

NOW SHOWING

Britain's Queen of Happiness Betty Balfour

SQUIBS HONEYMOON

TOGETHER WITH The Spat Family IN The Lost Dog

S-T-R-A-N-D NOW SHOWING

THE BRIDGE OF SIGHS With DOROTHY MacKAILL

LIBERAL WARD MEETINGS

Liberals of Cataract and Frontenac Wards will hold re-organization meetings in

The Whig Building on Friday, April 24th, at 8 p.m.

Ward representatives on the Executive Committee will be elected. All Liberals are invited to attend. WM. HARTY, Jr., President.

Auction Sale

Saturday, 1 p.m. and 7.30, No. 150 Sydenham Street (near Princess).

Large stock of Sheet Music, Stationery and confectionery, fixtures, 3 silent salesmen, 2 counter cases, one 8 foot, one 4 feet; small and large tables, 8 chairs, refrigerator, sewing machine, tools, host of small novelties.

Private Sale of Valuable Household Furniture at 275 Alfred Street, Monday, April 27th, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. only.

Administrator's Sale

There will be offered for sale on Wednesday, the 25th day of April, 1925, at 12 o'clock noon, by T. J. Munroe, Auctioneer, at 388 Barrie street, Kingston, the following property:

CHECKER Taxicabs Phone 800 ANY PLACE IN CITY 25c DAY OR NIGHT BY THE HOUR $2.00

If negotiations go through it will mean that the new Whitney block in Toronto will be one of stone. This will entail an additional expenditure of $185,000. The workmen employed on the new building will be all Canadians.

AMUSEMENTS

What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

"SQUIBS" FINALLY MARRIED. It is some time since Squibs was born into the film world to become immediately a favorite with the public.

No picture produced by George Pearson needs a recommendation, neither is it necessary to talk of the popular appeal of a "Squibs" picture, which is already established. It remains only to say that in "Squibs' Honeymoon," which opened to a large house at the Capitol theatre last night, Mr. Pearson has given us a film which is a complete entertainment in itself.

DOROTHY MACKAILL

Laughter and tears; ecstasy and despair; innocence and crime lay their dark impress on Creighton Hale and Dorothy Mackaill, as they start their trek on the bridge of life, gay with youth, vibrant with hope, laden with dreams of love and glory, which turn to dolorous prayers and bitter struggles against sorrow and injustice.

AT THE STRAND

Parrott's Bay, April 23.—The recent snow storm reminds us that winter is still in our midst. Mrs. A. Caton, Napanee, is visiting at her uncle's, George Fleming's, Miss Bernice Miller, North Bay Normal school, spent her Easter holidays at her home here.

PARROTT'S BAY NOTES.

People Entertained For Their Easter Visitors. Parrott's Bay, April 23.—The recent snow storm reminds us that winter is still in our midst. Mrs. A. Caton, Napanee, is visiting at her uncle's, George Fleming's, Miss Bernice Miller, North Bay Normal school, spent her Easter holidays at her home here.

"Take prescriptions," to Gibson's. Aemilius Jarvis and his family will reside on their farm near Aurora.

"Fresh Huylers," Gibson's. Every right-thinking man will try and make goodness contagious.

HEARD ON THE STREET

Local Briefs Gathered by Reporters—What the Merchants Are Offering.

"Coty face power," Gibson's. Newman & Shaw for Window Blinds.

Mr. Swains, piano tuner. Orders received at 109 Clergy street west, phone 554w.

The last day of April will see the finish of the 20c. Oranges for this season at Carnovsky's.

To-night, "The Rajah of Rajah-pore," at St. Luke's Hall, Nelson St., 25c. Full orchestra.

Fire Chief James Armstrong has been elected to the executive committee of the Fire Prevention council of Canada.

Clear-up Auction Sale at Jenkins' Saturday afternoon and night. Murray, Auctioneer.

Mrs. Kenneth V. Bishop and her two children, Clayton, N.Y., are in Kingston to see Mrs. Bishop's brother, Gordon Collins, who is seriously ill at his home at 34 Ellis street.

Gold Dollar Silk Hose sold only by Newman & Shaw.

A meeting of the civic playgrounds committee was called for this afternoon, to make arrangements for the playgrounds for this summer and to deal with other important business.

