What the Press Agents Say About Coming Attractions

"GREAT SHOW" AT CAPITOL
It would be hard to find a more appealing or vitally interesting story than Anne Douglas Sedgwick's novel, "The Little French Girl," and which is the feature at the Capitol Theatre for the last time to-day.

Featured in the leading roles are Alice Joyce, New Hamilton, Mary Brian and Esthelle Ralston. In the title role of the picture, Mary Brian, as Alice Verver, finds that her mother's reputation sort of puts a kink in her chances for a suitable marriage in France, so she invades a fashionable English home, where it is the mother's hope she will land for herself a good provider.

Here she falls in love with the younger brother of her mother's latest favorite, only to learn that he cares for another and that the other girl has eyes only for the older brother. So, you see, the love interest in the production travels in a circle—and it never does let up for a single moment.

The older boy is killed in the war, and his fiancée decides that she will go into a convent to be happy in the memory of their love—all this despite all the pleadings of the little French girl who does not want to see the girl waste her life away for a no-account. Alix even goes so far as to tell of his never-to-be-forgotten scene between the two girls—Toppie (Esther Ralston) condemning Madame Verver, played by Alice Joyce, and Alix stands up stoutly in defense of her beloved Maman, who "cannot help it if she is loved."

There's an unusual element of surprise in the closing scenes.

BELLEVILLE HERE ON WEDNESDAY EVENING

Hard Game is Expected With the Railroaders—Locals Need This Game.

If all goes well between now and six o'clock Wednesday evening the baseball fans will have something good put up for them when the Belleville and Kingston teams clash at the Fair Grounds in a scheduled Central Ontario League fixture. The Belleville team gave Kingston a rather stiff argument in Belleville last Saturday and in this game tomorrow they are expected to give the locals some real entertainment.

The Belleville team will likely pitch Jeffrey or Koen for a starter by Goyer, who has been playing great ball on the mound for the C.N.R.'s will be ready to step in if the local sluggers get on their stride. Kingston needs this game to stay up on top and will put everything into the fray from the start.

It was unknown today who would be Manager Daley's selection for the mound but it appeared as though Cairns would be put in again. Bert Daley will likely appear in left field in Wednesday evening's game for the locals. Daley had taken part in two games this season and has shown good work.

Junior City League.
A meeting of the Junior City Baseball League was held Monday evening. The winner of the local junior city championship is scheduled to play Ottawa on August 8th in the first game of the finals and the committee decided to try and arrange the game to be played here. The winner of the St. Lawrence League is to play Ottawa on the following Saturday, August 15th.

BOWLING

The following games in doubles have been played at Queen's green: J. Derry won from Dr. Sparks, 17-12; T. Stewart from J. McDonald, by default; L. Mason from R. Stevenson, 17-11; H. Price from E. Johnson, 12-11. In the postponed rink games L. Sleeth won from H. W. Newman's rink, 19-10. The first games in the singles resulted in a win for D. Funell from R. J. Wilson, 15-4.

A REAL TREAT

Oddfellows' Teams To Play at Victoria Park.

The baseball fans will be given a real treat when the Cataragui lodge, No. 10, and Kingston lodge, No. 59, of the Oddfellows, clash at Victoria Park next Friday evening, for the W. F. Nickle trophy. Kingston was the winner of the trophy last year, but Harold Nicholson, who is looking after the Cataragui ball tossers, are claiming they are ready to dethrone Kingston in Friday evening's game. He has had his players out to practice and has some very nice material, among them being such old timers as Frank Gillespie, "Shorty" Dick and Walter Easton. Jack Burke is taking care of Kingston, and he and his players are just as confident of repeating last year's performance as Cataragui are of winning it. Much interest is being shown and it should prove to be a real snappy game. It is expected that Granite lodge will challenge the winners.

BERT DALEY STARRED
The Belleville Ontario, commenting on the Kingston-Belleville game at Belleville on Saturday, gives great praise to the Belleville juniors, who played on the Belleville team, and also to Bert Daley for the fine game he put up, saying in part:
"Kingston gave a perfect exhibition of hitting and fielding, more so in the latter line, and Daley who has not played much this summer, and Teepell stood out very prominently. Daley made two very hard catches in field, one in particular being brilliant, in that he spared the ball as he was falling, turned a complete somersault, and came up with the ball. That play was the one that hurt, had the Moguls got over that play, the reading of the score might have been different."

A memorial to G. F. Watts, the artist, has been placed in North street, Guildford, Eng.

W. J. RENTON PASSED AWAY MONDAY NIGHT

He Was an Honorable Man and Highly Regarded in All Walks of Life.

