INSTALLING LIGHTS ON PICTON STREETS

The William Davies Company
Planning to Establish Pickle
Curing Factory in Picton.

Picton, May 18.—New lights are being installed on Main street from Talbot street down to the agricultural grounds and down Bridge street to the brass works. Each will carry a 250-candle power light so that it is expected that the new system will be a great improvement on the old lights. The job will be completed by May 24th.

The funeral of the late John Burns, whose death occurred at his home on Bowery street, on Thursday, was held Saturday afternoon at St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, of which Mr. Burns was a member. Deceased was twice married and is survived by his second wife. He also leaves two sons, one living in Prince Edward county, and an elder son, Herbert, of Vancouver, B.C.
Miss Tuite of Albert College came over on Friday with the Albert College Glee Club under the auspices of the young people's societies of the church. Miss Tuite is remaining over the week-end a guest with Mr. and Mrs. Ewart Jones.

Quite a large representation from the W.M.S. of the United church journeyed on Friday to Cherry Valley to attend the district convention of that organization. A very inspiring programme was listened to and at the morning session encouraging reports were heard from all the various fields. Miss Paul, returned missionary of Newburgh, gave a very helpful talk at the afternoon session. Dinner was served in the dining room of the church by the Cherry Valley auxiliary to about three hundred. Those from Picton who had a place on the programme were Mrs. (Rev.) J. J. Mellor, Mrs. Laird and Mrs. Ewart Jones.
Miss Dorothy Powers (nurse on the S.S. Montrose) came up from Montreal to spend a few days with her mother and sister at her home.

DESERONTO PERSONALS.

Watch and Jewellery Repairer Comes From Saskatchewan.
Deseronto, May 18.—Alley Stewart, Fred Bich and Kenneth Hall enjoyed a week-end tour in Mr. Stewart's motor launch.
Mrs. A. Rixen went to Toronto for the week-end. Mr. Fred Vanallen, Rochester, N.Y., is visiting his father at Green Point, and was in town today renewing old acquaintances.
Bill Bruyee of Detroit, Mich., is visiting his aunt, Thomas Whalen of Osoosa, Mich., is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Swenor.
Thomas Swenor loaded his wagon house and left to-day to work for Mr. Harvey on the highway between Trenton and Belleville. Sid Hearnese is working for the town this week at the pumping station, taking out a machine.
A. E. Tunncliffe, Saskatchewan, has taken up watch and jewellery business in the old Hudson stand across from the tannard bank.
Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Spencer and daughter and son and Miss Carl, all of Kingston, were in town Saturday visiting Mrs. John Spencer, Brant street.
Milton Sharpe has secured a job in Napanee driving a truck for Daly's Tea Company.
Keith Irvin, Unger's Island, had a farewell party Friday evening for her brother Bob, who is leaving for Port Colborne, where he has secured a position.
Chief Bowen has secured a new Oldsmobile and is building a new garage for it on his premises on Forth street. Mrs. G. Hoppings is in Belleville visiting her daughter, Mrs. H. Clarke.

Carried Off a Prize.
At the recent musical festival in Winnipeg, the Port Arthur ladies carried off the second prize. Mrs. H. W. Alrth, sister of Mrs. Charles Anglin, was one of the singers. The Manitoba Free Press says: "This trio gave one of the most beautiful performances they had heard. They were at a loss to know how they were going to deduct any marks at all. The members sang with just the right charming expressions and they displayed quite a wonderful technique."

The death took place at Kirkcaldy, Alta., on May 6th, of Eliza Mallory, widow of John Hughes Mallory, formerly of Mallorytown, Ont., aged seventy-six years. Burial in Winnipeg.
