GANANOQUE HONORS DR. C. M'CULLOUGH

One of its Former Sons Who Gives an Address at a Banquet.

Gananoque, May 11 .- A banque was given at the Brophy House on Saturday evening in honor of Dr. Crawford McCullough, Fort William. son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCullough, who is spending the week-end here with his parents. Though Satone for gatherings of this kind on this occasion a larger attendance than anticipated turned out to honor to the occasion. In addressing the assemblage, Dr. McCullough said all Canadians should make their keynote one of optimism, and confidence in this great land of ours to do the impossible. Past records had born out its ability to do that since the days of Confederation, which in itself was flouted as something but visionary, and this was further proved in the big achievements such as the building of the great C. P. R. system, the harvesting and marketing of our mammoth grain production etc. Dr. McCullough is a very fluent and pleasing speaker and this meeting of the Canadian Club goes down in the annals as one of the most delightful since organization. The banquet in itself was prepared in Mrs. Shiels' excellent style, with a little extra effort out of deference to the distinguished guest of henor.

Captain Newbold Jones, Montreal, is spending the week-end here with his brother, D. Ford Jones. Mr. and Mrs. David Wing, Toronto, arrived in town on Saturday and will spend the next couple of weeks at the Wing cottage on Cut Island. Mr. and Mrs. George Gibson and little Ann spent the week-end in Brockville, guests of the former mother and Dr. W. Gibson. Mrs. James McMillan and baby motored home to Ottawa yesterday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Frank Dutz and Miss Jean who will spend a few days there.

PARADE

To Take Place in Napanee Sunday-Service at the County Memorial.

Napanee, May 11 .- Mothers' Day was appropriately celebrated here yesterday in the homes and churches in town. Large congregations filled the churches, which were beautifully decorated with flowers. Special music suitable for the occasion was rendered; and sermons preached with the sacred word "mother' for the principal theme.

Cadet W. D. Daly, accompanied by Cadet Wishart, spent Sunday in town with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Daly, Bridge street. Saturday was "Tag Day" here for the benefit of the Salvation Army. The funds of that useful institution were largely augmented as a result. The annual inspection of the Collegiate Institute Cadets was held on the campus Friday afternoon. The boys looked well and fit and made a good showing. The inspecting officer was Captain V. W. S. Heron. Mrs. Daly of Harriston is visiting ner daughter Mrs. E. J. Corkill. Amongst those who won the B.A. degree at Queen's University are Miss Vera Balance, Miss Marjorie Trumpour, and Miss Helen Loyst. Mrs. Coleen Stewart, Toronto. spending a few weeks in town with her mother, Mrs. J. R. Dafoe. A military church service will be held on Sunday 17th instant, at 10.30 a.m. at the Church of Mary Magdaline. Frontenac Regiment, led by Argyle Light Infantry Kiltie band. brass band and bugle band will parade for divine service, and will march from the armouries to the church. After church service parade will go to the county memorial where the Kiltie band will play the "Lament," then the brass band will play the "Dead March in Saul." "The Last Post" will be sounded by Bugler Brett. Prayer will be made by the regimental chaplain, Canon J. W.

Henry Leek, whose farm premises are in that section of Admaston township reached from Renfrew via Pucker street and whose home is about two and a half miles from Renfrew. lost his fine brick residence by fire. Mr. and Mrs. William Huddleston, Smith's Falls, received the sad news of the death of their daughter, Mrs. Frank Williams, which occurred in Groston, Conn. Arnprior \lawn-tennis club has chosen W. B. Craig for the presidency and W. G. Henderson is secretary-treasurer. Grace Methodist church, Gananoque, increased its missionary givings during the past year by $300.

Why your outbursts of temper? The chances are your nerves are taut and straining. "Never felt better in my life!" you say. But if you are tired at the beginning of the day as well as the end of it - irritable, exacting, pessimistic-your nerves are fagged. Stop drinking tea and coffee - artificial stimulants which slowly and surely set your nerves on edge and destroy your reserve strength. Tannin and caffeine contained in tea and coffee are harmful. With you these agents may work fast or slow. But their poisonous effects are certain, sure!

Drink Instant Postum. You will feel its beneficial effect as it displaces these harmful poisons. Instantly made in the cup at a cost of about half-acent, this steaming, fragrant beverage will aid digestion, induce restful sleep, quiet frayed nerves. Instant Postum brings better health to your whole family. Then there's Postum Cereal, made by boiling or percolating twenty minutes, if you prefer it. Get Postum at your club, restaurant or on the train. Read Carrie Blanchard's wonderful free offer. Then mail the coupon today.
