The L.U.B.S. Club, in which Miss Lila Spooner held the office of secretary, entertained last evening in her honor when the members of the club met at her home and the club president, Mrs. A. W. Brundage, presented her with a beautiful pierced silver compass as a token of their esteem, and expressed sincere regret at Miss Spooner's departure from Kingston. This over, still another surprise was in store for the guest of honor, when a huge basket was brought in beautifully decorated and a "kitchen shower" was the order of the hour. A delicious buffet supper was served the guests by Mrs. Spooner, and after Miss Spooner's impromptu address of gratitude to her friends, which was received with much applause, the evening was brought to a close with the singing of "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow." Miss Spooner's marriage to Mr. "Tot" Young takes place on Monday next.

A most enjoyable event took place last evening when the choir of St. James' church held a very successful picnic at Lake Ontario Park. After a delicious supper songs were sung and a really delightful hour was enjoyed. A pleasing feature of the evening was a presentation of a beautiful string of pearls given to Mrs. H. Horton, who is leaving in the near future with Mr. Horton for Vancouver. The presentation was made by Mr. Sidney Smith, who expressed the appreciation of the choir for the faithful services given by Mrs. Horton. The party closed with the singing of the national anthem, returning to the city about ten o'clock.

WEDDINGS.

Latimer-Bongard.

A pretty June wedding was solemnized in St. James on Tuesday evening, June 30th, of Hazel Amelia, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Bongard, Kingston, and Francis Arnold Latimer, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Latimer, Gananoque. The Rev. T. W. Savary conducted the ceremony. The bride entered the chapel on the arm of her father to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Agnes Smith, Conway. She was daintily attired in a wedding gown of white canton crepe with silver lace and bridal veil tastefully arranged with a band of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of sweetheart roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Little Miss Thelma Davy, cousin of the bride, acted as flower girl; she looked very sweet in white and carried a basket of sweet peas and lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Rose Bongard, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, her gown being peach crepe and she carried an old-fashioned bouquet of carnations, sweetpeas and lilies-of-the-valley. William Griffin, Gananoque, was best man.

After the ceremony, a dainty luncheon was served to a large number of guests at the bride's home, Cherry street. The house was prettily decorated with ferns and flowers. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a silver mesh bag, to the best man a pearl tie pin, and to the little flower girl a gold bracelet. The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful gifts, which showed the high esteem in which they are held. They left on the midnight train for Toronto and other western points amid showers of confetti and good wishes. The bride travelled in a navy ensemble suit with picture hat.

On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Latimer will reside in Gananoque, and the best wishes of many Kingston friends are extended to them.

Ward-Clement Wedding.

On Wednesday a pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Edmund's church, Stoco, when Estelle Clement, Bogard, and Henry Ward, Newburgh, were united in the bonds of matrimony. Rev. Father Cullinane, Stoco, and Rev. Father LaSage, Striling, officiated. Miss Mae Clement, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and Joseph Ward, brother of the groom was best man. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where a very enjoyable evening was spent. The happy couple left for Newburgh and from there left on a tour of the Thousand Islands and other points.

Murphy-Keenan.

At half-past eight o'clock, Tuesday morning, June 30th, in the Lady chapel of St. Patrick's church, Montreal, the marriage was solemnized of Miss Hilda May Keenan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Keenan, of Kingston, to Mr. Joseph William Murphy, of Detroit, son of the late William Murphy, of Montreal. Father McShane performed the ceremony and Miss Hazel Charade sang during the service. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of grey canton crepe with gauds of lace in the skirt, a large mohair hat of cyclamen color and carried a bouquet of pink roses and lilies-of-the-valley. Miss Roberta Keenan was her sister's bridesmaid and wore a frock of mauve crepe romaine with a large mauve maline hat of the same color, and carried aweet peas. Mr. Earl Murphy was best man and Mr. M. P. Conney and Mr. Jack McPetrick were ushers.

Mrs. Keenan, the bride's mother, wore a gown of black canton crepe with a black and white hat and a corsage of roses. Mrs. Murphy, mother of the groom, wore black chiffon over black satin with a large black maline hat. Her corsage was of red roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Murphy left directly after the ceremony by boat for Detroit, where they will reside, the bride travelling in a grey roshanara coat with feather trimming.

THE GIRL GUIDES AT CAMP OONTO.

On Wednesday there was an enrolment of recruits when the following became Guides: Vera Loring, in the 8th Company; Leslie Brook, Charity and Peggy Primrose (New York), and Isabel Halliday, in the 7th Company.

Swimming tests were taken, distance 50 yards, by Miss Payne, swimming instructress, and Lieut. Kathleen Healey gave physical culture. The nature study lecture was on "The Loom," whose maniacal screams and lonely haunting cry is heard the whole night long.

The arrival of a pair of white bunnies caused much joy.

The visitors included Mr. and Mrs. George Mahood, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mahood, the Misses Esther and Helen Mahood. Miss Thelma Bogart, Miss Bessie Wilson, Miss Anna Mahood and Miss Gertrude Mahood are spending several days at the camp. Mrs. R. Brook returned home after a pleasant visit here.

Owing to the rain the camp-fire was held in "The Lodge." Recitations were given by Peggy Miller. A very charming play, "Red Riding Hood," was put on by the Robins patrol, of the 8th Company. The "Log" by the Eagles Patrol caused much amusement. Camp songs followed and the first toasted marshmallows of the season were much enjoyed by all.

The officer of the day was Lieut. Kathleen Healey.