The post boxes of the city are to receive a coat of paint. Postmaster Stewart's recommendation to that effect having been agreed to by the authorities at Ottawa.

Clear-up Auction Sale at Jenkins' Saturday afternoon and night. Murray, Auctioneer.

The new concrete mixer, recently purchased by the city council, for the engineer's department, has been set up at the civic plant, and will be ready for business just as soon as the work of paving can be commenced.

WILTON SCHOOL REOPENED.

The Easter Cantata Cut Out by Sunday's Storm.

Wilton West, April 21.—School has reopened after the Easter holidays under the management of Miss Thoms, who has returned from her home at Cobourg. Misses Ida and Nellie MacPherson spent Friday as the guests of Miss Hazel Frink.

All are sorry to hear that Mrs. Gilbert Wood is confined to her bed with rheumatism. Mr. and Mrs. Torrance Babcock and Mr. and Mrs. John Frink spent Wednesday at Robert Frink's, Bay View. Archie Card, Yarker, was in the neighborhood dressing clover, one day last week.

A number on this street attended the sale at Yarker Tuesday last. Mr. and Mrs. James Cummings took tea at Torrance Babcock's Monday last. Miss Beatrice Forsythe has returned to O.C.C. after spending the holidays with her parents.

SATURDAY AT JACKSON-METIVIER'S

47 FINE SPRING COATS

ORIGINALLY INTENDED TO SELL FOR $25.00

$16.95

ALL OF THEM NEW ARRIVALS

Donegal, Mannish Form, Some Braid Bound with new Sleeves, new Lapels—Tailored and Wrap Models

Coming in the brightest, most attractive Spring colors. Green, Gold, Rust and Cocoa—all fully lined—these Coats make an array that will delight every woman who sees them! Come down to-morrow—the earlier the better—for the very best selection. Sizes from 34 to 42.

CHECK GINGHAM House Dresses at $1.95

MANNISH FORM Suits, $14.95

MANNISH FORM Coats $12.95

TO-MORROW—A SENSATIONAL SALE OF SPRING DRESSES

$9.95 $12.95

Values to $19.75. Values to $25.00

We have seldom been able to offer such a complete collection of the newest and most fashionable dresses at a price as low as $9.95.

If you value saving take our advice: "BE EARLY!"

JACKSON-METIVIER LIMITED 114 PRINCESS STREET

SPORT

Goodfriend Goes To Buffalo. Goodfriend, the Wolfe Island baseball pitcher, has gone to Buffalo.

Must Come To It. The Toronto Mail and Empire says: "Of course the cry around Varsity is that they want no professional coaches, but with the athletic directorate depending on the revenue from rugby to finance all the other sports in the University, the time has come when the blue and white will have to smother their pride and fall in line with Queen's and McGill."

St. Lawrence League. After a week of quietness, things have come to a head in the development of the St. Lawrence baseball league.

Reached Fifth Round in All-England Golf Tourney. Hoylake, England, April 24.—A strong southwest wind, turning to rain, hampered the golfers in the fourth round of the all-England amateur championships this afternoon.

Other third round results: H. L. Holden beat E. A. Lassen, a former champion, 3 and 1; fourth round: Holden beat D. Quinn at the first hole; Hardman beat F. P. Crowther, 2 up; T. Ellison beat R. De Montmorency, 3 and 2; I. Sidebottom beat E. Noel Layton, 3 and 2.

BOWLING

Kingston Ladies' Teams Defeated by the Belleville Bowlers. Wednesday evening the Champlains and Steacy's Ltd. ladies' teams of the Frontenac Bowling and Recreation Academy motored to Belleville for their return match with the Belleville ladies' team.

Belleville No. 1—Miss Sayer, 488; Miss Doyle, 470; Mrs. Lee, 460; Miss Blain, 443; Miss Young, 351. Total, 2242.

Champlains—Miss Burke, 401; Miss Driscoll, 311; Miss Sullivan, 352; Miss Tetro, 332; Miss Allen, 478. Total, 1874.

Belleville No. 2—Miss Goyer, 450; Miss Salisbury, 466; Miss Ethier, 422; Miss Gorman, 361; Miss Whalen, 490. Total, 2189.

