"MADAME SANS GENE" MOST MAGNIFICENT SWANSON FILM
Gloria Swanson's new Paramount picture, "Madame Sans Gene," the story of a French laundress, who befriended Napoleon in the days of his poverty and was remembered by him in his days of prosperity and power, opens at the Capitol Theatre today.

It was while Napoleon was a young lieutenant of artillery that he first met Catherine Hubscher. She had a laundry in the Rue St. Anne in Paris, and there the young officer took his soiled clothes.

Catherine was pretty and outspoken. She didn't know—and if she had known, probably would not have cared—that her impetuous customer was one day to be the greatest figure in the world. Napoleon lived at the Hotel des Patriotes, near her shop, and he owed her, as well as other tradespeople, a long score. When he went into the laundry one day, she was about to ask him for payment, when she noticed that his shoes were worn so that his bare feet showed through. So she simply added the amount to the list and said nothing.

Napoleon, it is said, forgot the bill, but he never forgot her. She married a young sergeant, named Lefebvre, and many years later Catherine and her husband became the Duke and Duchess of Danzig, the former sergeant being made a marshal of France. Catherine never lost her habit of plain speaking and it is history that the tattered and unpaid laundry bill was once used by her to prevent France from committing a grave diplomatic blunder.

It makes an absorbing story, this chronicle of Napoleon and Madame Devill May Care.

Charles de Roche, popular Franco-American leading man, heads the cast appearing in support of the star. In addition to the regular programme, Sid Fox and his Serenaders will again appear by popular request.

Kingston Tennis Club Leading When Rain Forced a Halt.

One of the most successful tennis events of the season was held Saturday afternoon on the Kingston Tennis Club courts when Queen's Summer School students played the Kingston Tennis Club in a friendly tournament. The large number of members, visitors and spectators was given a real treat in the quality of tennis displayed by both sides. There were three ladies' and gentlemen's singles and doubles and also three mixed doubles. On account of the rain only thirteen events were completed and out of that number the Queen's students won four and the K. T. C. won nine. This result is quite different from last year when the students then won all but one event. The return match is to be played on the Queen's courts. The results are:

Ladies' Singles.
Miss Margaret Taylor, K.T.C., won from Miss M. Trux, 3-0 in the first set. The game was stopped on account of rain.
Miss Kathrine Macphail, K.T.C., won from Miss B. Barry, 6-3, 6-4.
Mrs. A. R. Worden, K.T.C., won from Miss M. L. Phipps, 6-1, 6-2.

Men's Singles.
Grant MacLachlan, K.T.C., won from J. M. Ewing, 4-6, 6-4, 6-0.
Lloyd Greenless, K.T.C., won from Prof. J. F. MacDonald, 4-6, 16-3, 8-6.
F. W. Torrance, K.T.C., won from G. Bruce, 6-3, 6-2.

Ladies' Doubles.
Miss B. Barry and Miss G. Bogart, Queen's won from Mrs. D. M. Chown and Miss M. Mason, 6-2, 6-3.

Mixed Doubles.
Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Worden, K.T.C., won from Mr. R. J. Eaton and Miss G. Bogart, 6-0, 7-5.
Mr. R. H. Chambers and Miss Margaret Taylor, K.T.C., won from Mr. F. Phillips and Miss N. Fleming, 11-9, 6-3.
Mr. E. O. Seymour and Miss A. J. Willoughby of Queen's were leading in this set against C. R. Wright and Miss E. Spence, 6-2, 4-6, 4-3, when the game was called on account of rain.

This week will see the gathering at Toronto of many yachts from all over the lakes, Hamilton, Kingston, Watertown, N.Y., are all sending yachts, sail, steam or motor, for the George Cup contests on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and then to take part in the great cruising race for yachts (sail), open to all members of the L.Y.R.A., and for all classes, for the Freeman Cup, presented by that real good fellow, "Charlie" Freeman, for perpetual long-distance racing, and which each year becomes more popular, but which on this occasion promises a larger number of entries than ever on account of the many who are out of Toronto for the George Cup. The race this year is to Presque Isle, eighty-eight miles east of Toronto. The yachts start on Saturday, Aug. 1st. Last year the race was to Charlotte, N.Y., and was won by Olympian, who was disqualified for a technical breach of rules. Cara Mia was awarded first.

Shamrocks and Circle-Six Will Meet in Junior City Picture.

