THE FUN SHOP

NEWSPAPER FUN

By
Mason Foxhall Judell

He never went to chopping wood
Or splitting rocks, like many men,
But he proved he was pretty good
At making wise cracks now and then.

Progress.

Belle: "What has become of the old parlor sofa?"
Eugene: "They have put four wheels under it and call it a coupe now."

To Make Both Ends Meet.

Ring Master: "Where is Twister, the contortionist? It's time for his act."
Twister's Understudy: "I'm doubling for him today." —Gertrude.

A Fair Warning.

Mrs. Hesse: "Dearie, I've decided to have my face lifted."
Hesse: "You can do as you like, but you'd better not ask me for the 'jack'." —J. G. C.

A Lesson Learned.

"No," said Uncle Ike, "I ain't never tried to work one of these cross-word puzzles. Years ago, when the 'fifteen puzzle' was all the rage, I spent so much time on it that, another fellow stole my best girl before I knew what was goin' on. Since then, I ain't takin' any chances."

There's A Reason.

"Don't you ever go to the movies any more?"
"No; my girl has a new porch swing." —Frank M. Midkiff.

Safe.

Mother: "Don't throw yourself at that young man, Kittens."
Daughter: "Why, mother, you know he's a good catch."
—Mrs. H. G. Vogel.

Bottom Fell Out.

Duncan: "But I thought he let you in on that stock at the rock bottom price?"
Armstrong: "He did—and I've been on the rocks ever since." —D. G. F.

Greek To Joey.

George was 13 years old, and, according to the time-honored Hebrew custom, was celebrating his Confirmation or Bar Mitzvah party.
A guest at the reception asked his brother Joey, nine-year old: "When you get older, are you going to be Bar-Mitzvah?"
"Aw no," said Joey, "I'm goin' to be a civil engineer."
—Mrs. M. M. Rosner.

"Feeding the Kitty."

By the Poker Kitty Herself.
A Kitty's life is hard, indeed. . . . At least, the sort I mean.
The kind whom men sit up to feed,
Around a table green.
They always say: "We'll stop at ten."
That poker-playing crew,
Alas, they are deceitful men;
They never, never, do

II

"Come, feed the kitty," is their cry,
"Two white chips, or a red!"
And so, till dawn is in the sky,
I'm fed and fed. . . . and fed!
I've gotten so I dread the night,
Such awful hours I keep;
I may be long on food, all right,
But Gee! I'm short on sleep!

The Reason.

Dorothy: "Why doesn't Marjorie succeed as a music teacher?"
Jean: "She has no class."
—Albert Shuler.

Catty.

Louise: "You washed your hair yesterday, didn't you, dear?"
Lois: "Yes. How did you guess?"
Louise: "I thought I saw it out on the line."

MONDAY WILL BRING THE SPARKS' CIRCUS

Show Day Makes Appeal to Young and Old—Street Parade At 11 a.m.

After two weeks of eager anticipation, during which he has counted the days as they passed, the small boy will be in his glory Monday, for by the time the average household is gathered around the breakfast table, the white tops of Sparks' circus will have converted the fair grounds into a great and wonderful city of tents. But it is not alone the small boy who has been awaiting the arrival of circus day, for few ever outgrow their love for this form of amusement which has a fascination not many can resist. Today there are thousands of "circus fans" all over the country—and many of them have grandchildren. To many of these "fans," both young and old, there is an interest in every hour of circus day, and for their benefit the following schedule is given:

Sparks' Circus Day Programme.
6 a.m.—Sparks circus trains due to arrive from Ogdensburg.
8 a.m.—Breakfast served to the seven hundred circus employees.
11 a.m.—The elaborate street parade.

1 p.m.—Doors open for leisurely inspection of menagerie. Band concert by the Jack Phillips concert band 1 to 2 p.m.

3 p.m.—Afternoon performance with the Far East spectacle, "L'Orca, The Jungle Queen," with 300 human and animal participants.

6 p.m.—Concert of popular and classical music played on the world's largest steam piano, which can be heard for five miles without the use of radiophones.

7 p.m.—Doors opened to public. Inspection of menagerie. Band concert augmented by J. M. Del Vecchio, master air calliopiist of the world.

8 p.m.—Evening performance of the circus, complete in detail.
11 p.m.—Concerted night movement to circus trains.

12 p.m.—Departure of circus trains for Smith's Falls.
For the convenience of patrons a downtown ticket office will be established Monday at L. T. Best's drug store, where general admission and reserved seats may be had at the same price as at the ticket wagons on the circus grounds.

A VARIETY SHOWER

Was A Happy Event at Mrs. A. Sly's, Jones' Falls.

Jones' Falls, June 9.—The shower held at Mrs. A. Sly's for Ruth Anna Willis, was a great success. A very hot wave swept over this vicinity, but it was very much needed as it helped the farmers to finish their seeding and planting.

