ALLAN M. REID SHOE STORE

NEWSPAPER FUN

By Maxson Foxhall Judell

Peevish Customer: "Those tires you sold me ain't worth the powder to blow them up."

Second-hand Dealer: "Who told you to use powder?"

"Is Mrs. Clarkson a good bridge player?"

"She has to be. Her husband doesn't give her a cent of spending money."

Mistaken Identity. Three-year-old John was playing with his railroad train.

His aunt, passing through the room, reached out her arm to catch him and give him a kiss.

John protested. "Don't kiss me, auntie. I'm the engineer!"

COMMENCEMENT DREAMS. (Interpreted by Dr. I. C. Itt.)

Beth: You dreamed you were sent on a dangerous mission? It means that you'd better pay up tuition.

Loeb: You dreamed that your right arm felt tingling and funny? It means it's no use to write home for more money!

Rude: So you dreamed someone gave you a baby to hold? The Dean didn't fall for that story you told!

Arthur: So you dreamed you were kissed by the wife of a Prof? Don't worry about it; you'll soon be a Soph!

As the Pedestrian Imagines It. Mrs. Powers: "Wallace, you just barely missed that man!"

Powers: "Well, I'm in too much of a hurry to try again."

The Difference. "When I was a youngster," remarked Uncle Ike, "a dollar would buy just about twice as much as it will now, but then again, a dollar was about four times as hard to get as it is now."

Motives. Priscilla: "George must be a great lover of music when he says he'd rather stay home with you and hear you play."

Elizabeth: "I guess it's because he's rather close and doesn't want to spend any money taking me out."

A Mistake Somewhere. Hoover: "History tells us that criminals used to be tortured in the old days by having the skin removed from their faces."

Grant: "Why, I thought safety razors were only invented recently."

More Fun. "How do you like punching a time clock every day?"

"I don't like it at all. I'd much rather punch the man who invented the darn thing."

A DISLIKE FOR FOOD

Every healthy man and woman should have a natural desire for food at meal times. This means that the digestion is in working order and that the blood is in good condition.

All these symptoms of a disordered digestion mean that the blood is not absorbing proper nourishment from the food, for the work of the blood is to collect proper nourishment from food and impart it to the system.

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