Shamrocks and Circle-Six will play on Tuesday evening at the Cricket Field in a Junior City League game at 6.15 o'clock. The Shamrocks have been showing considerable improvement of late and it is expected that they will be able to put up better baseball on Tuesday evening than they have in past games.

The Circle-Six will be on deck to prevent any win by the Shamrocks and their best team available will be out for this game. The pitching duties will likely fall on Harold Buck for this game with Hewitt Smith being saved up for the big game on Friday evening when "Chuck" Coyne's Victorias will again take the field against the Six. If the Vics lose Friday's game, the goose is cooked for them.

GAME WAS CALLED.

Plumbers and Circle-Six Met on Saturday Evening.

The teams were:
Circle-Six—Arnel, 3b.; Macpherson, 2b.; Joyce, 1b.; Hartley, 1.f.; Tetro, c.; Sullivan, c.f.; Buck, r.f.; Smith, p.

PETERBORO DEFEATS BELLEVILLE BY 9-8

The Trunks Made a Gallant Stand But It Was Belated.

Peterboro, Ont., July 27.—The traditional finish of the Belleville Central League team fell one short in the game here on Saturday, and the Petes won 9-8. It was the last visit of the Trunks here this season, and the crowd which braved the threatening weather was well rewarded. The game was marked by good fielding and many hits. Tommy Holyman played a whole of a game at short, his catch of Casey's fly ball of third being a feature. The visitors made eleven hits, including two doubles and two triples, while the Petes made nine, having three doubles.

The locals bunched their hits behind the walks issued by Keon, whose four walks blossomed into runs, while only two runs were scored on charities by Whitehouse. The local hurler struck out seven and Blakely fanned three. Keon was continually in hot water the six innings he worked, having men on in all but one, and retiring no batters on strikes.

Weir and H. Mills with three hits each were the leading batsmen. In the seventh inning Manager Gerow made a grand change, shifting everybody but H. Mills and Weir. The shift stopped the Petes' attack, and the batsmen all found their eye.

Score by innings:

THE LATE A. M. FENWICK.

A Long Illness Resulted Fatally at Los Angeles.
Arthur M. Fenwick, fifty-seven years of age, a real estate broker in Los Angeles, for the last fifteen years, died at his home, 4631 West Eighteenth street, on July 18th, as the result of a chronic illness.

Arthur McMaster, Fenwick, was born at Kingston, Ont., on July 18th, 1868, and departed this life July 18th, 1925, just fifty-seven years to a day. His early life was spent here, where he was educated receiving his degree from Queen's University. He was married in 1898 to Miss Margaret Munn and moved westward to Regina, Sask., where he became identified with the schools. For many years he was connected with the Normal at Regina and was eventually promoted to inspector of schools.

In 1909 on account of ill-health, he took his family to Los Angeles, where he has since resided. He leaves besides a widow, two sons, Hobart C. and Kenneth M., the former identified with the business department of the Auditorium Theatre while the younger, Kenneth, is at present a student in the California Institute of Technology.

This world-to-day is a better world by reason of the life of Arthur McMaster Fenwick for he truly looked for and emphasized not only that which is best in human life, but he lived in a sense away and beyond his fellowman in that he saw and appreciated more than the most of us. He was constantly pointing to the things that were beautiful in nature.

CLARENCE DARROW
The noted Chicago lawyer, who appeared for the defence in the Dayton Tennessee, evolution trial.

He was fond of poetry and the classics; he was carried away seemingly by a sympathy and could always see the spiritual in a work of art. As a companion he was an inspiration, as a husband and father he was an ideal and as a friend always sincere and trustworthy.

THIS POET WILL SOON PAY ALIMONY

I met a maid the other day,
A winsome, pretty miss;
She seemed to like me quite a lot,
And so I stole a kiss.

She did not greatly mind, and so
I stole another, too;
This time she kicked—I thought she would—
But what was she to do?

She promptly showed me where I stood,
But when I tried to flee
She said, "Come here, you great big man,
And give them back to me."

"Twas ever thus with man and maid,
Since Eve combed Adam's hair;
A man may think he's strong and bold—
But he never has a prayer."

A Game Kid
The moon was great, and they were all alone underneath it. They were quiet—and then something slipped. It was his arm around her waist. He had a brainstorm. "Lib," he breathed, "you say you won't let me kiss you. I'll bet a dollar I can without touching you."
"I'll bet."
He kissed her right on the cheek—or somewhere.
"But you touched me," she yelled, not disappointedly.
"I know it; here's your dollar."
"What other game do you play?" she gulped.—Jack-o-Lantern (Dartmouth).
