Clear-up Auction Sale at Jenkins' Saturday afternoon and night. Murray, Auctioneer.

The cricket field is nearly all dried up, and soon the baseball enthusiasts will be "swatting the old pill" around once again. The parks are in fairly good condition also.

CARRIED OFF LIQUOR, OVERLOOK VALUABLES

Burglars Ransacked Albert Street Home and Went Away With Two Bottles.

Burglars are still at work in the city. Last week and the week before, a number of down-town stores were burglarized, and now it would appear as if the burglars are paying attention to the residential district.

It was learned on Thursday morning that a house on Albert street was entered by burglars. The house was ransacked, but all that was taken, so it is reported, was two bottles of liquor. Evidently the thief or thieves were thirsty and were minus the necessary prescription and the wherewithal to cash it.

The house was given a thorough search, while members of the family were absent, and a lot of valuable articles were overlooked. The two bottles of liquor appealed to the prowlers.

Superintendent of Education For Newfoundland Here

Rev. L. Curtis, M.A., D.D., superintendent of education in Newfoundland, is in the city, the guest of his brother, Rev. J. K. Curtis, of Princess street church. Dr. Curtis is on his way home having been attending the General Board of Education in Toronto, and later to Winnipeg to secure Mr. Patton, formerly principal of the Manchester Grammar School, England, to take charge of the new college in St. Johns, Newfoundland.

ST. GEORGE'S DAY.

The Local Englishmen Will Hold Banquet at Belmont.

This is St. George's day when all good Englishmen gather to cut off the dragon's tail. They say they are more fortunate in their gastronomic celebrations than the Scotch, who are compelled to swallow haggis to the sound of the bagpipes. "The roast beef of Old England" sounds much more inviting to the civilized palate, just as the trousers are a more civilized costume than the kilts.

The local followers of St. George are gathering to do honor to the dragon-slayer in the Belmont tonight and will make the most of the occasion.

Tea and Sale.