Stacy's Ltd.—Miss Reid, 427; Miss O'Connor, 334; Miss Purvis, 480; Miss Gartland, 260; Miss Purvis, 442. Total, 1953.

TOLLEL ADVANCED.

Reached Fifth Round in All-England Golf Tourney. Hoylake, England, April 24.—A strong southwest wind, turning to rain, hampered the golfers in the fourth round of the all-England amateur championships this afternoon.

Other third round results: H. L. Holden beat E. A. Lassen, a former champion, 3 and 1; fourth round: Holden beat D. Quinn at the first hole; Hardman beat F. P. Crowther, 2 up; T. Ellison beat R. De Montmorency, 3 and 2; I. Sidebottom beat E. Noel Layton, 3 and 2.

Wants to See 100. Kalamazoo, Mich., April 24.—J. Corbett, former heavyweight boxing champion of the world, is training just as hard to live to be 100 years old as he did to lick John L. Sullivan, back in 1892, he declared to-day. Corbett admitted that he has only forty-one years to go to reach his objective, as he will be 59 years old next September.

than twenty-four candidates for the team turned out for practice in spite of the cold weather, and a brisk two-hour workout was held.

Christy Matheson Recovered. Christy Matheson, who years ago was the star pitcher of the New York Giants, and now part owner of the Boston Braves, has just recovered at his home in Saranac Lake, N.Y., from a severe bronchial cold.

Paris, April 24.—After having announced that he would leave soon for Buenos Aires, Luis Angel Firpo, the Argentine boxer, late to-day signed articles to meet Paolino, Spanish heavyweight boxer, at Bilbao, Spain, early in September.

Pagant Was Repeated. On Thursday evening there was a good attendance in the Sunday school hall of Sydenham street Methodist church when the pagant was repeated by the children.

The death of Henry M. Cockfield, well known in Montreal business circles, occurred suddenly on Park avenue, near the corner of Laurier avenue, as he was walking on the street shortly before six o'clock Thursday evening.

Always Wear Prison Garb. In speaking of Heintzman's appearance in Toronto court dressed in the penitentiary garb, plain dark blue suit, devoid of any "number," or the significant "K," the Toronto Telegram says it was "the first time that a prisoner has appeared in the police court wearing his prison garb, such prisoners in the past being privileged to come to town in civilian clothes."

Sentence Was Reserved. Walter Heintzman, a convict in the penitentiary, was in court in Toronto on nine charges of forgery and false pretences. He pleaded guilty. He is now serving four years and six months for similar offences. Previous to his last crime he was on parole. Sentence was reserved.

"Huylers Week End," Gibson's.

SEVENTEEN MEN ARE TRAPPED IN MINE

Which is Reported Full of Poisonous Gases and Practically Impenetrable.

Wallace, Idaho, April 24.—Seventeen miners were trapped at a two thousand feet level in the Hecla Mine last night and hope was given up this morning of rescuing them.

Rescue crews from adjoining mines brought up three men alive from one thousand foot level, but say the line below that level is full of poisonous gases and practically impenetrable.

ARRESTED IN MONTREAL

For Securing Money Under False Pretences in Kingston. At the request of the Kingston police, a man giving the name of William McDonald, was placed under arrest at Montreal. He is charged by Elmer Davis, with securing money under false pretences.

Always Wear Prison Garb. In speaking of Heintzman's appearance in Toronto court dressed in the penitentiary garb, plain dark blue suit, devoid of any "number," or the significant "K," the Toronto Telegram says it was "the first time that a prisoner has appeared in the police court wearing his prison garb, such prisoners in the past being privileged to come to town in civilian clothes."

Sentence Was Reserved. Walter Heintzman, a convict in the penitentiary, was in court in Toronto on nine charges of forgery and false pretences. He pleaded guilty. He is now serving four years and six months for similar offences. Previous to his last crime he was on parole. Sentence was reserved.

"Huylers Week End," Gibson's.

WINS MODEL WIFE Frederick Cameron Church, former Harvard football star, has won for himself the model girl of American society. For Miss Muriel Vanderbilt, one of the richest young women in America, to whom his engagement has been announced, does not either smoke or drink, as is the common practice of her set.