A splendid citizen passed away, on Monday evening, in the person of Mr. William J. Renton, 319 University avenue. He had been a sufferer for years from heart affection, and had been confined to his home for the past two months, hopeful at times for recovery, but always in full knowledge that he was growing weaker and nearing the time of dissolution. And he had no dread concerning his departure. He was cheerful, buoyant, resolute and happy in the associations of his family and friends who were constant in administering to him all comforts needed. On Monday he grew worse and soon after eight o'clock suddenly ceased to live.

Mr. Renton, born here sixty-seven years ago, was widely known and respected. From his boyhood he had been associated with the wholesale dry goods house, under various names, but now managed by Macnes & Minnes. In city and country merchants regarded him as a capable salesman, a dependable and accurate business man, and a genial and companionable person. In social, fraternal and church life he was eminently and deservedly popular. He went through the chairs of Ancient St. John's Masonic Lodge, was registrar of Hugh de Payens Premier Preceptory and also a Royal Arch Mason. In Masonic circles he was a distinguished officer, a member of Grand Lodge, and worthily set forth principles of the craft. He was also a Forester of the Canadian Order.

In church life Mr. Renton was associated with Chalmers church, following his family in their devotion to the faith, and with constancy and fidelity filling the various duties assigned him as secretary and also as chairman of the trustee board. He held the confidence of his associates as a devoted, earnest, liberal churchman.

Mr. Renton was for years associated with the Board of Education, an appointee of the council. He was devotedly concerned in the development of the children of the city, the future citizens, and was ambitious that the best should be everywhere provided for them. His associates on the board, of which he was an ex-chairman, will miss his influential and valuable services. He served well and faithfully in this civic position.

He was a true, devoted father and husband. His family was his constant thought and the genuine up-bringing of five sons was his anxious and ever present concern. He gave to them, in concert with his devoted and gentle wife, the impetus and stimulation of worthiness and uprightness that will be a source of strength throughout their lives. Two sons, Dr. Thomas H., in Kingston, and Dr. John E., in Trenton, are well-known dentists the other three younger in years are interested in business and school life. His widow, formerly Florence Wilmet, of this city, and the boys will have the tender sympathy of many citizens in their sad bereavement.

Deceased was a son of the late James Renton, of this city, and is survived by a sister, Miss Renton Kingston, and a brother, Mr. John L. Renton, Winnipeg. Our fellow citizen lived honorably and died triumphantly.

The funeral on Wednesday is of a private character.

A robin that was building a nest in a tree in a Toledo, Ohio, backyard accidentally hanged himself. In some way he became entangled in a string he was using in construction of the nest.

T. J. Walsh died in New York on Friday. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Walsh, Edwardsburg township. He held a responsible position as an inspector for the Fire Underwriters' Insurance Association and was an expert accountant.

Modern Heroes Emulate Old-Time Indian Braves

Reckless New Yorker, one of the few white men to shoot the Rapids in a birch canoe.

It is the Lachine Rapids, most spectacular and deadly of all the shallows in the long course of the St. Lawrence River. The river is beaten into a maze of cross currents and undercurrents, whirlpools and foam-faced rocks, peering with jagged teeth just flush with the sweep of the stream which here attains a speed as high as twenty miles an hour. Looked at from the decks of the Canada Steamship Lines vessels that run these rapids daily, it seems as though no ship could live for a minute in those tormented waters. Yet subtle Indian pilots have long known them to be as safe as any placid stretch of the Lake St. Louis into which the St. Lawrence broadens and through which the ship has just passed. Indian and French-Canadian pilots know the passage of the Rapids is safe but woe to the man who should attempt to run them without full knowledge of their treacherous depths and shallows. But the old-time spirit of the voyageurs and discoverers is not dead today for in the past two months, though the river was swollen by spring freshets, two canoeists have actually dared the dangerous passage and have succeeded. One of them was a man from New York State; the other was a native Montrealer. Both were, of course, experts and neither would probably try it again for any amount of money. Yet the "piercing eyes of Danger" are perhaps half the attraction for passengers on C.S.L. boats. They look over the side of the ship and shudder at the veritable Inferno that not even the mind of a Dante could invent. As the steamers plunge among the breakers, the headlong current carries her on toward the insidious rocks, sometimes hidden, sometimes exposed to view with the dark suggestion of others unseen below the waters. Deftly the ship passes them by, within a few feet of their treacherous edges, through clouds of spray ascending from the churning abyss. A moment more and the descent is completed, and soon the steamer glides into the placid waters beneath Victoria Bridge into Montreal. Of the million tourists who will visit Montreal this summer, it is safe to say that ninety per cent. will look forward to the passage of the Lachine Rapids as one of the major events of their stay in this city.
