Monster Tuna Taken in Canadian Waters

As a writer of stirring tales of the Border and the mid-western states in the early days, Zane Grey has made an enviable record for himself, but now along he comes with another—a fish story—and better still, presents the proof in photograph, so that his yarn does not take on the semblance of a dream or a good bit of story-telling.

Tuna, weighing nearly half a ton, are the reward of ambitious anglers who fish in Nova Scotian waters, particularly in St. Ann's Bay, off Cape Breton. Three mammoth tunas have been taken from this locality, each holding the world's record in turn. Captain Lauris D. Mitchell's 710 pound tuna held a record for a number of years, till along came J. K. L. Ross of Montreal, well known as an owner of racing horses, director of the Canadian Pacific Railway and his skill as a fisherman. He landed a tuna after a 3 1/2 hours' fight, that measured 9 ft. and 2 in. in length, and 8 ft. in girth, and tipped the scales at 712 lbs. thus winning the honour of record tuna fishing from Captain Mitchell by 2 lbs.

His record seemed secure, when along in August, 1924, came Zane Grey and his brother, R. C. Grey, eager to catch big tuna. They used a Nova Scotian-built schooner, a staunch little craft admirably adapted to their plans and needs. They got three tunas, weighing respectively 638, 684, and then as a climax, the biggest tuna ever landed, weighing 758 pounds. Had they gone in for anything larger, it would have required a C. F. R. freight car to haul it to the cannery at St. Andrews. The time taken to land the first was 6 hours and 10 minutes, for the second, 38 min., which was caught by R. C. Grey, and 3 hours and 10 min. were spent to conquer the record breaker with which Zane Grey is said to have wrested the palm from the C.P.R. director and won the title of champion tuna fisherman.

Other big fish of various species taken in various Canadian waters, include a record pike caught in Big Lac Nominique in the Laurentians of Quebec, weighing 58 lbs.; a 38 1/2 lb. muskellunge caught in 1924 in French River, Ontario, by Samuel W. Franklin of New York City; the world's record speckled trout, weighing 14 1/2 lbs., taken from Nipigon River by Dr. J. W. Cook of Fort William; and a great Northern pike, 4 ft. long with a weight of 21 lbs., which gave Harold Sweeter of New York a 45 minute fight on the Nipigon.

Canada's infinitude of rivers and lakes are filled with a vast wealth of fish, many of them of record measurements and weight. The foregoing are sportsmen's records.