Jones' Falls was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Miss Ruth Anna Willis, and Bunnie Glover were united in holy matrimony on June 9th by Rev. Mr. Morton, Lyndhurst.

The government dredge is working here. Ford Moulton is preparing his hotel to receive the sports. Friends and neighbors are glad to know Mrs. L. Burtch is very much improved. Bunnie Glover is erecting a cottage. Mrs. J. Stewart and son, Morton, spent Sunday at A. B. Simpson's. Miss Anna Hutchings and little Gerald Dier have returned home from the hospital, after having an operation on their throats.

HEALTHY CHILDREN ARE HAPPY CHILDREN

The well child is always a happy child. It is a baby's nature to be happy and contented. Mothers, if your little ones are cross and peevish and cry a great deal they are not well—they are in need of a medicine—something that will set their bowels and stomach in order, for nine-tenths of all childhood ailments arise from a disordered state of the bowels and stomach. Such a medicine is Baby's Own Tablets. They are a mild but thorough laxative, which regulate the bowels, sweeten the stomach and thus drive out constipation and indigestion; banish colic; break up colds and simple fevers and make the baby healthy and happy. The Tablets are guaranteed to be absolutely free from opiates or other harmful drugs—they cannot possibly do harm—always good. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Dance Well Attended.

Fernleigh, June 9.—Quite a change has taken place in the weather during the past two weeks. It has been so hot people have been almost unable to stand it but everything is looking fine. Doing wood-work has been the order of the day. A number from around here and Ardoch attended the dance at George Salmond's, Friday night last, and all report a good time. Miss Oreta Schouner, accompanied by Miss Roxie Root, spent Sunday at her home in Ardoch. Mr. and Mrs. R. Martin and George Salmond spent Sunday at Slate Falls. Walter Vilneff and family spent the week-end at his home. The quilting bee at George Salmond's was a good success. C. Armstrong, C. and O. Filler at R. Bauer's, Sunday last.

Bridgeburg man named Vinehart disappeared after motoring his family to Hamilton.

GANANOQUE

June 13.—The contract for paving the streets was let to the Standard Paving Company on Thursday evening. It required several hours to decide between the merits of "Standardite" and "Amesite," the former finally winning out by a majority of one for the year. Work will start immediately, and will probably begin on King street west.

Mr. and Mrs. Wynne Stevens are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Stevens at the International.

The town clerk, and treasurer, James H. Sampson, is expected to arrive in Gananoque on Sunday next from England. The "Montroyal" was expected to dock at Quebec yesterday at 4 p.m. and it was Mr. Sampson's intention to remain over a day in Montreal.

The Merchants and Office men had another battle last night with the Battery team, the latter winning by a score of 23-16. The former team were short two of their stars, Barr and Money, which probably had some bearing on the result.

Napanee, June 13.—The Lennox and Addington county council has been in session this week. The amounts granted by the Provincial Education Department were, for public schools, $1,163.70 and separate schools, $19.64; total, $1,183.34. The council made a grant to the Ontario Department of Agriculture of $3.00 per school for eight-year schools taking part in school-air work.

The equalization of assessment was adopted at the same figures as last year.

A deputation from the I.O.G.E. appeared before the council, asking aid for the National Institute for the Blind. Referred to finance committee for consideration.

The education committee recommended the following payments to schools: Napanee Collegiate Institute, $12,720.51; Newburgh High School, $3,925.25; Odessa Continuation, $1,814.55; Stella Continuation, $2,034.45; Bath Continuation, $1,558.25; Tamworth Continuation, $2,324.03; Denbigh Continuation, $558.29. On motion county road engineer Anderson was requested to procure a number of road signs.

FLOWER THIEVES BUSY.

Family Plot in Joyceville Cemetery Stripped of Flowers.
Mean thefts have been reported from time to time but it is doubtful if a meaner one than that which took place near Joyceville can be equalled. A party of motorists were proceeding along the road and taking a liking for some flowers that were in the cemetery, stopped the car and one of the men got out and stripped a little family plot of every flower that had recently been placed thereon. The number of the car was secured and it is likely that more will be heard of the case.

Another theft of a similar nature also occurred recently when the whole side of the Joyceville school-house was stripped of all its plants and flowers. Unfortunately there is no trace to the person who did this trick.

Window Worth Seeing.
While passing up Princess street yesterday, the writer was very favorably impressed by a most attractive toilet goods window at Brant's Drug Store Limited. Perfumes, compacts and many other dainty toilet requisites were very tastefully arranged in a pleasing, colorful display.

Jacob Norman Yabover, aged twenty-one years, Picton, was found guilty at Belleville, of keeping a house for sale and, fined $150 and costs, besides a term of one month in jail. In default of payment the young man will do an extra three months.
