NAVY LEAGUE EVENT
IN GRANT HALL, 29TH

Will consist of Theatricals, Music and Living Pictures—For a Worthy Cause.

The event being arranged by a number of ladies and gentlemen interested in the Navy League of Canada (Kingston Branch), which is to be held in Grant Hall on the evening of Wednesday, April 29th, is an assured pleasure for all who will attend. The programme will consist of theatricals, music and living pictures. The public is promised an evening of excellent entertainment, and the proceeds will be devoted to the local work of Navy League—the training of the lads of the Sea Cadet Corps in everything that pertains to good Canadianism.

The event will be under the patronage of the G.O.C. Military District No. 3, the principal of Queen's university, the commandant of the Royal Military College, the grand knight, Frontenac Council of the Knights of Columbus, and of the presidents of the Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs.

The band of the Sea Cadet Corps will open the programme. Their selections will be followed by the presentation of two plays, "The Pros and Cons" by Gertrude Jennings and "The Workhouse Ward" by Lady Gregory. Those who will appear in the castes will be Mrs. James Miller, Mrs. Skinner, Mrs. J. L. Jerome, Dr. F. G. C. Campbell, Dr. L. J. Austin, Prof. R. K. Hicks and Dr. J. L. McKee. The music programme has been arranged by Dr. Thomas Gibson, who will play two piano solos. Miss Anna Mitchell and Capt. S. A. Lee have consented to sing.

The tableaux vivants will be as follows:
Wedgwood group—Misses K. Birmingham, Edith Carruthers and Doris McKay; "The Blue Boy" (Gainsborough), Miss Mary Hora; "The Duchess of Devonshire" (Gainsborough), Mrs. Hallway Waddell; "The Broken Pitcher" (Greuze), Miss Allison Macdonell; "Carmencita" (Sargent), Miss Nevada Best; "An Infanta of Spain" (Velasquez), Miss Aline Rutherford; "Dresden China Figure," Mrs. Alderson; "Vogue Cover," Mrs. S. A. Lee; "King Alfred, Founder of the Fleet," Major E. M. Cartmer (and boys of the Sea Cadet Corps).
Tableaux direction and scenery by Mrs. L. F. Goodwin and Miss Birmingham.

The French doll in "Pros and Cons" has been kindly loaned by McGill's and the silk velvet in "Vogue" by Laidlaw's.
The price of admission, 75c and 50c, is very moderate for a programme of such artistic value. They are on sale at Uglow's, and it is hoped that Grant Hall will be filled to overflowing.

"Strong Moth Camphor," Gibson's. Lace fans with lovely amber or carved ivory sticks are a pleasant change from the more common plumed variety.

Eat and enjoy the Prince's Chocolates—every piece a surprise—60c the pound. Crothers.

The berries you buy in boxes will keep better if you spread them out on some fat dish.

"Strong Moth Camphor," Gibson's. To keep steel from rusting cover with sweet oil or mutton tallow and wrap in soft paper.

Eat and enjoy the Prince's Chocolates—every piece a surprise—60c the pound. Crothers.

"Yardleys Kingston agent," Gibson's.

A hat should be brushed after each wearing if you want to keep it in good condition.

"Strong Flake Camphor," Gibson's. A clock that keeps accurate time is a necessity in the kitchen.

Late John F. McGarvey.
After an illness extending over ten days, the death occurred on Thursday morning of John F. McGarvey, aged eighty-six years, of Mount Chesney. The deceased, who had been a farmer all his life, had lived in the Mount Chesney district, where he was well known. He is survived by his widow and four sons: William and Fred, on the homestead; George, also of Mount Chesney, and James of Kingston. The funeral will take place on Saturday morning to the Church of the Holy Name, Cusheadall, where a solemn requiem mass will be sung.
