ARE YOU TORTURED WITH ECZEMA?

Eczema, or Salt Rheum, as it is commonly called, is one of the most agonizing of all skin diseases. The intense burning, itching and smarting, especially at night or when the parts are exposed to heat are almost unbearable and relief is greatly welcomed.
The most reliable and effective remedy for this trouble is

Burdock Blood Bitters
Mrs. J. R. Johnson, R. R. No. 1, Oshawa, Ont., writes:—"For years I was troubled with eczema, and had that terrible itching and burning sensation, and could find no relief for it. Finally, I was advised to use B.B.B. and after my second bottle I began to see a great difference, and I can now advise anyone troubled as I was to use this wonderful remedy."

RAIN CAME OPPORTUNELY.

The Strawberries Ripening—Were Drying on Vines.
Adolphustown, June 16.—The showers yesterday and last night were very welcome. If rain had not come the strawberry crop would have soon dried up as the berries are ripening rapidly.
The community was saddened on Thursday to learn of the death of Mrs. M. W. Clapp, at her home in Picton, after a lingering illness. Mrs. Clapp, who was Miss Kate Allen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Allen, was well known here, as she always resided in Adolphustown, until a few years ago when, with her husband, she moved to Picton. The funeral services, which were conducted by Rev. Mr. Mellor were held at her late residence on Saturday, followed by interment in the cemetery at the Methodist church, Adolphustown, and were attended by a large number of relatives and friends. The sympathy of all goes out to the five children who have lost a loving mother.
Among recent visitors were Mr. and Mrs. G. Mogg, Galt, at Russell Cousins'; Mrs. G. Foster and little daughters, also Miss Arbuckle, Ottawa, at F. E. Foster's; Mr. and Mrs. C. Pierce and family, Bongards, at W. J. Magee's; Alfred John Denbigh, at H. John's; A. R. Davis, Toronto, at George Davis.
We are glad to report that George Magee, was not as seriously injured as was reported at first and is progressing favorably. Mrs. James Bird is suffering with quinsy. Reeve Johnston is also on the sick list. The local telephone system is giving most unsatisfactory service. Mr. Perry needs to do some extensive repair work. Everyone is regretting the approaching removal of Rev. H. B. and Mrs. Neal to Wooler circuit. They have made a host of warm friends during the three years of their pastorate. They will be succeeded by Rev. Harold and Mrs. Stantton.
Rev Herbert and Mrs. Pringle leave to-day for a few months visit in England. A few admirers of Sir John A. MacDonald met on Hay Bay shore, on June 6th and erected a small board to mark the site of his home during a few of his boyhood years. Mrs. Robert Cousins will entertain the Ladies' Aid on Wednesday. The Women's Institute departmental speaker will address a meeting in the Methodist church on Thursday. Adolphustown is becoming a thriving business centre. Dr. Duffet has opened up his store with a full stock of general merchandise.

SETTLED AT BLACK RIVER.

A McLean Couple Moved to the United States.
McLean, June 15.—The rain is making the crops look fine. A few from here are attending the circus at Kingston. Visitors: Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Shortts and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Shortts, Mountain Grove; Mrs. Luke Godfrey and Delma and Bruce, Mt. Vale, spent Sunday forenoon at Russell Woods'. Mr. and Mrs. John Keller and family, Arden, and Mrs. Luke Godfrey and Delma and Bruce, Mt. Vale, spent Sunday afternoon at Wells Smith's. Melville Wagar, Long Lake, also Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Gail at Eddie Brown's, Sunday.
William Smith was visiting a few days at Moscow. Frank Smith and family motored to Moscow and William Smith came home with them. Mr. and Mrs. William Cousins left a couple weeks ago for the U.S. Word was received that they were at Black River near Dexter, where they have secured a house and Mr. Cousins is working in the paper mills. People miss them a great deal around here.
Mrs. Willis Asseltine is pretty well settled here with her father, Mr. Baycroft. They spent Sunday with Mrs. E. Snider, Fifth Lake.
Harlowe News.
Harlowe, June 15.—There are great prospects of a bumper crop this year; grain and hay are looking fine also gardens and potatoes. Mrs. W. Thompson, who put her ankle out of joint, is able to be around again. Mrs. J. Huffman and Mrs. T. Connor have returned home after spending a week at Verona.
Mr. and Mrs. W. Cadman, Holloway, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. White, on Sunday. J. Huffman is sporting a new car. Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott left here to-day for Huntville, to visit with Mrs. Scott's brother for a few weeks.
Toronto Jews asked to contribute $15,000 in aid of destitute orphans in Ukraine.

MARRIED AT PETERBOROUGH.

A Happy Event on June 1st—Known in Prince Edward.
A pretty wedding took place Monday, June 1st, at the residence of the bride's parents, 186 Hunter street east, Peterborough, when Lucille, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Ross, became the bride of William Duggan of Ivanhoe. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. Bamforth, pastor of Mark street Methodist church, in the presence of relatives and friends of the contracting parties.
The bride wore a pretty gown of mauve georgette, and carried roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Dorothy Dever, Picton, wore green georgette, and carried a bouquet of roses. Harry Lovibond, Ivanhoe, acted as best man. After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served to the bridal party and guests. Mr. and Mrs. Duggan leaving later for a brief honeymoon. They will reside in Peterborough. Warren's, Mrs. Earl Rohde and daughter, Betty Jean, returned to their home in Watertown, N.Y., after spending several weeks with relatives at Stone Road, Elgin and Westport.

Death of J. A. Whattam.
Cherry Valley, June 15.—James A. Whattam passed away at his home, on Royal street, on Friday, June 5th. Mr. Whattam had been falling in health for several months. Deceased was born in South Marysburgh and had spent his life there, being a prominent farmer in that township. His wife, Florence Palmatier, survives. Messrs. Henry Whattam and John Whattam, Picton, are brothers and Mrs. William Head, Picton, and Mrs. Ellen Astrander are sisters. Mr. Whattam was highly esteemed by his neighbors. There was a very large assemblage at his funeral on Monday. Rev. Mr. Barnes conducted the service. Interment was made in Cherry Valley cemetery.

Duffy-Mahon, Nuptials.
Crow Lake, June 10.—A very pleasant event took place, on June 3rd, when Daisy Belle, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Mahon, became the bride of John H. Duffy. The bridal party motored to Perth where they were married by the Rev. A. Wilkinson. The young couple were unattended. The bride was attired in navy tulle with sand blouse of althymre crepe and hat to match. A reception was given at the home of the bride's parents where many friends and acquaintances spent a very pleasant evening. The large collection of gifts, costly and well chosen testified to the esteem in which the young couple are held. Mr. and Mrs. Duffy will reside at Fall River where the groom is a prosperous young farmer.

Visitors at Bob's Lake
Bob's Lake, June 16.—William Shellington has engaged men to work on the road. Miss Hilda Dobney, Kingston, spent Sunday at her mother's.
