FORMER KINGSTONIAN PASSES AT LINDSAY

A Most Prominent Curler—Was Coming Here for Old Boys' Week.

Lindsay, April 20.—George A. Little, for years a prominent merchant of Lindsay, and one of the foremost lovers of clean athletics in this part of the country, died suddenly Friday evening as he stepped from his car, high blood pressure being the cause. The late George Little was known all over Canada as a peer amongst curlers. Many years ago he visited the big curling bonspiel at Winnipeg in company with the veteran J. D. Fiavelle. He was in his 65th year and came to Lindsay when a young man, being brought here from Kingston to play baseball.

He was the first pitcher to introduce the curve ball in this section and for years was a star on the diamond. He was a lover of wholesome sports and an adept at whatever sport he participated in. He was equally expert on the cricket crease, as on the golf course, played tennis and was for many years an officer and player in the curling club. He was also fond of fishing and motoring. He was a Presbyterian and was also a charter member of the Kiwanis Club in Lindsay.

In the early part of the evening he had given a friend a short outing in his car and at the time of his death was calling on his nephew, Dr. Leonard Shier. Mrs. Little, who survives, was present at the time.

A few days ago the Whig received a letter from Mr. Little in which he stated that he would make every effort to be here for the Old Boys' Week and he was looking forward eagerly to being here during the celebration in August. The news of his death was received with deep regret by his many friends in Kingston, who had expected to see him here during the summer. Mr. Little left Kingston in 1884. He was the owner of a large book and stationery store at Lindsay.

PITTSFERRY W.M.S.

Interesting Meetings Held—Mrs. Robert Ranous is Recovering.
 Pittserry, April 17.—Some of the farmers have started spring work and report the ground in good condition.

Service in St. Lawrence church on Easter Sunday morning was well attended. The service, which was taken charge of by the W.M.S., was very interesting. Mrs. W. S. Gordon, Kingston, gave an interesting talk and then introduced Miss Gibson, Kingston, a delegate to the World's Missionary convention, held at Washington. Miss Gibson gave an eloquent address on this work, which was fully enjoyed by all present.

Floyd Mosier, Wolfe Island, spent the Easter holidays with his grandmother, Mrs. Eliza Orr. Miss Gladys Harpell and brother, Thomas, Kingston, spent the holiday with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Edgar. Mrs. Robert Ranous is improving nicely from her recent illness, her mother-in-law, Mrs. G. Ranous, Wolfe Island, is visiting with her now.

Miss Lottie Orr returned home on Saturday after spending the holidays with her sisters at Wolfe Island. Ray Caird was called to the bedside of his grandmother and grandfather, Mr. and Mrs. C. Caird, Sealey's Bay, who are seriously ill, but has returned to his work again.

The W.M.S. held its annual meeting at the home of Mrs. E. Orr on Wednesday afternoon. Twelve members were present. The officers were re-elected for another year. Miss Miss Alma Williams and brother, Percy, motored to Sunbury on Sunday and spent the day with friends.

GIVES UP RIGHTS

 Patent rights to millions of dollars are signed away to American radio interests by Prof. Marius C. A. Latour, shown here. Latour, one of the world's most famous scientists, is said to have controlled radio patents of such a nature that almost any kind of a receiving or transmitting set would infringe upon one or more of them.

MORE HUMORS OF HISTORY

By Arthur Moreland

No. 73.—Baronial Bandits.

A.D. 1102.—The Barons, each a little King in his own domain, indulged in minor wars among themselves. King Henry put them down with a strong hand; Ivo de Grantmesnil was subjected to a heavy fine, while the most powerful Robert de Belesme, was finally obliged to surrender at Shrewsbury, where Henry cut a road through a wood that defended his castle. Belesme was banished to Normandy.
