New Church at Bath.

In connection with the erection of the new Anglican Church at Bath, it is pointed out that it will be of brick construction and when completed will be stuccoed on the outside, to make it appear as much like the old church as possible.

Was Operated On.

Talked To Bryan In Kingston.

Some years ago a Whig representative had an interview with the late W. J. Bryan, who had come into prominence as a silver advocate, and his courage at 16 to 1 gold standard. Mr. Bryan was going through to Boston on a G.T.R. train and while it halted here he chatted to the Whig in a happy way, standing up in the corridor outside the smoking apartment on the Pullman car.

A Rich Treat.

On Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, of this week, in the Gospel Tabernacle, Union street, Mr. William Gibson, a returned missionary from British Guiana, will show lantern pictures from photos which he has taken himself during his many years' stay out there. Narrowly Escaped Drowning.

A young man and a girl had a narrow escape from drowning on Monday afternoon when the canoe, in which they were paddling around Portsmouth Bay, upset, throwing them into the water. A couple of men employed by the Donnelly Wrecking Company witnessed the accident, and immediately rushed to their assistance in a motor boat and were successful in getting them out of the water. Changing seats was the cause of the canoe upsetting.

Kingstonians at Funeral.

Mr. Edward Crumley, writing from Los Angeles, noted the death and funeral of the late A. M. Fenwick and added: "On Friday, July 17th, he complained being tired. After receiving birthday presents he said he would take a rest and quietly passed away. At the funeral I noted these Kingstonians, Mr. and Mrs. Peter McCallum, Dr. and Mrs. Rankin, William Chambers, Miss Jessie Chambers, Thomas Reldson, Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson, and Mrs. E. Crumley. Mr. Fenwick and his good wife were much loved by all who knew him. Personally, Mrs. Crumley and I will miss him greatly."

NOT A GRADUATE.

Denial Made of Statement Made by Sarah Holden.

At a recent session of the police court, Sarah Holden, who was before the court on a charge of forgery, and who was sentenced to a year for the offence, in her evidence, claimed that she was a graduate of the 1908 class of the nurses at the Wellesley Hospital, Toronto.

Mrs. Laura M. Robinson, R.N., secretary-treasurer of the Kingston Chapter of the Graduate Nurses' Association, has forwarded the Whig a copy of a letter she received from Miss Elizabeth G. Flaws, R.N., superintendent of the Wellesley Hospital, Toronto. In the letter Miss Flaws says:

"We did not have any graduates until 1915, as the hospital was not opened until 1912, and that at no time was 'Sarah Holden' a member of our school."

Everybody Welcome Home.

Kingston, July 28.—(To the Editor): The citizens of Kingston were asked to send names of Old Boys and Girls to the Secretary so that he might send them invitations. This was done solely that they might have early notice so as to make arrangements to have their holidays in Old Boys' Week. We have heard from a few that they are not coming because they are not invited. An old boy or girl does not need an invitation to come home. We want everyone with their friends to be here.

—T. B. ANGROVE, Mayor.

TO BROADCAST FAIR.

Mr. R. J. Bushell Has Arranged With Station CNRO.

Mr. R. J. Bushell, manager of the Kingston Industrial Exhibition, received word on Wednesday from the CNRO broadcasting station, Ottawa, on Monday afternoon that the Kingston Fair would be broadcasted every Wednesday from now until the time of the Fair. RECEPTION COMMITTEE TO HAVE BUSY TIME

As Visitors for Reunion Will Arrive by Train, Boat and Auto.

Arrangements are being made for the opening of registration booths in the city buildings, and it is the desire of the general committee for the celebration, to have all the visitors for the Old Home Week register. It will form a fine collection of names of former Kingstonians, and will be very highly prized.

Owing to the fact that so many of the visitors will arrive by auto, it will make the work of the reception committee a rather difficult one, in that the members will have a hard time meeting all the visitors, but they hope to be able to extend a welcome to everyone, and if any of the visitors are overlooked in this respect, it will not be the fault of Mayor Angrove and his reception committee.

The Old Boys from Toronto, Hamilton, Chicago, Montreal and Ottawa are expected to arrive in the city early on Saturday afternoon. The reception committee is composed of Mayor Angrove, Ald. Kent, Ald. Craig, Ald. J. E. Johnston, Ald. Reid, S. S. Corbett, William Bailey, the mayor being given power to add to this number.

Queen's Summer School

Two hundred and eighty-six Summer School students took the trip to Glen Island on the Steamer Brockville on Monday on the school's annual excursion. Dr. MacClement, director of the school, was also along. Principal Taylor went down to the island in his yacht.

The picknickers arrived at the pleasure resort about 12.30 and spent a merry afternoon in various sports, baseball, dancing in the pavilion and sailing in the island's boat, while the principal took many out in his. All were able to find cover when a half-hour shower fell about two o'clock. After another lunch the boat took the students to the opposite shore where the party climbed the hill for a look at the Lake-on-the-Mountain. The return to the city was made about ten o'clock.

Classes had been called off and students who did not take the trip had a good day at tennis.

On Thursday night the annual business meeting will be held. Another social evening will likely be held on Friday night.

Socialists have made gains in county elections in France.
