SYDENHAM STREET CHURCH'S PICNIC
KINGSTON ORANGEMEN GOING TO WATERTOWN

Held at Brophy's Point on Thursday Afternoon was a Big Event.

Everything was favorable for Sydenham street church's annual Sunday school picnic at Brophy's Point on Thursday afternoon and members who have attended many previous events claimed it was the best held in years. Most of the holiday, over three hundred in number, went down on the Str. Waubic, while Mr. Charles and Frank Anglin brought down motor-boat loads of late-comers at 5:30 p.m. The sports programme, part of which was run off after tea, included two dozen races and two soft-ball games, with plentiful prizes, which were awarded after supper. Then there were scrambles for peanuts and kisses while Mr. George Wheelock, of the Chinese Department, treated the school to ice-cream. The very acceptable refreshments were in charge of Miss H. L. Chown and her class. Mr. Charles Anglin, superintendent of the school, supervised the arrangements for the day.

The girls' softball game resulted in a win for the team captained by M. Allen from that led by R. Vince by a score of 20-8. The teams were: Miss Allen's—F. Connelly, c; D. Allen, p; M. Allen, 1b; A. Ward, 2b; M. Anglin, 3b; P. Roland, 1s; L. Wilder, 2c; M. Gordon, rf; M. Sawyer, cf.

WOULD TAR THE ROADS EARLIER IN SEASON
 So as to Avoid the Heavy Traffic of July and August.

American tourists are complaining of the methods used of tarring the provincial highway. They think that not enough gravel is used and say that the tar, which drips from their cars like soup, does much injury to them. They also suggest that this work should be done earlier in the season before the heavy traffic of July and August is on the roads.

Motorists, who are planning a trip this week-end, would be wise to avoid the highway east of Kingston, as there are about seven miles of fresh tarring, some between here and Gananoque, near Lansdowne, and on the road between Escott and Mallorytown, where there is a strip of about four miles.

THE 21ST BATTALION.
 Is to Have Next Annual Reunion at Peterboro.

Peterboro Examiner.
 The announcement that the annual reunion of the surviving members of the 21st Eastern Ontario Battalion of the Canadian Expeditionary Force is to be held in Peterboro has been received with much interest by the citizens, and there will be a general desire to have the members of this famous unit suitably entertained.

Peterboro has always taken an especial interest in the 21st Battalion, which left Canada with the Second Canadian Contingent after training in Kingston.

It was made up originally of Eastern Ontario soldiers, Peterboro supplying a large quota, and after it reached the firing line was frequently reinforced by troops from this part of the province, including of course, many from this city.

The 21st had a fine record throughout the war, serving with distinction in some of the most notable engagements of the struggle, and throughout its long service overseas Peterboro was always well represented, so that it is natural that local citizens should always be interested in anything that concerned this splendid unit.

It is to be hoped that when the ex-members of the 21st get together in Peterboro their reception will be such as to leave no doubt of the warmth of the spot they hold in the hearts of local people.

Federal election will be held at end of September is Melghen's guess. A beautiful display of Page and Shaw sweets at Gibson's Drug Store.

RUINED HIS CLOTHES; WANTS CITY TO PAY
A Citizen Fell in the Tarriva Placed on the Street This Week.

The city engineer's department has been putting tarriva on many of the streets, and it has been the misfortune of a number of citizens to fall on the tarriva and as a result ruin their clothing.

A well-known resident fell in the tarriva a few days ago, and called up one of the city officials and stated that he had ruined a suit of clothes, and wanted the city to pay for his loss. It is likely that he will put in a claim for damages.

A boy riding on a bicycle tried to wheel over the tarriva and had a spill, and his clothing suffered as a result.
