PLAYS BY COMMUNITY 'THE ORIGINALS' FOR THE COMMUNITY APPEAR AT GRAND

Prof. R. K. Hicks Spoke on "Theatricals" Before the Rotary Club. A Splendid Performance Given on Friday Evening in "Stepping Out."

Prof. R. K. Hicks, of Queen's University, was the speaker at the Rotary Club's luncheon on Friday, and gave a most interesting address on theatricals, in which he had something to say about the productions sent out from Broadway.

"Broadway sends out what they think we ought to want," said the speaker. "And in general the stuff can be labelled under three categories: legs, laughter and sob stuff. "There is a lot of good stuff on the road," added the speaker, "but it very seldom reaches a city of less than 100,000 population. These good productions stay in the large centres.

Speaking about burlesque, Prof. Hicks said, "I do not scorn burlesque. It is very clever work and has its place." Prof. Hicks stated that he felt that he had a mission for the club, and that had to do with an appeal for the democratic theatre—a theatre that makes an appeal to the whole of the public, and not merely to one section; one that appeals to the intellect and makes a drive at the heart and the mind. The speaker pointed out that the popularity of the plays did not prove that they were democratic. They must appeal to everyone. Today, there was a general demand for better stuff on the stage. On Broadway, they sent out shows for "the tired business man," but the speaker declared that he did not believe in this stuff. Shows were often sent out from Broadway labelled for people regarded as having no brains and who would pay $2.50 to see the show.

Prof. Hicks spoke of the instinct for the drama. It was founded on the instinct for play. The children have it and the older folk should have it too and keep it. "And the longer we keep it the better for us," said the speaker.

Prof. Hicks stated that a movement was now well in hand that would correct the present state of affairs. He had reference to the community theatre movement or "little theatre" as it was sometimes known. In England and Russia at the present time, this movement had been carried on. The movement had for its object the securing of the general public to play. Plays were put on by the people. In Russia it was known as the folk theatre. The people were writing their own plays and producing them. There were plays by the community for the community.

At the close of his address, Prof. Hicks made the suggestion that the committee in charge of the old boys re-union this summer secure Hubert Osborne, a well-known former Kingstonian, to come to Kingston and produce one of his own plays.

In moving the vote of thanks to the speaker, Rotarian Dr. H. E. Day stated that the suggestion was a good one, and speaking of theatricals in general, stated that the Rotary Club would do well to encourage the efforts being put forward.

It was announced that the annual meeting of the club will be held on Thursday evening next, at a dinner to be held at the British-American hotel at 6 o'clock. The officers will be elected at this meeting.

The president, A. N. Lyster, presided at the luncheon.

KIWANIS ACTIVITIES.

At the regular meeting of the Kiwanis Club at noon on Monday, Ald. Ferguson J. O'Connor will address the club on the subject of "The Influence of the Unmarked Ballot in Municipal Affairs." This is one of the pressing problems that affect the guidance of a municipality and should prove of the greatest interest to the members.

Mr. E. Walsh, of the firm of Walsh & Derry, will be the booster. The house committee, under the chairmanship of Mr. E. Walsh, will occupy the committee table. The club is boosting the entertainment of the Navy League of Canada (Kingston branch), which will consist of theatricals, music and living pictures, and is to be held in Grant Hall on the 29th.

Preparations are being made to overthrow the victorious Belleville bowlers when they play the return games here a week from Monday.

The ninth annual Kiwanis convention, which is to be held in St. Paul, Minn., is already attracting attention and a large delegation from Kingston is expected to attend.

Y.M.C.A. NOTES

Sunday morning there will be a special meeting for older boys at the Y.M.C.A. when Dr. J. Miller, head of the Pathology Department at Queen's will give an illustrated talk on "What Every Boy Should Know."

At the men's mass meeting in the afternoon Principal S. W. Dyde will speak on "Finding and Making a Career." Mr. Ernest Bedford will sing and an orchestra will provide special music.

On Friday afternoon about forty boys attended the last of the holiday educational trips arranged by the Y.M.C.A. They were taken through the Canadian Locomotive Works and shown around by the management. An engine in process of assembly was one of the chief features of interest. Thanks to these trips a number of the most interesting places in the city have been seen by the boys.

A large audience was presented at the Grand Opera House on Friday evening for the first performance of "Stepping Out," presented by the "Originals" who include many original members of the Third Canadian Division Dumbell Concert party.

"Stepping Out" is the best performance presented by the Originals in this city. Gene Pearson's singing was wonderful. Bob Anderson kept the audience in mirth with his jokes and his appearance on the stage alone provoked laughter. Allan Murray as Maisie Jay, the madam's maid, was also very good.

The musical numbers in the first act were certainly a decided hit. "Women, Women," by the chorus of men received great applause, and "Turned Up," by Bob Anderson brought forth much mirth. "Rough Stuff," by Allan Murray developed into a burlesque Apache dance, with Jerry Brayford, and it brought round after round of applause from the audience. "Love Will Come Back," sung by Gene Pearson, gained great applause and "They Can't Catch Me," by Bob Anderson was another hit.

"In the Night Time," sung by Lionel Brodway in the first scene of act two, was very good and Mr. Brodway was brought back for many encores. "I'm On the Staff" by Norman A. Blume was well sung and Blume's impersonation of an Englishman was excellent.

A satire entitled "Heroes" in scene two was one of the best scenes in the show. The members of the company who took the parts as the living statue were perfect. The prologue and epilogue in this scene were also good.

Scene four, "The Duchess Performances," was about the most comical in the show. The scene was in the drawing room of the Duchess of Dishwater, and a rehearsal of the duchess's charity performance was being staged. The situations were amusing and caused much mirth. The finale, "Yes, We Have No Bananas," a grand opera burlesque by the entire company, was certainly good and worthy of the applause it received. The Originals quartette was a feature.

"Stepping Out" will be presented at the Grand Opera House on Saturday evening with a matinee in the afternoon.

March Out of P.W.O.R.

On Friday evening, the Kingston P.W.O.R. held a good training parade. The commanding officer has decided that on Monday next the first march out of the battalion will be held. Owing to the severe cutting down of the training establishment by the Militia Department, the battalion will not be able to make as fine a show as formerly. Upon return to the armories there will be an interesting ceremony for the presentation of certificates to the non-commissioned officers.
