 What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

DUMB BELLS ARE COMING WITH BRAND NEW PLAY
 Will Be at Grand in "Oh, Yes," Next Friday and Saturday.

When Capt. Plunkett and his ever-welcome "Dumbbells" come to the Grand Opera House for two nights and a Saturday matinee, commencing Friday, June 12th, they will offer an entirely new and highly diverting revenue entitled, "Oh, Yes!"

The same splendid cast, chorus and orchestra that made "Ace High" the best liked of the entire series of "Dumbbells" revues up to that time, have elapsed their previous efforts and achievements by making "Oh, Yes!" an even better entertainment than "Ace High."

Probably one of the biggest factors that has made for the success of this new revue is that it is timely. "Oh, Yes!" is a spring-time attraction. The songs, the playlets, the action, the scenery, the costumes—everything pertaining to the performance, has been written, composed, built, painted and produced, and is being sung, danced and played with youth, laughter, love and romance, as embodied in the spirit of Maytime, as the keynote.

Another innovation to be found in "Oh, Yes!" is the increased number of short scenes and playlets. There are just as many song numbers as ever, but they have been more closely woven into the fabric of the action itself. For instance, there is a delightful little scene between Stan Bennett and "Jock" Holand. A clever little thing called, "Scene and Heard in the Dark," with the entrance of a London "tube" as its setting. During the action of this sketch, Holland sings "Take No Notice," Bennett sings "Never As Long As I Live," and they wind up the act with "The Stille at the End of the Land."

The two principal sketches, "A Home from Home" and "Red Justice" each have their song hits, while "The Midnight Cabaret" scene introduces an all-star sextette in "Goo-Goo," Ross Hamilton in "The Sunrise and You," and a jazzy dance number by Glen Allan.

Of the outstanding individual song hits, Al Plunkett's songs "My Mother's Lullaby" and "Do Shrimps Make Good Mothers;" Ross Hamilton sings "I Love Them All" and "Lips I Have Kissed." Stan Bennett offers "Colonel Lipstick of the Cold-cream Guards," and Pat Rafferty scores in "Lips That Touch Kippers Shall Never Touch Mine."

"Red" Newman has two dandy songs in "Keep the Money in the Country" and "How Does the Milk Get into Cocoanuts?"

"Oh, Yes!"—It's a great show. Don't miss it. Seats on sale Monday.

MARION DAVIES MAKES A HIT IN COMEDY

If one were to tell in detail the plot of "Zander the Great," which opened yesterday at the Capitol Theatre, half the enjoyment of future audiences would be spoiled, for the situations, incidents and climaxes, as well as the comedy and drama packed into this human interest screen offering, have the flavor and surprise qualities of an O. Henry story.

"Zander the Great," starring Marion Davies, proved a complete surprise to those who have grown accustomed to viewing Miss Davies in the elaborate period costumes of "Little Old New York."

In this picture, Miss Davies evolves from a little orphan girl in an asylum to a young woman of strong character, great beauty and charm of manner, but it is not on this slender thread that the picture is based. Rather it is upon the exciting incidents and unusual situations that arise from the fact that as Mamie, the lovable, whimsical heroine, Miss Davies finds herself the centre of a hotbed of plot, counter-plot, adventure and romance generally.

The drama whirls and vibrates around Mamie's adopted child. The comedy touches are supplied by such noted artists as Holbrook Blinn, Harry Myers, Richard Carle and Harry Watson, Jr., while the more serious and dignified incidents are enacted by Harrison Ford and Hobart Bosworth.

C.O.B.L. GAMES TO-DAY:

Kingston Plays at Peterboro and Belleville Visits Oshawa.
 The Kingston Central Ontario League ball club left on Saturday morning early for Peterboro, where they were to meet the Lift Look City representatives this afternoon in what was considered to be the crucial battle of the series to date. A win for Kingston would give clear sailing in the first half, while a victory for "Shiner" Johnston and his club would bring the Kingston and Peterboro up. It was expected that Gallagher would pitch for Kingston and Whitehouse for Peterboro. The biggest crowd of the season was expected out.

Oshawa were to be hosts to the Belleville team in the other C.O.B.L. engagement of the day. The Trunks have been losing right along, but they were confident that the end of their hard-luck streak had been reached and expected to pull out over Manager Reeves' boys to-day.

