MAYOR ANGROVE HAS INTERESTING VISITOR

Seventy-seven Year Old "Hiker" On Last Leg of 16,000 Mile Tramp.

Mayor Thomas B. Angrove had an interesting visitor on Tuesday, in the person of Mr. W. H. Chapman, of Milwaukee, Wis., who left that city on July 10th, 1923, on a wager of $5,000 that he would complete a trip on foot through western Canada to Victoria, B.C., south along the Pacific coast to California and through to Mexico, Florida and the southeastern States to Canada, again, on through Quebec, Ontario and Michigan to his home.

The trip involves travelling 16,000 miles, and Mr. Chapman, who is seventy-seven years of age, is standing the trip very well.

"Several other fellows started out on this hike," he told Mayor Angrove, "but they dropped out of the contest."

The long distance "hiker" carried documents which he had Mayor Angrove sign. He has completed about 15,000 miles and has an interesting collection of communications from governors and officials of the various states and provinces through which he has passed.
