The Work of the Eyes

The human eye is a miracle of efficiency if normal. But it is the cause of numberless undesirable conditions if abnormal. And the sad truth is that most eyes are abnormal to some extent. Abnormal eyes mean strained eyes, and strained eyes mean headaches and a dozen other troubles. Nothing but Glasses can make abnormal eyes function normally. Give your eyes proper attention by having them looked after here.

THE FUN SHOP

NEWSPAPER FUN

By Maxson Foxhall Judell

"The Female of the Species!"
Ye male vacationists, beware!
The school teacher is everywhere,
Fed up on verbs and adverbs too,
She'll pounce upon the pronoun,
"YOU!"

Losing Weight.
Crist: "My wife is reducing rapidly. She called me on the phone from downtown today."
Blake: "What of that?"
Crist: "It means that she can get into a telephone booth now."

It Would All Depend.
By Bernard B. Miller.
If I were a daughter of Eve
And wanted to work, I believe I'd learn to write shorthand, and type,

And then, when they said I was ripe,
I'd go to some office and there
I'd watch the boss going up in the air
Because I had spelled it "repare"
Or left out an "e" in "receive."

I'd love to spend all I had made
On clothes of the most recent shade;
On fancy shoes, garters, and hose,
On undies and such things as those Until, as I walked by, they'd say:
"Gee, pipe our dear Mabel today!"
Advertising like that ought to pay
And make me a popular maid.

Yes, were I a girl, it's a fact
That that is about how I'd act;
That is, were I beautiful, oh! But If I were homely, oh gee!
I'd see that I knew how to spell;
That I took down dictation real well;
That I ran the typewriter like-sixty,
And never—(from chewing gum)— smacked!

Made Use Of It.
Victim: "You've pulled three teeth! I only wanted one pulled!"
Dentist: "Yes, I know. We gave you a bit too much gas and I didn't want to waste it."
—Minnie Heymann.

Belles-Lettres.
The struggling young author starved to death because his books did not sell. On the resulting publicity his publishers got rich.

English Courtroom Chuckles.
Charles Lane Milner, recently a visitor to England, sent us a number of interesting incidents that actually took place in different English courts. Some hardly seem true—but there is no question that they are faithfully recorded:

A Family Affair.
Wilkesden Husband (summoned for maintenance arrears): "If I'm sent to prison for this, the next war will be between me and my wife."

Had His Doubts.
"I fell in with some Scotchmen, and they gave me too much whiskey," exclaimed a man at Lambeth.
Magistrate: "Are you quite sure they were Scotchmen?"

Court Dress.
When a woman was served with a jury summons in Leyton she asked,
"Is it evening dress?"
"Still a bachelor?"
"Yes."
"Necessity or choice?"
"Both. My necessity, her choice."

Puzzling Progeny.
Detective in the Guildhall Court (concerning defendant): "He is a married man with nine children."
Defendant: "No, four."
Detective: "Your wife told me nine."
The Wife (later, pleading for her husband): "He is a good husband and father to his seven children."
The Alderman: "Seven? I heard it was nine."
"I'm not quite sure. I think it is eight."

Fair Exchange.
Prison Governor (to released convict):
"I'm sorry! I find we have kept you here a week too long!"
Convict: "That's all right. Knock it off next time!"

She Knew!
Woman (at Wilkesden): "No matter how you listen in our flat you cannot hear what the people say in the next flat. I know."

An Unnecessary Question.
Question at Bow County Court:

"Does your husband make himself useful in the home?"
Wife: "Most certainly; you can see that I did not marry him for an ornament."

Shocked the Cat.
Shropshire Wife (of her husband):
"He has an awful temper,
and even my black cat has gone
white-haired since I married him."

OLD ST. LAWRENCE BEING DISMANTLED

Once One of the Finest Excursion Steamers Running Out of Kingston.

The old steamer St. Lawrence, mention of which will bring back memories of picnic days and happy moonlight excursions to the growing-up generation, is now in the Davis dry dock, being dismantled. She entered the dock on Monday.

The vessel was built in 1883 in Clayton, N.Y., by the Folger Company and always claimed Kingston as her home, laying up here in the winter time. When she first entered service she was considered a very fast boat and the finest passenger vessel on the river. About six years ago she was purchased by Mr. J. M. Campbell, refitted and used for excursion purposes in and out of Kingston in the seasons of 1920 and 1921. Repairs proving too costly, it was decided to either rebuild or dismantle her, and the latter step was chosen. The work will concern the upper works and machinery, but the composite hull may be saved to be used for ferry boat purposes.

COMING TO RE-UNION.

Ten Years Since Mr. Thomas Nash Left This City.
In a letter to the Whig, Mr. Thomas Nash of Brooklyn, N.Y., a former well-known Kingstonian, states that quite a number from that city will attend the Old Boys' Re-Union in Kingston, as the return railway fare is quite reasonable. It is $21.94 via Clayton, N.Y.

Mr. Nash expects to come to the re-union and is looking forward with great pleasure to meeting his many old friends and acquaintances. It is ten years since he left this city.

"Sing Me to Sleep."
"My wife is a fine singer. I have known her to hold her audience for hours at a time."
"Indeed!"
"Yes; after which she would put it in the cradle and rock it to sleep."

Teachers Engaged.
James H. Watson, Kenmore, has been engaged as principal of Deloro public school, with Miss S. Blair, Madoc, as assistant teacher. Principal E. C. Prentice and all his teaching staff have been re-engaged for Marmora public school.

Celebrate at Gananoque.
It is expected that a big Orange demonstration will be held in Gananoque on July 12th, 1926, which will be attended not only by the many lodges in this district, but also by several from across the line.

Married at Redwood, N. Y.
The marriage took place at Redwood, N.Y., on June 29th, of Mary Olga, only daughter of Allen J. Wilson, Brockville, to John Henry Purvis, only son of Edward Purvis, Lindsay.

Engineer's vigilance blocked attempt to wreck train bearing President Calles of Mexico.

At Bunker's Hill.
Bunker's Hill, July 8.—As a result of the rain, and the warm weather, the gardens are looking fine. The recent hail storm did some damage in this district. The red raspberries are getting ripe. The schools have closed for the vacation. Sanford Leeman is engaged building a fence. Mr. T. Babcock was a visitor at Sanford Leeman's. Quite a number of farmers are sending their milk to the Glendower cheese factory.

French writer who opposed marriage of French and Germans was mobbed at a dinner by Paris "realists."

Thrown 40 Feet by Engine.
Almonte, July 8.—Moses Smolkin, son of a local drygoods merchant, was seriously injured on Monday when he stepped in front of the engine of a freight train and was hurled across the street, forty feet away. Some hopes are held out for his recovery.

Magician Houdini's life was threatened when he broke up a spiritistic seance in New York.
West Indies trade pact was signed Monday at Ottawa.

First Lady:
I wonder how it is I can't get a shine on my shoes like these they show in the stores.

Second Lady:
Oh, there's no secret about that, my dear. They use "Nugget." I've always used it because I find it gives a brighter and more lasting shine than any other.

Made in Black, Tan, Every Red and Dark Brown.
Also White Dressing (cake) and White Cleaner (liquid).
