, the hand semaphore, the fast steamboats, the mail trains, but all fail to reach the speed attained by the telephone which, during the forty-nine years of its history, has undergone improvements.
The marvellous mechanism of the machine was illustrated together with much valuable information as to the correct and improper methinto soup or sauce it causes the liquid to become cloudy, but if it is merely peeled and put in whole, the soup will remain perfectly clear.