Napanee at Kingston.
 The Napanee ball club makes its first plunge into the St. Lawrence League on Monday evening in a game with the Kingston intermediates. It remains to be seen what sort of an entry the Napanee team will make, but the locals are confident of giving them a defeat as a starter. From all accounts the game will be a hard-fought affair and a big crowd is expected out for the contest.

Printers Meet Bankers.
 The Mercantile League will hold forth on Monday with the Bankers and Printers hooking up. The Printers made a wonderful start, but sagged down and the Bankers in the meantime worked in a great deal of good practice. Manager Kettle of the Bankers expects his team to win by at least ten runs, but he may be surprised.

Death of Edward G. Clark.
 The news reached here, on Saturday, of the death in Cleveland, Ohio, of Edward G. Clark, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clark, this city. Deceased had resided in Cleveland for over thirty years. His wife survives. She was formerly Miss Emma Bamford, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Bamford, of Kingston. Deceased is also survived by one brother, Hedley, Detroit, and two sisters, Mrs. (Rev.) James Elliott, Winnipeg, and Miss Marion Clark, at present visiting here. Deceased was a man of fine character and attainments and highly regarded both in Cleveland and in Kingston.

Settlement of Knowlton Case.
 As the result of an informal agreement arranged following the trial of the Knowlton will case, which was dismissed by Justice Ross at the Supreme Court this week, and of the visit of A. B. Cunningham, solicitor for Mrs. Knowlton, to Brockville on Thursday to confer with solicitors there, a complete settlement satisfactory to both parties has been arranged.

For Coking Plants.
 A communication from the department of mines at Ottawa, to the public utilities commission, states that legislation will be brought down during the present session regarding coking plants, but that it was not the intention of the government to establish or operate plants in any locality. Legislation in regard to the matter will be forthcoming shortly.

Kiwanis Carnival Contr. Is.
 The standing of "The Most Popular Girl Contest" when the Kiwanis performance closed Friday night showed Miss Butlin still in the lead.

The attendance prize Friday night was on by Harold Chown with the number 1157. The trophy included two handsome candlesticks and a fruit bowl.

The Family Market Basket
 Spring lamb sold for $4 for the hind quarters and $2.75 for the fore quarters on Saturday morning. Poultry was plentiful, fowl selling from $1 up to $1.50. Eggs brought from 25 to 30 cents for the best grade and butter sold at 35 and 38 cents. Spring vegetables of all kinds were displayed in profusion, and seedlings of vegetables and flowers were eagerly bought. The florists wagons made a gorgeous sight. One great tub of darwin tulips in deep red tones was surrounded with an admiring crowd, and lilac, purple and white, ferns from the woods and small trees were offered for sale at a reasonable price. The island market was filled with marketa and buyers, and here too were flowers in abundance and a fine display of poultry, eggs and vegetables.

CITY TO SECURE NEW INCINERATOR PLANT
 Present Property May Be Taken Over by Utilities Commission.

The city's incinerator plant will be sold and a new location secured for the plant.

The matter has been under consideration for some time. The present plant does not meet the demand made on it. All the debentures on the plant have been paid and the conditions are such as to warrant the undertaking of a new plant. The site for the new incinerator has not been decided on, but one report states that a site may be secured out Montreal street.

It is understood that a proposition will be made to the utilities commission to take over the present plant.

Presented Their Comedy.
 On Thursday evening, June 4th, in St. John's parish hall, Portsmouth, the St. James Church Dramatic Club presented its latest play, a comedy, entitled "Getting a Husband," before a very appreciative audience. The comedy is a very true and amusing picture of Canadian rural life a generation ago. Twenty persons took the various parts and sang the folk songs interspersed through the play. After the performance the St. John's church workers entertained the players from St. James at supper.

Work on Bleachers.
 Mr. Greenleaf, Belleville, who has been awarded the contract to erect the bleacher stands at the fair grounds for the baseball games, will start the work on June 16th. It is expected that the job will be completed in four or five days.

Mr. Greenleaf is making accommodation for a press box in the centre of the stand, and will also arrange for "dug-outs" for the players.

Condition The Same.
 The condition of Norine Buell of Gananoque, who was injured by falling a distance of eighteen feet and landing on her head, and who was brought to the Hotel Dieu Hospital, was reported on Saturday morning to be just about the same.
