PLACES 75 STUDENTS IN SUMMER POSITIONS

A Number of Queen's Men
Will Cross to England in a Cattle Boat.

The employment bureau which is run at Queen's University in connection with the technical supplies store by Mr. J. S. McDonell is not having as good success this year in placing men as was the case last year. Very strenuous efforts are made to persuade large and small corporations to engage students for the summer, and Queen's graduates, who have risen to important positions, are very generous in finding jobs for the undergrads. But this year the companies are economising severely on their labor programme as well as in every other possible manner. As a result Mr. McDonell expects to place only about seventy-five students in summer positions.

He has been taking the names of students who wish to go across to England on cattle boats. This year the cattle trip is not as popular as last, but several are going, including a well-known professor. The young men are taking a large hamper of food with them so as to be independent of the ship's commissariat, which is not always equal to the high standards set by the Kingston boarding-house keepers. After working their way across, the students may stay in England, up to three months, and are supplied with free return tickets.

COSTUME RECITAL BY MISS MACLEOD

Given in St. Andrew's Hall
Under Auspices of Young
Woman's Auxiliary.

The audience that filled St. Andrew's hall on Thursday evening thoroughly enjoyed the costume recital given by Miss Muriel MacLeod under the auspices of the Young Woman's Auxiliary of the church. Miss MacLeod is entirely charming in the songs she sings in costume, and her grace and lightness added to her sweet flexible voice make these original numbers most delightful. As a fairy, in a fluffy white frock and a silver star on her forehead, she sang the group of fairy songs beginning with "Ho, Mr. Piper" and ending with the favorite "There are Fairies at the Bottom of the Garden." Her next appearance was as a slim boy with an Eton suit and soft fair hair, who sang five attractive songs including "The Goblin Inside." "The Songs of the Flowers and Birds" was the third group and she appeared in a green silk frock simulating the stem and leaves of the flowers she represented. Her singing of "The Cuckoo" was really exquisite and all the numbers were much enjoyed.

An "A Wee Lassie" in the fourth group of songs, Miss MacLeod was a pretty little girl in a gingham frock with a big bow in her hair, who told the story of a "Little Yellow Duster" and of the lovely frocks the older sisters had made by "Miss Marjorie" the family seamstress, while she, the youngest, had only her sister's frocks "made over."

Miss Jean Douglas played two violin numbers, "Nocturne" (Bridley-Richards) and "Saraband" (Bohme) very skillfully, and Mr. Ernest Hess sang "Yearnings" (Rubinstein) and "On the Wings of Song" (Mendelssohn) in the expressive baritone which has become such a favorite in Kingston and was recalled to sing a gay little French song. Mrs. A. R. B. Williamson accompanied Miss MacLeod and Mr. Hess. Dr. Thomas was heard with pleasure in two beautifully executed piano numbers. The National Anthem closed an exceedingly good programme.

A Surprise Party.

Mr. George Flint gave a surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Irwin, 259 Earl street, on Thursday evening. There were eight tables of progressive euchre in play. Mr. and Mrs. Newton won the first prize, while Mrs. Wright and Mr. George Henderson carried off the consolation prize. Luncheon was served at eleven o'clock and dancing was enjoyed till an early hour.

Be a "Prince" and buy your Queen a box of the Prince's Chocolates, 60c the pound. Crothers. To-night, "The Rajah of Rajahpore," at St. Luke's Hall, Nelson St. 25c. Full orchestra.

Both bees and wasps originally came from the same parent.

"Willow Dale Bricks," Gibson's. France's national flower is the fleur-de-lis.

"Coty perfumes," Gibson's. The first diphtheria anti-toxin was made in 1894.

"Huylers Week End," Gibson's.

DAILY MEMORANDUM. Prof. Tomlinson, Guelph Agricultural College, will give an illustrated lecture on landscape gardening in Convocation Hall, Friday evening, April 24th, 8.15. All welcome.
