daughter. IN MEMORIAM. In loving memory of George Woods, who departed this life June 23rd,

Not now, but in the coming years, It may be in the better land, We'll read the meaning of our tears, And there, sometime we'll understand, We'll catch the broken threads again, ind finish what we here began; Heaven will the mysteries explain, And there, ah there, we'll understand. -- Wife and children.

IN MEMORIAM. SCOTT-In Joving memory of Captain William Scott, who entered into rest

The glent grief that's in our soul, No human eye can trace, For many a broken heart lies hid Beneath a smiling face.

We think of him in silence, His mame we oft recall, there is nothing left to answer But his picture on the wall.

Just a thought of sweet remembrance, From our memories fond and true, ust a token of affection And a longing still for you.

IN MEMORIAM. In memory of our dearly beloved daughter, Mrs. John Snider, who died June 23rd, 1923.

Two years have passed since that sad When the one we loved was called Rosen & Pollitt Wreck-God took her home; it was His will, in our hearts she liveth still of the best that God could send, Faithful, now mourned by her friends. miss her more. Her loving smile, her welcome voice; No one can fill her places fer memory is as fresh to-day. As the hour she was called away.

She has gone from our gaze like beautiful dream, We scarce can believe it, how strange it does seem; We would give all we have, though it cost us great pain, To gaze on the face of our dear one She has gone across the river, the shores of evergreen; How we long to see her sweet face, But the river flows between; our aching hearts are calling, this dear one who has left us, Just two years ago to-day.
