On Thursday afternoon one of the most charmingly arranged "summer showers" which have been given recently in honor of Miss Isobel Hughes, next week's bride, was held when Mrs. Devlin, William street, was the hostess of a tea and china shower for this popular girl. The house was beautifully decorated with a profusion of summer flowers, and the door was opened to the many guests, by little Miss Betty Noury, daintily frocked in pink tulle. The polished tea table centered with a low bowl of pink and mauve sweet peas, and at corners of which rested tiny silver baskets of the same flowers, was presided over by Mrs. M. E. Adams, an aunt of the bride-elect and Mrs. W. H. Hughes. They were assisted by Miss Marguerite Galley (Winnipeg), Miss Anna Corrigan and Miss Winnifred Guild. The gifts piled high in a flower-decked basket were numerous and beautiful and included several handsome pieces of cut glass. A short musical programme added to the enjoyment of the afternoon when Mrs. James V. Mounsey, Toronto; Miss Hughes, and Miss Anna Corrigan sang charmingly.

That campers along the river road appreciate greatly the bus service of the Gananoque bus. Many people have cars but for those who have not or for those whose cars are taken to town in the morning by the man of the house, the bus is a great convenience.

That the Richardson bathing house at Macdonald Park, which has now become an institution, has brought much comfort to Kingstons and also to the visitors in town for the summer. The students at Queen's University enjoy the pleasure of bathing in Lake Ontario and although the water is very cold for this time of year many of them go in for a dip in the afternoon.

That it is said that the Countess of Cromer, beautiful wife of the Earl of Cromer, Lord Chamberlain to the Royal Household, is the final authority on censoring the plays produced in London, for the office of Lord Chamberlain carries with it the duty of censor and the Earl seeks his wife's advice when there is a play in question.

That the work on Murney Tower is nearly completed and shortly the relics of old days in the possession of the Kingston Historical Society will be placed in it to be preserved for all-time. Citizens who have relics they would like to feel are in safe keeping are giving them to the Historical Society for the new museum.
