EXPECT 500 STUDENTS FOR SUMMER SCHOOL

Which Opens at Queen's Next
Wednesday — Putting Things in Readiness.

Everything is being put in readiness at Queen's University for an expected influx the first half of next week of some five hundred students for the sixteenth session of the Queen's Summer School, which opens on the 8th to continue till August 19th. The registration of this number in two or three days presents a good-sized task at the registration headquarters of the Douglas library. It is expected that there will be a good number of intra-murals as well as extra-mural students. Members of the former class, who were unable to take the required five courses last winter, may take the rest of them this summer by attending the school.

The branch of the school at Ottawa, for the study of Canadian history in the archives there, will be under the direction of Prof. D. A. McArthur, head of the history department. This course was founded by Prof. J. L. Morison before he left Queen's. The students are registered as regular students of the Queen's Summer School. This year the subjects to be studied are: "The French and British in Canada, 1763-1812," and "The Struggle for Responsible Government, 1812-1849."

Religious Education.
Principal Dyde received a letter on Friday from Prof. Macgregor at the Tamahaag Club, Mohawk Trail, Ancaster, Ont., stating that he had selected as his subjects for his six lectures at the summer school the following: "The Bible: Its Mobility and Its Authority," "The Cross in Human Life," "The Holy Spirit in Ethical Experience," "New Testament Conceptions of the Church."

Dr. Dyde is receiving many enquiries regarding this course in religious education. Dr. Macgregor apparently having made a deep impression when he spoke at the General Council of the United Church as the representative of the United Free Church of Scotland.

The technical stores began on Friday moving their supplies from under Convocation hall to their new building northwest of the arena, where they expect to be ready to welcome the students next week.

The flooring in the old arts building has been finished and most of the oiling done. The tennis courts are finished and the posts are in place for the nets.

The students will arrive just at the close of the departmental examinations in Grant Hall and of the Queen's Club's big bowling tournament.

CONSTABLE GARRITY CAUGHT RUNAWAY CAR

A Flutter of Excitement on Princess Street on Friday Morning.

Police Constable Thomas Garrity not only rounds up stolen autos, but he also captures runaway cars. An example of his work was given to pedestrians who happened to be on Princess street early Friday morning.

Constable Garrity was walking his beat, half way between Montreal and Sydenham streets when he "spotted" a car going down the street, without a driver. The car was going at a lively clip, and had quite a start, but Constable Garrity, who is a good sprinter, overtook the car, jumped on board, and soon had the auto at a standstill.

Two or three minutes later, the owner of the car, a well-known young man, came running down the street to see what had happened to his car, and when he found that the constable had corralled it and that everything was O. K., he was able to breathe much easier.

It appears that the owner left the car with the engine running, and when something went wrong with the brakes, the car started off.

Regiment is given a total of 3,207 points, putting it tenth in the list of 72 infantry units. The Brockville Rifles led with 5,260 points. The total obtainable was 5,325, if complete to establishment.

Crop Conditions.

Wheat is in short blade in many parts of the prairie provinces; growth generally is further advanced than in the average year, and western crop conditions on the whole are favorable. In Ontario all crops have been improved by two weeks of satisfactory weather and fall wheat is filling out well. In Quebec a yield of hay above the average is practically assured, while in the maritime provinces all crops are doing well. In British Columbia hay and grain are doing well, but fruit will be below average.

Police Court Brevities.

The crusade against auto drivers who cut corners and drive their cars without lights, continues. In the police court on Friday morning two drivers who admitted cutting corners, were fined $3 and costs each, and another was allowed to go with a warning. A drunk was fined the usual amount, $10 and costs.

Going, Ottawa, a teacher of Art, her stipend to be $2,000. Together this means a saving of $300 per year to the board. These were the best of several applications.

After a Regional Park.

The people about Alexandria Bay and neighborhood are anxious to get a big slice of U.S. government money for a regional park exceeding seventy-two miles from Ogdensburg to Cape Vincent. The park council is asked to tour the Thousand Islands and see for themselves the advantages such a park would be to the state.
